Fiery passion and pathos combine on a grand scale at our Opening Night Celebration which embraces the drama and heart-wrenching tenderness of arias by opera masters such as Puccini, Verdi and Mozart alongside orchestral showpieces including Verdi's triumphal march from Aida, Wagner's Prelude to Act III from Lohengrin and Richard Strauss's Rosenkavalier Suite. Assistant conductor for the New York Philharmonic, Case Scaglione, returns to lead this lyrical opening season celebration.
