Clark Co. Housing Scholarship
Graduates of a Clark County school with a minimum 3.5 weighted GPA may be eligible for a $2,000 scholarship. The first 300 qualified applicants who meet the following criteria will receive automatic consideration for this award, until funding expires:
1. Be a Clark County school graduate with a minimum 3.5 weighted GPA
2. Be a graduate of a Clark County school, or home schooled within Clark County
3. Be a first time freshman
4. Apply for housing before the June 1, 2012 priority deadline
5. Reside in a UNLV residence hall for the Fall and Spring semesters

Other criteria:
1. Award will be disbursed $1,000 in fall term, $1,000 in the spring term
2. New spring residents are eligible for $1,000, if there is funding left
3. A student must enroll and pass at least 12 credit hours each semester. Students who do not pass at least 12 credit hours each semester will forfeit future eligibility for this scholarship.
4. The Financial Aid & Scholarships Office must have a current year FAFSA at the time the award is made and the student must demonstrate financial need from the FAFSA.

Eligibility for year two:
1. A student must enroll and pass at least 12 credit hours each semester. Students who do not pass at least 12 credit hours each semester will forfeit future eligibility for this scholarship.
2. Student must have resided in a UNLV residence hall during the freshman year
3. Student must participate in Priority Room Selection for following year
4. Student must maintain a 2.75 cumulative GPA each semester
5. Student must be meeting the financial aid satisfactory academic progress policy

Award Message:
Clark Co. Housing Scholarship
You have been awarded the Clark Co. Housing Scholarship. In order to receive this scholarship, you will need to apply for UNLV Housing by the priority June 1, 2012 deadline. You will need to live in a UNLV residence hall during your freshman year, must enroll and pass 12 credit hours each term and maintain a 2.75 each term. Additional eligibility information can be found at: housing.unlv.edu.