November 2nd Center for Social Justice
4:00-8:00 PM

Día de los Muertos
Dia de los Muertos is a Mexican tradition that focuses on gatherings of family and friends to honor loved ones that have passed, and help support their spiritual journey. Dia de los Muertos is celebrated on November 1 and November 2, altars are constructed with food and crafts to honor loved ones.

Join us at the Center for Social Justice for arts and crafts such as painting sugar skulls, paper flowers, papel picado, candles, etc. We will also have some snacks available throughout the event. This event is sponsored by the Center for Social Justice, Students Organizing Diverse Activities, International Council, and Movimiento Estudiantil Chicanx de Aztlan (MEChA).

To request special accommodations, please contact Roberto Orozco at roberto.orozco@unlv.edu.
