*Transfer work is subject to the following restrictions: Such work must be accomplished at an accredited institution. Work must be completed with grades of a "B" or better and must be clearly designated as "graduate-level". Such work must not be used to earn any other degree, at UNLV or elsewhere. Such work must not be a workshop or correspondence course. An official transcript(s) covering the work in question must be submitted to the UNLV Graduate College as soon as possible after the work has been completed. Course work completed more than six calendar years before the term in which all degree requirements are met may not be used in the degree program. A student beginning a doctoral degree program without a master's degree must complete all requirements for the degree within eight years.
