This course is an introduction to American government and politics. The course is intended to provide students with a basic understanding of the U.S. and Nevada constitutions, political institutions, political ideologies, participation, and civil rights and liberties. We will also discuss selected public policy issues and analyze political processes in the U.S. and Nevada.

Requirements, Grading, and Other Policies

Lecture and Discussion: The class will meet Monday through Friday for lectures and discussion. Students are expected to finish all of the assigned readings and to be prepared for discussion.

Exams and Grades: There will be two exams: a mid-term exam (July 24) and a final exam (August 10). The exams use an essay format. The mid-term exam counts for 45% of your final grade; the final exam counts for 50%, with the remaining 5% from participation.

Make-up exams will be given only if the student can demonstrate she/he was absent due to illness or participation in an official university function. Students must provide an excuse in writing from a licensed health care provider or from a university administrator.

University Policy for Students with Disabilities: Any student who, because of a disabling condition, may require some special arrangements to meet course requirements should contact the instructor as soon as possible to make necessary accommodations. Students should present appropriate verification from the Disability Resource Center (Room 137, Reynolds Student Services Center; 895-0866 [TDD 895-0652]).

Observance of Religious Holidays: Students who miss class due to observance of a religious holiday shall be given the opportunity to make up the missed work. Please notify the instructor no later than July 9 if you will miss class because of observance of a religious holiday.
