Welcome

Welcome to the Executive Masters of Science in Crisis and Emergency Management (ECEM) at UNLV. The ECEM program is a professional degree designed to maximize the expertise of experienced professionals from numerous disciplines, levels, and regions, thereby providing the opportunity to both advance academic knowledge and the practical knowledge necessary to become leaders in the emergency management field.

A core characteristic of your program at UNLV will be the emphasis on applied research and learning opportunities. Our goal for you as a student is to ensure that you are ready to better serve your community and enhance your career.

Christopher Stream, PhD
Director, School of Public Policy and Leadership

Mission Statement(s)

At the end of the program students will learn and apply practical knowledge. The program is designed to develop students into crisis and disaster managers and professionals. Students will apply theoretical knowledge to practical disaster impacts that will develop them into leaders in Emergency Management and leaders in the community impacted by disasters.

Purpose

The purpose of this handbook is to provide program specific information that is not found in the UNLV Graduate Catalog. Students are responsible for understanding and following the policies and procedures delineated in this document and the UNLV Graduate Catalog, as well as the NSHE Code, UNLV Bylaws, and the UNLV Student Conduct Code. Questions about policies should be directed to the Graduate College: valarie.burke@unlv.edu or kendall.hartley@unlv.edu.
