There is so much to see and do at Rebel Preview. We encourage you to carefully plan your day so you are sure to fit in the events that you are most excited about.

STEP 1
Review the program to find out about the tours, presentations, workshops and open houses that are offered and determine which ones you’d like to attend. If you brought family or friends, you may want to split up to cover more activities.

Open Houses
Stop in to participating departments to ask questions about their programs and meet UNLV students and staff members.

Tours
Meet a tour guide who will take you through various parts of campus. General campus tours and specialized tours will be offered.

Workshops
Academic departments and student life offices will be presenting various topics throughout the day. View the schedule and descriptions included in this program.

STEP 2
Look over the map to get a feel for the campus. Identify which events you’d like to attend and locate them on the map. Each event location is noted on the map.

STEP 3
Get started on your Rebel Preview experience. Be sure to get your Rebel Rewards Card stamped at each event you attend.

TIPS TO PLAN YOUR DAY
- Not sure what to major in? No problem. The Academic Success Center is here to support students and assist with exploring interests and choosing a major.
