

Master's of Science in Hospitality Administration

Hospitality Management Careers

It's a powerful mix – a graduate degree coupled with extensive hospitality industry experience. For the person with a balance between education and experience, future jobs can be found at the management, director, or even officer level.

Below are just a few of your career path options:

Hotels/Lodging and Resort Management

- General Manager, Hotel/Lodge
- Room Reservations Manager
- Front Desk Manager
- Front Office Manager
- Front Services Manager
- Director/Manager of Housekeeping
- Public Area Manager
- Employment & Benefits Manager
- Employee Services Manager
- Labor Relations Manager
- Guest Relations Manager
- Concierge Manager

- VIP Services Manager
- Business Services Manager
- Transportation Manager

Tourism/Convention

- Convention Sales Manager
- Convention Services Manager
- Meeting Planner
- Cruise Ship Director
- Events Manager
- Destination Marketing Manager

Foodservice Management

- Food and Beverage Manager
- Catering Manager
- Banquet Manager
- Beverage Manager
- Sommelier
- Nightclub Manager
- Restaurant Reservation Manager
- Business Manager
- Food & Beverage Information Technology
- Food & Beverage Analyst
- Food & Beverage Cost Accountant
- Purchasing Agent

- Food & Beverage Distributor
- Quality Assurance Manager
- Foodservice Director (healthcare)
- Resort/Hotel Food Service Manager

Gaming

- Slot Analyst
- Casino Financial Analyst
- Casino Marketing Analyst
- Casino Marketing Manager
- Poker Room Manager
- Race and Sports Manager/Director
- Casino Cage Manager
- Pit Clerk Manager

Financial/Management Information Systems

- Credit Administrator (MBA)
- Data Manager
- Financial Analyst
- Manager Financial
- Accounting Manager
- Purchasing manager