My name is Gerry Jones, Dean and Professor of the College of Fine Arts at the University of Nevada Las Vegas. The University of Nevada Las Vegas College of Fine Arts Alumni Chapter is dedicated to keeping our Alumnus informed of everything that is going on at UNLV. As a chapter, we are deeply committed to fostering a strong sense of community among our alumni, and we believe that each and every single Alumnus through the felt it touch with what is going on at UNLV. As a decided we needed to keep our Alumnus in touch with UNLV and its activities. I am proud to introduce the new Newslet-

We must keep the original as a Chapter can be found on our UNLV Alumni Page.

I am proud to introduce the newest addition to our Alumni family, Associate Dean of the College of Fine Arts, Jeff Koep. Jeff has directed a transition. I want to thank Jeff for all his time and dedication to the College of Fine Arts. I am excited to work with Jeff as we move forward with the College of Fine Arts.

The Dorothy & Herbert Vogel Collection of Decorative Arts is housed at the Nevada Museum of Art. The collection was donated to facilities in all 50 states. Recent Acquisitions include a large number of works by Texas artist, Helga Watkins, who has a long and distinguished career, including many exhibitions in the United States and internationally. Watkins has been included in several exhibitions in the past year, including "Sliced in Two," held at the Nevada Museum of Art. Watkins is known for her sculptures and installations, which explore the relationship between art and the human body. She has received numerous awards and recognition for her work, including the Nevada Arts Award for Outstanding Achievement in the Arts. Watkins is currently serving as vice president of the American Federation of Arts.
