SELF-GUIDED TOUR

Welcome to the University of Nevada, Las Vegas! This self-guided tour highlights some of our most notable sights. The designated route takes approximately 90 minutes to complete, but feel free to explore campus your way! We hope you enjoy your time at UNLV.

Check out unlv.edu/admissions/campustours for our visit opportunities.

1 Student Services Complex (SSC)

Whether you need assistance with financial aid and scholarships, want to talk to an admission counselor, or are interested in learning more about military and veteran services on campus, you'll want to visit the Student Services Complex. This complex is our central hub for student support and special service centers.

Offices Include:

- Admissions
- Financial Aid & Scholarships
- Cashiering & Student Accounts
- Registrar
- International Students & Scholars
- Military & Veteran Services Center
- Center for Academic Enrichment & Outreach
- Disability Resource Center
- The CARE Center

2 Academic Success Center (ASC)

The Academic Success Center partners with the campus community to welcome, guide, and support students throughout their academic careers. Here you can receive free tutoring, advising, academic coaching, and more.

3 Carol C. Harter Classroom Building Complex (CBC)

With nearly half of the classrooms on campus located in this complex, you're likely to have a class or two here.

4 Hospitality Hall (HOS)

UNLV's newest building on campus is home to the William F. Harrah College of Hospitality. With its interactive learning opportunities, including an executive kitchen, student-run cafe, and PGA Golf Management learning center, Hospitality Hall sets a new standard of excellence in hospitality education.

5 Lied Library (LLB)

As the main library on campus, Lied Library boasts 2,500 study spaces, 300 computer workstations, and provides countless research and media resources for students. It's also equipped with several technological innovations, including an automated storage and robotic retrieval system capable of storing 1.2 million volumes.

6 Marjorie Barrick Museum of Art & Donald H. Baepler Xeric Garden (MSM)

Known as the center for the arts on campus, the Barrick Museum features rotating exhibitions of incredible works from past and present cultures. The adjacent 9,000 square-foot Xeric Garden features drought-tolerant plants and a water-efficient irrigation system.

7 Robert L. Bigelow Physics (BPB)

Color spectrum hall banners, walls curved like a sine wave, and an apple tree honoring Newton's gravity realization are a few of the scientific representations around this building. Here students study and conduct research in physics and astronomy and also have access to an observatory telescope. The advising center for the College of Sciences is located west of this building in the Paul McDermott Physical Education Complex.

8 Juanita Greer White Life Sciences (WHI)

This building is built around an atrium and contains labs, classrooms, and specialized research spaces for life sciences. Directly north of the building is the White Hall Annex, which houses the Division of Health Sciences' advising center.

9 Thomas T. Beam Engineering Complex (TBE)

The complex is home to the Howard R. Hughes College of Engineering. Here students can get hands-on experience with acoustic chambers, a wind tunnel and water flume, and labs for soil, metal, and robotics. The complex also has a full-scale replica of Howard Hughes' record-setting H-1 Racer suspended from the Great Hall of Engineering.

10 Science & Engineering Building (SEB)

The state-of-the-art research facility was designed to promote interdisciplinary collaboration. With its exceptional laboratory space, the building offers faculty and students opportunities to participate in high-profile research projects using some of the most technologically advanced equipment available.

11 Artemus W. Ham Concert Hall (HCH)

With excellent acoustics and great sight-lines, this spacious concert hall showcases a wide range of student and professional performances throughout the year, including ballet, light opera, folk, pop, jazz, and full symphonic productions.

12 The Flashlight

Created by internationally known artists Claes Oldenburg and Coosje van Bruggen, this sculpture is located in the plaza between Artemus W. Ham Concert Hall and the Judy Bayley Theatre. Its design references the flashlights ushers use to guide individuals to their seats.

13 Judy Bayley Theatre (JBT)

Home to many of UNLV's performing arts groups, this space features a raked auditorium, a fully-rigged proscenium stage, and a thrust-apron that can be used as an orchestra pit.

14 Lee & Thomas Beam Music Center (BMC)

The center houses the Music Department and the Music Library. It also contains a recital hall, a state-of-the-art recording studio, and the Music Technology Lab.

15 Alta Ham Fine Arts (HFA)

Special features in this building include music practice rooms, ceramics facilities, and several studios for art, dance, outdoor sculpture, and theater set design. Also located in this building is the Donna Beam Fine Arts Gallery, which showcases artists' work from UNLV, the nation, and the world.

16 Lee Pascal Memorial Rose Garden

The garden contributes to our beautiful campus, which is designated as an arboretum by the state — a distinction that fewer than 10 percent of national college campuses hold.

17 William D. Carlson Education (CEB)

Home to the College of Education, this building features research centers and clinics dedicated to furthering education. It also houses the Teacher Development & Resources Library, which has more than 30,000 items across various collections.

18 The Talisman

If you can spot the letters U-N-L-V in the sculpture's twisted metal, you're destined to be part of our UNLV family.

19 Beverly Rogers Literature & Law Building (RLI)

The building houses the Honors College and Black Mountain Institute. The Honors College brings together high-achieving students from across all disciplines offering a rigorous core curriculum. The Black Mountain Institute is an international literary center that supports and promotes humanistic and cross-cultural dialogue.

20 William S. Boyd School of Law (BSL)

The William S. Boyd School of Law educates ethical and effective lawyers and leaders. Within this building is the Thomas and Mack Moot Court Facility, which supports the school's appellate advocacy training programs, and provides a venue for judicial proceedings by state and federal courts.

21 The Clock Tower

The Clock Tower is located in the Academic Mall. It sounds every half hour and even chimes with holiday spirit in December.

22 Richard Tam Alumni Center (TAC)

The UNLV Alumni Association offers a variety of services and opportunities for our more than 120,000 alumni. The center features a circular art gallery and a contemporary art sculpture, The Heliotrope.

23 John S. Wright Hall (WRI)

In addition to lecture halls, classrooms, seminar rooms, and a large auditorium, you will find the College of Liberal Arts in this building. As the largest academic college at UNLV, it boasts over 140 faculty members across 19 disciplines.

24 Frank & Estella Beam Hall (BEH)

Business students will take many classes inside this hall. The Lee Business School is among only 188 business colleges worldwide to hold international dual accreditation in business and accounting by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

25 Student Union (SU)

Commonly referred to as the SU, the Student Union is a great place to meet up with friends, grab a bite to eat, get in some last-minute studying, or have fun in the game room. The SU is also the official home of UNLV's Registered Student Organizations. Students have the opportunity to join more than 400 clubs and organizations.

26 Greenspun Hall (GUA)

Home to the Greenspun College of Urban Affairs, the hall features a media production facility for UNLV TV, the public radio station KUNV, and Rebel-HD2 – a primarily student-run station. This building also boasts energy savings, water efficiency, and reduced CO2 emissions, making it Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design (LEED) gold-certified.

27 UNLV Bookstore (BKS)

From t-shirts and pennants to coffee mugs and magnets, you're sure to find something here to show off your UNLV pride! The bookstore also makes it easy for students to find course materials and to purchase textbooks.

28 Tonopah Residence Complex (TON)

This six-story, two-building residential housing complex is home to a mix of 600 first-year and upper-class students. Like all campus housing, it features wireless internet, cable TV, social and game lounges, and in-building laundry.

29 Hazel M. Wilson Dining Commons (DIN)

With a salad bar, grill, made-to-order pasta, and international options, this buffet is a go-to for students, especially for those living on campus.

30 Student Recreation & Wellness Center (SRWC)

The 184,000 square foot Student Recreation & Wellness Center offers something for everyone, from cardio equipment and free weights to swimming pools and basketball courts. The SRWC also houses the Student Health Center, Pharmacy, and Rebel Wellness Zone, providing convenient access to health and wellness services. Students registered for at least 4 credit hours during the current semester can use the facilities at no additional charge.
