Mi Familia Vota
Research and Data Internship
(Fall 2016)

About Mi Familia Vota
Mi Familia Vota (MFV) is a national non-profit, non-partisan organization that unites Latino immigrant and allied communities to promote social justice through increased civic engagement. Our mission is to provide Latinos and New Americans with a voice in our country’s democratic process.

Description
MFV offers unpaid internships to motivated and passionate individuals who are interested in engaging and mobilizing the Latino community. Our Research and Data Interns will gain experience in the quickly growing field of data and voter engagement and will be a part of a powerful movement to increase the Latino vote in 2016. Students of all educational backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

Responsibilities
MFV’s Research and Data Interns will collaborate with the Associate Director of Research and Data to support voter mobilization efforts during the 2016 election cycle. Specific duties may include but are not limited to:

- Monitoring the flow of supporter and voter data within MFV’s various databases
- Overseeing the hygiene of data and ensuring accuracy and quality control
- Analyzing the success of MFV’s voter mobilization programs
- Gaining awareness of best practices for get-out-the-vote efforts (GOTV)
- Conducting research on MFV’s six issues (Immigration, Voting Rights, Healthcare, Worker’s Rights, Environment, and Education)
- Gathering statistics related to Latino voters from the U.S. Census Bureau

Qualifications

- A strong interest in advancing MFV’s mission through data and research
- An understanding of basic data practices and a willingness to learn new skills
- Demonstrated written and verbal communication skills
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office tools (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Access)
- A minimum commitment of 5-10 hours/week for the Fall 2016 semester

To Apply
Applicants should send their resume and a 500 word statement explaining why they would like to be a Research and Data Intern at Mi Familia Vota to:

- Samantha De La Fuente (Mi Familia Vota) samanthad@mifamiliavota.org
- Professor Steven Parker (UNLV) parkers@unlv.nevada.edu