Missed Work

Ordinarily no make-up will be given. However, if extraordinary circumstances seem to require one, then students must do the following in order to qualify: 1) inform the instructor of the problem prior to the exam itself, and 2) provide documentation afterward.

*Official Extracurricular Activity: If the date of any of the examinations conflicts with an official extracurricular activity, notify the instructor at least 2 weeks prior to the examination and provide official written notification no less than 1 week prior to the examination so that alternative arrangements can be made.

Academic Misconduct – “Academic integrity is a legitimate concern for every member of the campus community; all share in upholding the fundamental values of honesty, trust, respect, fairness, responsibility and professionalism. By choosing to join the UNLV community, students accept the expectations of the Academic Misconduct Policy and are encouraged when faced with choices to always take the ethical path. Students enrolling in UNLV assume the obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with UNLV’s function as an educational institution.”

An example of academic misconduct is plagiarism: “Using the words or ideas of another, from the internet or any source, without proper citation of the sources.”

RebelMail – Student’s UNLV e-mail account (RebelMail) is one of the primary ways students will receive official university communication: information about deadlines, major campus events, and announcements. All UNLV students receive a RebelMail account after they have been admitted to the university. For more information, see <<http://rebelmail.unlv.edu/>>.
