Press Release:

UNLV Academic Integrity Days
October 2 – 3, 2007

Academic Integrity is a concept that all universities aim to develop in their students. At UNLV, the Executive Vice President and Provost’s Committee on the Culture of Teaching and Learning and the Office of Student Life has organized the first UNLV Academic Integrity Days. On October 2 through 3, 2007 there will be events across the campus for faculty and students as they begin to have a meaningful dialogue about what Academic Integrity actually is and how to create a climate where Rebels have Integrity.

Events:

Tuesday, October 2, 2007 9:30 am to Noon: Student Union Room 218A
Faculty Panel on Academic Integrity – Campus Forum
A hands-on session to consider issues of academic integrity, how to promote it and how to deal with its absence. Register at http://tlc.unlv.edu/

Tuesday, 11:00 am – 12:00: Teaching and Learning Center, Pioche Room, 1st floor Lied Library
Graduate Student Workshop on Plagiarism

Wednesday, Oct. 3, 2007 12:00 – 2:00 pm Student Union Room 219
Proctoring Workshop for Instructors – Office of Student Conduct
A “nuts-n-bolts” session designed for all instructors providing a variety of ways to prevent academic misconduct and how to respond when it does occur. Walk-ins welcome.

Tuesday, October 2 & Wednesday, October 3, 2007 10:00 am to 2:00 pm and 4:30 pm – 6:00 pm
Outside the Student Union and Alumni Mall across from Lied Library
Rebels have Integrity Activities Area:
- Play Games, Win Prizes, Giveaways and Door Prizes
- Ten Principles of Academic Integrity handout for Faculty
- Read the Code of Conduct handout
- Sign the banner to pledge support for Academic Integrity at UNLV.
- View the plagiarism tutorial.
- Compete in the Plagiarism Game and win prizes.
- Fill the suggestion box, tell us your ideas about how to inspire academic integrity.
- Explore using Turnitin in your classes.