

APIME HERITAGE MONTH 2014

ASIAN, PACIFIC ISLANDER & MIDDLE EASTERN

Holi Bash

March 27 @ 12:00pm
North Field

Get ready for a colorful afternoon with your friends at this Hindu spring festival. Enjoy bashing in colors, eating food and winning prizes.

Persian New Year Celebration

March 28 @ 7:00pm
SU Theatre

Join us as we celebrate the first day of spring and the beginning of the year with live music, performances and food.

APIME Trivia

April 1-30
Online

Test your knowledge on Asian, Pacific Islander and Middle Eastern history and heritage as questions will be posted online. Be the first to answer correctly and win a prize. Follow SODA on Facebook at Unlv Soda and on Twitter at unlv_soda for a chance to win.

Migration and Movement: Middle Eastern Refugees and Expatriates in the Far Corners of the World

April 2 @ 4:15pm

Join this fascinating dual presentation by scholars Dr. Steven Hyland and Dr. Isa Blumi on Middle Eastern peoples around the world and their descendants.

No Stupid Questions: Asian & Pacific Islander

April 2 @ 5:00pm
SU 208C

We all have questions. And no question is stupid. Student panelists who identify as Asian and Pacific Islander will briefly share their identities and experiences. You will then have the opportunity to anonymously ask any question.

The Struggle for Identity

April 4 @ 2:30pm

Auditorium, Greenspun Hall

A presentation and open discussion on issues related to acculturation, paper tigers, bamboo ceiling, tiger mom, role models and the generational gap.

UNCENSORED featuring Yellow Rage

April 10

Writing Workshop @ 1:00pm - SU 205

Performance @ 6:00pm - SU Theatre

Drawing from their own unique experiences, individual political ideologies and personal life philosophies as Asian American women, Yellow Rage's poems address issues which explore the intersections of race, culture, gender, community and self.

Festival of Communities

April 12 @ 11:00am

Alumni Walk

Celebrate the rich cultural diversity of UNLV and the Las Vegas community while honoring Earth Day. Join us for cultural discovery, performances and food.

Asian, Pacific Islander & Middle Eastern Heritage Month Celebration

April 14 @ 6:00pm

SU Ballrooms

Join us for an engaging conversation with UNLV faculty as they share their experiences and discuss various topics surrounding Asian, Pacific Islander and Middle Eastern communities.

Talking Back to your Television: Video Art & Activism

April 17 @ 5:00pm

CSJ Library (HOU)

Watch and discuss this compilation of short documentaries which confront the myths of Asian and Middle Eastern stereotypes through images, personal stories and film clips.

Roll It

April 24 @ 5:00pm

SU 218

Do you love to eat? Come make your own kimbap, maki, musubi and dolma.

Pilipino Culture Night

April 25 @ 6:00pm

SU Courtyard

Join us for a night to immerse yourself in Filipino culture through entertainment and festivities.

Events sponsored by: Filipino American Student Association, History Department, Indian Students Organization, Iranian Students Association, Nepalese Student Organization, OCED Center for Social Justice, OCED International Programs, OCED Multicultural Student Programs, Office of Diversity Initiatives, Students Organizing Diversity Activities.

UNLV

Special Accommodations
Require 72 Hours Notice.
Please Call 895-5631 for Assistance.