Our Mission is to protect and defend the United States against terrorist and foreign intelligence threats, to uphold and enforce the criminal laws of the United States, and to provide leadership and criminal justice services to federal, state, municipal, and international agencies and partners. Public Service is a public trust. For the FBI, this means that the public has committed to our care the safety of our Nation and the defense of our Constitution. To sustain that trust and to meet our resulting obligations, we must adhere strictly to our core values of: Rigorous obedience to the Constitution, Respect, Compassion, Fairness, Integrity, Accountability, and Leadership and Diversity.

Roles and Responsibilities

• Provide investigative support as an advanced trainee by conducting physical surveillances related to the Foreign Counterintelligence (FCI) functions of the FBI.
  • Maintain visual contact with subjects of investigative interest.
  • Document activities of targets without detection.
  • Identify contacts in sufficient detail to enable follow-up investigative activity and determine and report identities of any unknown subjects.
