About UNLV

In its 50-year history, UNLV has undergone an amazing transformation from a small branch college into a thriving urban research institution of 28,000 students and 3,300 faculty and staff. Along the way, the urban land-grant university has become a dynamic resource for one of the country’s fastest-growing and most enterprising cities. UNLV’s 350-acre main campus, located on the Southern tip of Nevada in a desert valley surrounded by mountains, is home to more than 220 undergraduate, master’s, and doctoral degree programs, all accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities.

About the School of Community Health Sciences

The School of Community Health Sciences (SCHS), formerly known as the School of Public Health was established in 2004 and is dedicated to improving the health and well-being of people worldwide. Our departments, programs, and research units work to provide a diverse education, practical training experience and numerous community involvement opportunities to prepare students to become leaders and professionals in the field of public health.

SCHS students and faculty come from diverse backgrounds and represent a broad spectrum of interdisciplinary academic and research interests. We foster a collegial and supportive environment in which students work closely with faculty, staff, practitioners and other students. The quality of our educational programs reflects our deep commitment to our students.

The School of Community Health Sciences is committed to preparing students to meet the critical need for public health professionals in Nevada, the nation, and the world. We provide excellent academic programs with a variety of areas for concentration and the opportunity for applied research. The School of Community Health Sciences has a special interest in community-based participatory research.

Accreditation

The Department of Health Care Administration and Policy is a member of the Association of University Programs in Healthcare Administration (AUPHA). The MHA program is currently in candidacy for accreditation by the Commission on Accreditation Healthcare Management Education (CAHME). The Master of Public Health (MPH) health care administration track is part of the School of Community Health Sciences MPH accreditation by the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH) Board of Councilors. This accreditation encompasses all of the core public health areas of emphasis, including environmental and occupational health, health care administration and policy, social and behavioral health, and biostatistics and epidemiology. The EMHA program will pursue accreditation through the Commission on Accreditation Healthcare Management Education (CAHME) when eligible, as newly launched programs have a waiting period until two graduating classes have completed program.

Revised 2.28.17 and approved by EMHA Committee
Message from the Chair:

Welcome to the Executive Master of Health Care Administration (EMHA) program in the Department of Health Care Administration and Policy. The EMHA program is designed to provide students with valuable tools necessary to advance to senior leadership in the health care industry. Our program utilizes a concentrated immersion program followed by a 2nd immersion session 12 months later, coupled with online instruction to offer maximum flexibility to working professionals. As with any discipline, students can expect be challenged in a variety of ways including individual and group projects and case studies. Our academic faculty has been trained at some of the best programs around the country and around the world. They are dedicated scholars with successful research experience. We partner with the best health care providers around the community and state to provide our students with a real world learning opportunity, engaging industry experts throughout the journey, as appropriate.

As such, we have high expectations for our students. We encourage you to work hard as you tackle this program. If you are dedicated to the program and recognize the sacrifices you may need to take to complete your executive graduate degree, you will be successful. All of us in the UNLV HCAP department are proud that you are here and we are ready to help. As an EMHA graduate, you will become one of our successful Health Care Administration Alumni in Nevada or around the world. Feel free to call on us at any time, and continue to share your career journey with us; we are committed to your success.

Chris Cochran, Ph.D.,
Professor and Chair
Department of Health Care Administration and Policy
Mission

The mission of the UNLV Executive Master of Health Care Administration program is to provide high quality education to prepare mid-level professionals from Nevada and around the nation to lead, manage and improve the delivery of health care and to provide service within and outside of the university that supports the needs of the profession and the community.

Vision

With a commitment towards education and research, we strive to become a recognized leader in the development of a new generation of health care administration professionals who are dedicated to improving the patient experience and the performance of the health care system in the region and beyond.

Values

Excellence: We are committed to offering the most up-to-date and cutting-edge knowledge to our students.

Diversity: We embrace different backgrounds and value different perspectives and approaches in order to create optimal learning experiences for our students and faculty.

Innovation: We create new ideas and approaches in the classroom through research and strong industry ties.

Professionalism: We strive to integrate academic integrity, ethical behavior, service and professional development to further the education of our students.

Lifelong learning: We commit to lifelong learning for the continuous development of knowledge and skills required by the dynamic and ever-changing health care sector, and value lasting relationships with our EMHA graduates through our alumni association.

Community Partnership: We create community partnerships that serve to address the workforce challenges of the ever-evolving health care environment.

EMHA Transfer Policy for Currently Enrolled UNLV MHA Students

The EMHA Admissions Committee has adopted the following policy relative to MHA student eligibility for transfer into the new EMHA Program:

- GPA of 3.0 in under-graduate degree
- currently in good standing in the MHA Program, and endorsed by Advisor to transfer to the EMHA Program
- meets minimum professional experience requirements of EMHA Program
- no more than 4 courses completed in the MHA Program at time of transfer application
- MHA transfer student must agree to complete capstone catch-up work prior to enrolling in EMHA, and will take responsibility for meeting with an assigned faculty member to get guidance on this preparation.

All MHA student transfer requests will be initially reviewed by Graduate Programs Director. Appointments are recommended to review current MHA standing, transferability of credits, review of 2017 & 2018 EMHA course schedule, and higher program costs of EMHA Program.

Any candidates that do not meet all of the transfer criteria above will be reviewed for exception admittance by the EMHA Admissions Committee. The committee will meet a minimum of once per month to review transfer exceptions. Candidates will be advised of the committee’s decision as soon as possible so that they can proceed with program application as soon as possible, if they are accepted for transfer.

Students with graduate credits from other institutions should submit applicable syllabi and transcripts to Programs Director for guidance on transfer credit acceptance. No courses used to qualify for another degree program, which you completed, will qualify for transfer credit to UNLV, per university policy. See the Graduate College website for further information.

Topics include: liability, contract and antitrust law; employee and labor law, professional relations, and ethical issues regarding; beginning and end of life, patient rights, medical research, access to care; conflict of interest, and confidentiality.

EMHA779 Health Care Administration Capstone.

In their final semester, students in the EMHA program will complete the Health Care Administration Capstone as their culminating experience. Students must have completed all other required coursework leading up to the capstone course. As students progress through the program, they will assemble a portfolio of their work in the program that highlights their learning experience and how this work will help them advance their careers. Planning for the capstone “begins at the beginning”. During their first on-campus experience, students will reflect on their current knowledge in the field, and complete a Self-assessment tool for the program competencies. The self-assessments, completed eight times during the program, will also help student reflect on their experience, the progress that they have made in achieving their knowledge towards improving their personal career goals, and what they hope to accomplish upon completion of the program. At the end of their second semester, students will submit a proposed Capstone topic and scope for approval. It will be centered around a workplace problem or opportunity, and approved by their employer and advisor, in addition to the EMHA Committee. The capstone project is scheduled for the fourth and final semester in the program. At the end of the course, students will present their capstone portfolios to peers and assigned faculty, and reflect on their growth in the program competencies.

Fast-track Immersion

Every cohort launch, a concentrated student immersion session is held in Las Vegas to introduce students to the program, engage in coursework, meet the faculty, peers and participate in industry panels/events. Students are required to attend this immersion program twice during the program. The session dates are generally 2-4 days and are announced well in advance so logistics with employers can be managed. Check with the EMHA Program Office for immersion dates, as they are subject to change. Students who do not attend both Immersion sessions, will not be able to proceed until the next immersion session.
Advising
Initially, advising will be done by the Graduate Programs Director. Each student will be assigned to an academic faculty member for advising after matriculating in the Program. EMHA students are required to obtain advising by the end of their first semester in the program, and each semester, thereafter. Advising allows students to understand the course sequencing requirements and plan out their academic schedule in advance. Students must complete the required advising forms and submit these forms to the graduate college at this time. Failure to complete this during the first semester may result in delays in student registration for subsequent semesters. Advising plans can be changed, but students should meet with their advisor if they cannot meet their course of study schedule to plan out the remaining courses. It is the student’s responsibility to resolve any provisional admission matters promptly in order to avoid any delay in graduation application process. Students in this classification are advised to work closely with their advisor to avoid any issues.

Student contact hours
The EMHA Program uses several approaches to providing the student the curricula needed to complete their degree. These include our annual immersion sessions, industry expert panels, group capstone dialogues, frequent faculty feedback, with fully online courses.

Writing Style Guide
Students should use APA style in their scientific writing throughout the EMHA program.

Annual Review and Exit Survey
Each spring term, graduate students are required to complete the Graduate Student Annual Review survey. This survey will be required in the EMHA 701 course or sent by the Graduate College to the student’s Rebelmail account, if the student has already completed EMHA 701.
The review covers the prior calendar year and assesses student progress, while setting goals for the year ahead.

During the student’s culminating Capstone experience, they will be required to submit an exit survey evaluating their experience in the Executive Master of Health Care Administration program. This information is vital to the program to improve the quality of the courses, to provide valuable feedback to faculty, and to determine the student’s perception of the program overall.

UNLV Libraries has always been more than books; they are about encouraging students and creating quality programs that elevate growth and learning. Please visit their website for important information about the services they offer to graduate students.

Graduate & Professional Student Association (GPSA)

Revised 2.28.17 and approved by EMHA Committee
The Graduate & Professional Student Association serves all currently enrolled University of Nevada, Las Vegas graduate and professional students. The GPSA maintains the Graduate Student Commons located in the Lied Library room 2141. The facility a working office equipped with a copier, fax, flatbed scanners, color laser printer, office supplies, and computers with printers and a small kitchen area. The GPSA is the graduate student governance body at UNLV; the GPSA Council consists of one graduate student representative from each graduate department, and they meet monthly. The GPSA also provides volunteer opportunities, sponsors social events, and supports graduate student research through the graduate research and travel grants program.

Office of Student Conduct
The Office of Student Conduct is a student-centered, service-oriented office located within the Division of Student Affairs. The Office of Student Conduct collaborates with the UNLV community to provide an inclusive system through enforcement of the UNLV Student Code of Conduct by:

- Promoting awareness of student rights and responsibilities;
- Establishing accountability for student choices;
- Creating opportunities for involvement in the process; and
- Striving to uphold the values and ethics that advance the common good.

Office of Veteran Services
The UNLV Office of Veteran Services is staffed with veterans and GI Bill-experienced staff to assist more than 1,000 veterans, dependents, active duty service members, National Guard members, and reservists. Their mission is to develop a welcoming, veteran-friendly campus environment that fosters academic and personal success.

The Financial Aid & Scholarships Office
The Financial Aid & Scholarships Office supports higher-education access and persistence by providing financial aid to eligible students. The office partners with student organizations, the UNLV Foundation, the Graduate College, and other external constituents to provide financial aid learning opportunities and scholarship support for graduate students.

Writing Center
This is a free service to UNLV students to help you with any writing project, from papers to creative writing, to resumes, and we can work with you at any stage of the writing process. The center can help you brainstorm, make an outline, work on your drafts, or just be a soundboard for your ideas. The center staff can assist you in person, or via the Online Writing Lab (OWL) page.
