

AUTHORIZATION FOR OVERLOAD

- Normally, graduate students may not take more than 12 credit hours (10 if a graduate assistant) during the fall and spring terms.
- They may take no more than six credit hours in a single five-week summer term and earn no more than a total of 12 credits during the summer term (pre, post, and regular five-week sessions combined).
- Overloads are possible only with the approval of the department (the chairperson or delegate), the academic dean, and the Graduate College Dean. The student must provide compelling reasons why the overload should be approved.

Type directly into the highlighted fields or print clearly in blue or black ink.
