Grading System

Your grade in this class will be based on the following:

Midterm Examination-----	20%
Midterm Paper -----	20%
Attendance -----	20%
Final Examination -----	40%

Midterm Examination

The midterm examination will be held on October 12, 2007 and will cover Chapters 1 – 11 of the Government by the People. The examination is a closed book examination and will be essay based.

Midterm Paper

The midterm paper must be based on any of the subjects discussed in class. The topic should be broad enough to allow for a full development of the subject matter of the topic. The Paper will be due on October 12, 2007

The topic of your paper must be submitted by September 21, 2007. In addition to the topic chosen, you must provide a brief description of your topic and the context of your proposed paper. You will not be able to change your topic once it is approved.

The citations and bibliography for all papers must follow either the guidelines outline by the Modern Language Association, or by the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) 3rd or 4th edition. Both of these guides are in the reference section of the library.

A list of references or bibliography must be submitted to me by September 28, 2007.

Attendance & Participation

All students are expected to attend every class session and be ready to discuss the reading materials thoroughly. The assigned readings must be completed before attending class. Failure to comply with the reading requirements and to participate in class discussions will adversely affect one's grade in the class.

Final Examination

The final examination will be held on December 14, 2007, 1:00-p.m. and will be a two hour examination. The final examination will be a cumulative examination and will cover the entire semester's lectures and course reading materials. The final examination will be a closed book examination and will be essay based. 40% of your grade in this class is based on this examination- I recommend you prepare for it.

Additional Office Hours

If you are unable to attend my scheduled office hours, additional office hours are available by appointment at my office. To schedule an appointment, do not hesitate to contact me at my daytime office (702) 360-6200.
