As previously announced, the campus visits and campus forums have also been scheduled for the week of November 10. Meetings are scheduled for each candidate to meet with groups representing the undergraduate and graduate student leadership, Faculty Senate Executive Committee, Classified Staff Council, UNLV alumni, Deans' Council, President's Cabinet, President's Advisory Council, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, and community leaders, including the Las Vegas Global and Economic Alliance and Las Vegas Chambers,

UNLV Foundation Board Trustees, and Clark County School District and K-12 Leadership. In addition to these group meetings, two open forums are scheduled for each candidate to meet with the UNLV community and the public. Any member of the UNLV community or public who is interested in meeting the candidates may attend either of the open forums.

The complete schedule of meetings and forums for each candidate have been posted on the UNLV president search website at: unlv.edu/presidentsearch

Following the week of campus visits, the UNLV President Search Committee will meet again on Monday, November 17 to hear reports regarding the meetings and forums and input received from the various groups, and for the Committee and its advisory members to interview the candidates in depth. This meeting will commence at 8:00 a.m. in the Marietta Tiberti Grand Hall in the Richard Tam Alumni Center. At the conclusion of the interviews, the Committee and its advisory members will deliberate toward a recommendation of a candidate as the next president of UNLV. If necessary, the Committee meeting will recess on November 17 and reconvene at 9:00 a.m. on November 18 to continue the interviewing process and deliberations toward a recommendation of a candidate for consideration by the full Board of Regents for appointment as the next president of UNLV.

If at the November 17-18 Committee meeting, the Committee makes a recommendation of a candidate for consideration of appointment by the full Board of Regents, the Board will meet on November 18 at 2:00 p.m. in the Board room of the Nevada System of Higher Education System Administration Building at 4300 South Maryland Parkway to consider the appointment of that candidate as the next president of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

The UNLV community and the general public's input is an integral element of the search process. Public comment is invited, anticipated and welcomed at each of the Committee meeting and at the Board meeting. The Committee agenda and the special Board meeting agenda have been posted on the NSHE website at: <http://system.nevada.edu/Nshe/index.cfm/administration/board-of-regents/meeting-agendas/> on the UNLV president search website at: unlv.edu/presidentsearch and on the State of Nevada public notice website at: <https://notice.nv.gov/>

Please join us at the upcoming Committee and Board of Regents' meetings. A president search is the most important task undertaken at the university and your input in this process is critical.
