

Staff Geotechnical Engineer

Geotechnical & Environmental Services, Inc. is seeking a Staff Geotechnical Engineer with a minimum of 3 years of relevant geotechnical experience. Must have a Master's degree in Civil Engineering. Candidates with a Nevada PE and local experience will be preferred. Typical duties consist of assisting in planning, designing, and directing geotechnical engineering or construction testing/inspection projects by performing the following:

- Literature search
- Site reconnaissance for appropriateness of exploration (drilling or trenching)
- Conducts utility clearance and logs soils
- Perform lab tests, construction materials testing, and field audits
- Prepare reports including design and construction materials testing and inspection
- Acts as a project manager
- Analyze reports, maps, drawings, tests, and aerial photographs on soil composition, terrain, hydrological characteristics, and other topographical data to plan and design projects
- Instructs draftspersons/technicians to reduce designs to working drawings

If candidates are not registered professional civil engineers, then he/she should have the ability to obtain registration within 12 months of hire.

To apply, please complete our online application at <http://gesnevada.com/application-for-employment>. Submissions outside of our online application will not be considered.

GES is an Equal Opportunity Employer

Staff Geologist

Geotechnical & Environmental Services, Inc. is seeking an entry-level Staff Geologist with 0 – 5 years of experience. Typical duties consist of report generation, environmental site assessments, geologic logging, soil classification, monitoring well installation, soil and groundwater sampling, and CAD/GIS drafting in conformance with company standards and client schedules, making decisions out in the field that can have substantial impact on both the technical and financial success of the project. Candidate must have a B.S. in Geology or related field. Proficiency in drafting, mapping, CAD and ArcGIS and word processing preferred. Must have excellent oral and written communication skills. 40 hour HAZWOPER OSHA Health and Safety Training preferred.

To apply, please complete our online application at <http://gesnevada.com/application-for-employment>. Submissions outside of our online application will not be considered.

GES is an Equal Opportunity Employer.