Description: This course is an introduction to the political institutions and processes of the United States and Nevada. Successful completion of this course satisfies UNLV's U.S. and Nevada Constitution requirements. During the course, we will examine political, economic and social issues as they relate to political institutions and processes.

Required Texts:

Government by the People, Sixth Edition (Teaching and Learning Classroom Edition), Magleby, O'Brien, Light, Burns, Peltason and Cronin

Sagebrush State, Nevada's Government History and Politics, Third Edition, Michael W. Bowers

Prerequisites: There are no prerequisites for Political Science 101.

Attendance: Roll will not be taken. However, students will be responsible for all material, including that presented in class. Some questions on each test will be derived only from lecture material. Therefore, regular class attendance is strongly advised.

You may not attend class if you are not registered for the class. You may not attend a course section if you are not registered for that section. If you are requested by the Registrar or an Advisement office to obtain a faculty signature for any kind of add/drop or other administrative action, you will be referred to the Chairman of the Political Science Department.

Academic Misconduct: Academic integrity is a legitimate concern for every member of the campus community; all share in upholding the fundamental values of honesty, trust, respect, fairness, responsibility and professionalism. By choosing to join the UNLV community, students accept the expectations of the Academic Misconduct Policy and are encouraged when faced with choices to always take the ethical path. Students enrolled at UNLV assume the obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with UNLV's function as an educational institution.

Examples of misconduct include plagiarism (using the words or ideas of another, from the internet or any source, without proper citation of the source) and cheating. Any attempt to cheat on an examination will be subject to the most severe penalty the University allows.

Copyright and Fair Use Laws: The University requires all members of the UNLV Community to familiarize themselves with and to follow copyright and fair use requirements. YOU ARE INDIVIDUALLY AND SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR VIOLATIONS OF COPYRIGHT AND FAIR USE LAWS. THE UNIVERSITY WILL NEITHER PROTECT YOU NOR DEFEND YOU, NOR ASSUME ANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR EMPLOYEE OR STUDENT VIOLATIONS OF FAIR USE LAWS. Violations of copyright laws could subject you to federal and state civil penalties and criminal liability, as well as disciplinary action under University policies. To familiarize yourself with copyright and fair use policies, you are encouraged to visit the following website: <http://www.unlv.edu/committees/copyright/>.

Class Conduct and Interruptions: In accordance with UNLV's student conduct code and student expectations, it is important to maintain a class atmosphere conducive to listening, learning and concentration. Cell phones and pagers should be turned off and put away during class. Late arrivals, early departures, leaving and returning, eating in class, "side-bar" conversations and other inattentive behavior during class interrupt the flow of discussion and concentration of other students, and should be avoided. If a late arrival or early departure is unavoidable, please take a seat as near to the back of the classroom as possible to prevent disruption. If you use a laptop computer in class, please also sit in the back row, so as to avoid distracting other students.

Polite intellectual discourse and inquiry, with respect for the views and opinions of each other, will be the norm in class. No tape recording or filming of class sessions is permitted, as it can inhibit class participation.

Disabilities: The Disability Resource Center (DRC) coordinates all academic accommodations for students with documented disabilities. The DRC is the UNLV office that reviews and maintains disability documentation for students and provides them with an official Academic Accommodation Plan to present to the faculty if an accommodation is warranted. The DRC strongly encourages faculty to provide accommodations only if and when they are in receipt of said plan.

UNLV complies with the provisions set forth in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, offering reasonable accommodations to qualified students with documented disabilities. If you have a documented disability that may require accommodations, you will need to contact the DRC for the coordination of services. The DRC is located in the Student Services Center (SSC), Room 137, and the contact numbers are VOICE (702)895-0866; TTY (702)895-0652; FAX (702)895-0861. For additional information, please visit <http://www.studentlife.unlv.edu/disability/>.

Assignments and Grading:

Exams

There will be three closed-book exams of multiple choice, true-false and short answer essay questions. You will need to bring a Scantron form, a pencil and an exam book (or blank sheets of paper) to each exam. The results of each exam will comprise one-third of your grade.

Students will be graded on knowledge and understanding of textbook reading assignments and class lectures. Reading assignments and exam dates are set forth in the schedule below. The exams are not cumulative. Material from the readings not included in the lectures may be the basis for exam questions.

This syllabus, an outline of the textbooks and class lectures, and a study guide before each exam will be provided under this course on Web Campus.

Electronic dictionaries are not permitted to be used during exams.

Make-up Exams and Early/Late Exams

Religious Holidays: If you miss an examination because of a religious holiday that you observe, you will have the opportunity to make up the examination shortly thereafter. You must notify the instructor by January 31 if you anticipate missing an examination because of observance of a religious holiday so that alternative arrangements can be made.

Official extracurricular activity: If the date of any of the examinations conflicts with your participation in an official extracurricular activity, you will have the opportunity to make up the examination shortly thereafter. You must provide official written notification no less than one week prior to the examination so that alternative arrangements can be made.

Extraordinary circumstances: If extraordinary circumstances require you to miss an exam you will have the opportunity to make up the exam on the last day of scheduled class only (May 7).

There will be no make-up exam for the third exam, which will be given only on May 9, during exam week.

Early exams will not be given.

Class Discussions of Current Events

Discussions of current events related to U.S. and Nevada government and political activities will enhance your understanding of material covered in the text and the lectures. You should become familiar with current political trends and events through regular reading of newspapers and/or internet news sites, and through watching or listening to television and radio news and discussions shows.

Extra credit

There are no extra credit opportunities in this class.

Grade Percentages

90% and above = A
80%-89% = B
70%-79% = C
60%-69% = D
Below 60% = F

Students in the B, C and D ranges whose final percentages approach the next higher grade may receive a B+, C+ or D+. No minuses will be given.
