

The MPA degree gives students the knowledge, skills, and experiences appropriate for management positions in a variety of public, private, and nonprofit settings. Students will develop skills in strategic thinking, planning, and management, personnel relations, technology, and the design, operation, and evaluation of successful work systems.

Careers Include:

Budget Analyst	Elections Coordinator	Program Administrator
Caseworker	Environmental Programs	Policy Analyst
City Clerk	Manager	Political Consultant
City Council Member	Equal Opportunity Director	Public Information
City Manager	Housing Director	Officer
City Housing Administrator	Human Resources Director	Public Relations Director
Communications Director	Law Enforcement/Public
Community Development	Safety	Public Safety Director
Constituent Services	Lawyer/Paralegal	Public Works Director
Coordinator	Legislative	Research Analyst
Public Affairs Advisor	Analyst/Coordinator	Risk Manager
Government Relations	Lobbyist	State Legislator
Economic Development	Management Analyst	Strategic Planning
Director	Mayor	Consultant
Elected Official	Neighborhood Specialist	Volunteer Coordinator
	Nonprofit Director	Youth Programs
	Parks & Recreation Director	Coordinator