

Why is Evidence So Important?

"A case is only as strong as its evidence." -BLS

This statement basically sums up the importance of evidence in correlation to a criminal investigation. The people who study this evidence can give us interpretations with their expert knowledge in their fields of discipline to determine the significance of each piece of evidence. Whether or not the evidence is strong enough to convict a criminal during an investigation depends largely on the work of forensic scientists.