Undergraduate International Application Worksheet

This is not an official application. You must submit your application online at unlv.edu/admissions.

Who Should Complete This Application?

If you require documents for F-1 student visa status, you can use this worksheet to prepare for the online international application. If you are a U.S. citizen, are a permanent resident (green card holder), or have another nonimmigrant status and do not wish to change it to F-1 Student Visa status, complete the domestic application worksheet found at unlv.edu/admissions.

Application Deadline

If you are already in F-1 visa status and will transfer your I-20 to UNLV, you must submit the online application and all required documents by the deadlines listed below.

Spring 2010: Nov. 13, 2009
Fall 2010: Aug. 6, 2010

If you require a new U.S. Immigration Form I-20 to request an F-1 student visa at a U.S. Consulate visa-issuing office, you must submit your online application and all required documents by the deadlines listed below.

Spring 2010: Nov. 2, 2009
Fall 2010: July 5, 2010

Application Checklist

Submit the following official documents to the Office of Admissions at the address listed below. The evaluation of academic credentials to determine eligibility for admission is made only when all required items are received. If you have any questions during the process, please call 702-774-8658 or send an e-mail message to admissions@unlv.edu.

- Submit Proof of English Proficiency
  (one of the following)

  - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL):
    A score of 500 or better is required for general admission (173 on the computer-based test or 61 on iBT), and a 525 or better to major in Hotel Administration (193 or higher on the computer-based test or 73 on iBT). The scores must be sent directly to UNLV by the testing service.

    Information concerning TOEFL testing dates and sites may be obtained by writing to TOEFL Services Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 6151, Princeton, NJ 08541-6151, USA, or by visiting toefl.org. To have scores sent to UNLV, please use the undergraduate score reporting number, 4861.

  - The Michigan Test of English Proficiency:
    This test is offered at UNLV and can be used in place of the TOEFL exam. A score of 76 percent or better is needed for general admission or 80 percent or better for Hotel Administration. Only scores from UNLV’s Michigan Test are accepted. For information on the Michigan Test, please call UNLV’s English Language Center at 702-895-3925.

    University-level course result from a college in the United States that is equivalent to UNLV’s English 101 with a grade of “C” or above.

    Four years of college preparation high school English courses in the U.S. and appropriate ACT or SAT scores

    If you are academically admissible to UNLV, but your English proficiency scores/grades do not meet the requirement, you may be placed in the English Language Center. You will be permitted to enroll in academic classes upon proving that your English language ability meets UNLV’s admission requirements.

Office of Admissions

4505 S. Maryland Parkway, Box 451021
Las Vegas, NV 89154-1021 USA
After You've Received a Decision

The Office of International Students and Scholars issues the I-20 Form once a favorable decision has been reached regarding admission to the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Instructions and additional information can be found on the Confidential Certification Form attached to this application.

Before the I-20 can be issued, a bank letter certifying the availability of funds sufficient to cover the estimated expenses for the academic year you wish to begin your studies and a completed Confidential Financial Certification Form must be received by the Office of International Students and Scholars.

Reference List for Programs, Majors, and Certificates

Indicate your first- and second-choice major on this application. Students may enter UNLV without declaring a major by choosing the undeclared major as their first choice with no second choice. If you do not meet the admission requirements for your first choice, the university reserves the right to place you in your second-choice major or undeclared major where your academic advisor will be in the Academic Success Center. Please note: For many of UNLV’s majors, students are admitted into a college and then placed into a major once they have met with an academic advisor. For example, students are admitted into the College of Business and then placed into one of the 10 individual majors after meeting with an advisor.

Insight Resume

The following six questions are designed to elicit responses that could help to identify potential scholarships and/or support services for applicants. Responses to all six questions will be read and scored as a whole.

Responses should be limited to 100 words per question.

1. Describe examples of your leadership experience in which you significantly influenced others, helped resolve disputes, or contributed to group efforts over time. Consider responsibilities to initiatives taken in or out of school.

2. Describe any special interests and how you developed knowledge in these areas. Give examples of your creativity – the ability to see alternatives; take diverse perspectives; come up with many, varied or original ideas; or willingness to try new things.

3. Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to address this challenge. Include whether you turned to anyone in facing the challenge, the role the person played, and what you learned about yourself.

4. Explain what you have done to make your community a better place to live. Give examples of specific projects in which you have been involved over time.

5. Describe your experiences facing or witnessing discrimination. Tell us how you responded and what you learned from these experiences and how they have prepared you to contribute to the UNLV community.

6. Articulate the goals you have established for yourself and your efforts to accomplish these. Give at least one specific example that demonstrates your work ethic/diligence.

Scholarship Application

This section of the application will be used to award scholarships and is not mandatory for the completion of your application. You can review UNLV’s scholarships, requirements, and deadlines at finaid.unlv.edu.

Many of UNLV’s need- and merit-based scholarships are awarded automatically based on the information you report on your application for admission and/or Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). However, some scholarships are awarded based on unique characteristics such as your ethnic background, family history, etc. If you are interested in applying for these types of scholarships, please complete the questions listed below.

Important: Your answers to these questions will not positively or negatively impact the consideration of your application for admission.

Select all that apply:

- I am a naturalized citizen of the United States. (I was born an alien and have lawfully become a citizen of the United States under the constitution and legal resident laws).
- I am the child of a naturalized citizen of the United States. (My parent was born an alien and has lawfully become a citizen of the United States under the constitution and legal resident laws).
