

IRB REVIEW PROCESS

Protocols are received and logged in by the ORI-HS staff, which conducts an initial administrative review. If revisions are noted by staff, the protocol is returned with an administrative request. If the protocol is excluded or exempt, the administrator typically makes that determination and provides a notice to the investigator that the study may begin. If the protocol is either expedited or requires full board review, the process in this flow chart is followed.

