

Master of Arts in Economics Program Handbook

Welcome

The Master of Arts in Economics provides students with the modeling capability and advanced quantitative skills necessary for success in today's competitive job market. We have had great success in placing our graduates in top analyst positions in the public and private sectors. The program also provides excellent training for students planning to pursue a Ph.D in economics or some related discipline. Please contact the graduate coordinator if you want to join the growing list of highly successful MA graduates.

Mission Statement(s)

Cultivating leaders who transform business: Mission Statement of the Lee Business School (as appropriate).

Purpose

The purpose of this handbook is to provide program specific information that is not found in the UNLV Graduate Catalog. Students are responsible for understanding and following the policies and procedures delineated in this document and the UNLV Graduate Catalog, as well as the NSHE Code, UNLV Bylaws, and the UNLV Student Conduct Code. Questions about policies should be directed to the Graduate College: valarie.burke@unlv.edu or GradAssociateDean@unlv.edu.

Department Graduate Faculty

A current listing of the graduate faculty can be found in the UNLV Graduate Catalog. Faculty must hold either associate or full graduate faculty status to be involved in graduate education at UNLV. For up to date information regarding graduate faculty status in your department, visit the Graduate Faculty status web page.

Program Requirements

Program requirements regarding admission, coursework and culminating experience are found in the graduate catalog.

Advisory Committee Guidelines

As a culminating experience, the student will complete a professional paper or thesis, which will be guided by a four-member advisory committee. Three members of the committee will be graduate faculty from the Department of Economics and the fourth will be a graduate faculty from outside the Department of Economics who holds full graduate faculty status. Students should consult with the graduate coordinator in the formation of their committees.

Degree Program Benchmarks

The program requires 30 credit hours, which includes 18 credit hours of core economics courses, 9 credit hours of electives, and 3 credits writing the professional paper. For students going the thesis option, one less elective will be required and 6 thesis credits will be required.

The culminating experience consists of writing a professional level research paper that uses the modeling and quantitative skill developed in the coursework. Typically the students write their professional papers or theses during their second semester/year of the program.

To maintain good academic standing, students are required to maintain a 3.0 GPA. For students who fall below a 3.0, academic probation will be imposed and a remedial plan adopted. Students must have 3.0 GPA to graduate from the program.

Program Timeline

Typically students require 18 to 24 months to complete the program

Professional Code of Ethics/Discipline Guidelines

UNLV Graduate College policy regarding academic integrity can be found in the graduate catalog.

Annual Review Procedures

Each spring term, graduate students are required to complete the Graduate Student Annual Review survey. This survey will be sent by the Graduate College to the student's Rebelmail account. The review covers the prior calendar year and assesses student progress while setting goals for the year ahead.

Probation

If a student fails to successfully progress in their degree program, their department/school will recommend that the student be placed on probation by the Graduate College. Students on probation may be dismissed/separated from their program for failing to successfully meet the conditions of their probation by the deadline provided. Please see the Probation and Separation section of the Graduate Catalog for more information.

The GPSA also provides volunteer opportunities, sponsors social events, and supports graduate student research through the graduate research and travel grants program.

Office of Student Conduct

The Office of Student Conduct is a student-centered, service-oriented office located within the Division of Student Affairs. The Office of Student Conduct collaborates with the UNLV community to provide an inclusive system through enforcement of the UNLV Student Code of Conduct by:

- Promoting awareness of student rights and responsibilities;
- Establishing accountability for student choices;
- Creating opportunities for involvement in the process; and
- Striving to uphold the values and ethics that advance the common good.

Office of Veteran Services

The UNLV Office of Veteran Services is staffed with veterans and GI Bill-experienced staff to assist more than 1,000 veterans, dependents, active duty service members, National Guard members, and reservists. Their mission is to develop a welcoming, veteran-friendly campus environment that fosters academic and personal success.

The Financial Aid & Scholarships Office

The Financial Aid & Scholarships Office supports higher-education access and persistence by providing financial aid to eligible students. The office partners with student organizations, the UNLV Foundation, the Graduate College, and other external constituents to provide financial aid learning opportunities and scholarship support for graduate students.

Writing Center

This is a free service to UNLV students to help you with any writing project, from papers to creative writing, to resumes, and we can work with you at any stage of the writing process. The center can help you brainstorm, make an outline, work on your drafts, or just be a soundboard for your ideas. The center staff can assist you in person, or via the Online Writing Lab (OWL) page.
