Interns Wanted

Interested in participating in government?

Even consider a career in politics?

Want an opportunity to work hands-on with local constituents about matters that concern you?

The State of Nevada, Office of the Governor, is seeking part-time interns. Through working at the Governor’s office, interns are able to gain knowledge of the essential components of public policy and government.

Interns must possess a strong work ethic and ability to function in a fast-paced environment. Public relation skills are important, as well as the ability to work with others. Computer literacy and office skills are required. Both undergraduate and graduate level students are welcome to apply.

Please contact Monica Phillips at (702) 486-2500 for further details.
