

Master's of Hospitality Administration

Hospitality Management Careers

It's a powerful mix – a graduate degree coupled with extensive hospitality industry experience. For the person with a balance between education and experience, future jobs can be found at the management, director, or even officer level. The core classes in this program – marketing, financial analysis, service management, human resources and research methods – provide information that anyone in management needs to know, whereas the four electives allow you to fine-tune your skills.

Below are just a few of your career path options:

Hotels/Lodging and Resort Management

- General Manager, Hotel/Lodge
- Room Reservations Manager
- Front Desk Manager
- Front Office Manager
- Front Services Manager
- Director/Manager of Housekeeping
- Public Area Manager
- Employment & Benefits Manager
- Country Club Manager

- Employee Services Manager
- Labor Relations Manager
- Guest Relations Manager
- Concierge Manager
- VIP Services Manager
- Business Services Manager
- Transportation Manager

Tourism/Convention

- Convention Sales Manager
- Convention Services Manager
- Meeting Planner
- Cruise Ship Director
- Meetings & Events Manager
- Destination Marketing Manager
- Trade Show Operations Manager
- CVB Manager/Director

Foodservice Management

- Food & Beverage Manager
- Catering Manager
- Banquet Manager
- Beverage Manager
- Sommelier
- Nightclub Manager
- Restaurant Reservation Manager
- Business Manager
- Food & Beverage Information Technology

- Food & Beverage Analyst
- Food & Beverage Cost Accountant
- Purchasing Agent
- Food & Beverage Distributor
- Quality Assurance Manager
- Foodservice Director (healthcare)
- Resort/Hotel Food Service Manager

Gaming

- Casino Manager
- Slot Analyst
- Casino Financial Analyst
- Casino Marketing Analyst
- Casino Marketing Manager
- Poker Room Manager
- Race & Sports Manager/Director
- Casino Cage Manager
- Pit Clerk Manager

Finance/Management Information Systems

- Credit Administrator
- Data Manager
- Financial Analyst
- Accounting Manager
- Purchasing Manager

UNLV

WILLIAM F. HARRAH
College of
HOTEL
ADMINISTRATION