Las Vegas African American History Website Launch
Friday, January 24 - 1:00pm
Goldfield Room, Lied Library
Be part of this historic moment and view the “Documenting the African American Experience in Las Vegas” website (http://digital.library.unlv.edu/aae/about). Participate in a lively discussion as we share stories and relate history.

Uncensored: Javon Johnson
Wednesday, February 5 - 2:00pm in SU 205
Performance - 6:00pm in SU Theatre
Featured poet Javon Johnson merges race and gender theory with comedy, lyricism and rhyme schemes through his award winning spoken word.

No Stupid Questions: Black/African American
Wednesday, February 5 - 5:00pm
SU 218
We all have questions. And no question is stupid. Student panelists will briefly share their identities and experiences. No fear of having to use politically correct language as each question is assumed to come from a place of curiosity and respect.

Black History Trivia
Thursday, February 6 - 5:00pm
SU 218
It's trivia time! How much Black history do you know? Come and test your knowledge with a fun and relaxed game.

Disconnecting School-to-Prison Pipeline
Friday, February 7 - 2:30pm
Greenspun College of Urban Affairs Auditorium
This Diversity Leadership Forum brings together community and campus leaders to offer perspectives on key social and economic issues impacting various communities in Southern Nevada.

Famous Black Americans
Thursday, February 13 - 5:00pm
SU 218
There are many influential Black and African Americans throughout history. Bring information about one person and as a collective we will share and learn together.

African American Scholar Recognition Reception
Sunday, February 16 - 1:00pm
Goldfield Room, Lied Library
Join UNLV faculty and staff and other high achieving students and their families as we celebrate your academic accomplishments. RSVP required.

Black History Month Celebration: Looking Back, Moving Forward
Thursday, February 20 - 6:00pm
SU Ballrooms
Listen to an engaging discussion between Las Vegas politicians, educators and entertainers as they highlight important moments of their industry's past and share current trends.

Dark Girls
Thursday, February 27 - 5:00pm
Giles M. Dye (HOU) Library
Watch and discuss this fascinating and controversial documentary that goes underneath the surface to explore the roots of classism, racism and the lack of self-esteem within a segment of cultures.

Rebel Service Day
Friday, February 28
Various Locations
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once said, "Life's most persistent and urgent question is: 'What are you doing for others?"' Participate in this national call to action as the UNLV community comes together by serving our neighbors and local community.

Events sponsored by: