About the University of Nevada, Las Vegas

UNLV is a doctoral-degree-granting institution of 28,000 students and 3,100 faculty and staff. Founded in 1957, the university offers more than 220 undergraduate, master's, and doctoral degree programs. UNLV is located in dynamic Southern Nevada and is classified in the category of Research Universities (high research activity) by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

UNLV has a beautiful 350-acre main campus whose modern facilities are connected by spacious lawns and tree-shaded walkways complemented by desert foliage. All the conveniences of a cosmopolitan area close by include the airport, homes and apartments, libraries, schools, shopping centers, and, of course, Las Vegas resorts.

The Surrounding Area

Las Vegas is a metropolitan community of nearly two million people located in the heart of the scenic Southwest. The dry desert climate and informal lifestyle of this area promote year-round participation in a variety of recreational activities.
