About Secondary Education

Students majoring in Secondary Education may earn either the Bachelor of Science or the Bachelor of Arts degree. Students in the program will receive a broad theoretical and extensive practical preparation in the field of education. Students select at least one specific teaching field in which to specialize. Options include: mathematics, social studies, English, and various science fields.

Upon completing the program, students will be eligible for a license issued by the Nevada State Department of Education. This degree, along with completion of all state licensing requirements, qualifies students to teach in 7-12th grade.
