

College of Business
BSBA Degree, Entrepreneurship, 2008-2010

Entrepreneurship is many things to many people. A leading scholar in the field, William Bygrave, defines it as "...initiative, imagination, flexibility, creativity, and a willingness to think conceptually, and the capacity to see change as an opportunity." As such, entrepreneurship can be considered a unique perspective of general management. It is fundamentally integrative and interdisciplinary in nature. While housed in the Management Department, this major is cross-functional in its scope, emphasizing entrepreneurial management, marketing and finance.

The entrepreneurship major prepares students to view the business world through entrepreneurial lenses. Students completing this major should have the skills to recognize opportunity, develop a business concept, determine its feasibility and write a comprehensive business plan. Besides preparing students to begin their own businesses, the major enables students to become productive employees in newer or innovative firms where an emphasis is placed on opportunity identification, risk-taking, making things happen and/or doing more with less.
