

Sample Curriculum Plan

FT Day division sample program

Year One, Fall

Introduction to Law	0 credits
Lawyering Process I	3 credits
Civil Procedure	4 credits
Torts	4 credits
Contracts	4 credits
	15 credits total

Year One, Spring

Lawyering Process II	3 credits
Property	4 credits
Criminal Law	3 credits
Constitutional Law I	3 credits
First Year Elective*	3 credits
Community Service Prgm	0 credits
	16 credits total

Year Two, Fall and beyond

Constitutional Law II	3 credits
Lawyering Process III	3 credits
Professional Responsibility*	3 credits
Electives

*Students will choose from a menu of three to four courses that focus on Legislative Process, Statutory Interpretation and Administrative Law or courses that focus on non-doctrinal perspectives on the law, such as American Legal History, International Human Rights, or Critical Race Theory.

Full-time day students must complete this course before the end of the second year.

Students must complete Lawyering Process III by the semester before their final semester.

*Can be taken anytime before graduation.

PT Day division sample program

Year One, Fall

Introduction to Law	0 credits
Lawyering Process I	3 credits
Civil Procedure	4 credits
Torts	4 credits
	11 credits total

Year One, Spring

Lawyering Process II	3 credits
Criminal Law	3 credits
Constitutional Law I	3 credits
	9 credits total

Year One, Summer

Lawyering Process III*	3 credits
Elective	3 credits
Community Service Prgm	0 credits
	6 credits total

Year Two, Fall

Contracts	4 credits
Constitutional Law II	3 credits
Elective	3 credits
	10 credits total

Year Two, Spring

Professional Responsibility	3 credits
Property	4 credits
First Year Elective	3 credits
	10 credits total

Year Two, Summer and Beyond

Electives

*Students must complete Lawyering Process III by the semester before their final semester.

Can be taken anytime before graduation

Students will choose from a menu of three to four courses that focus on Legislative process, Statutory Interpretation and Administrative Law or courses that focus on non-doctrinal perspectives on the law, such as American Legal History, International Human Rights, or Critical Race Theory.

PT Evening division sample program

Year One, Fall

Introduction to Law	0 credits
Lawyering Process I	3 credits
Civil Procedure	4 credits
Torts	4 credits
	11 credits total

Year One, Spring

Lawyering Process II	3 credits
Criminal Law	3 credits
Contracts	4 credits
	10 credits total

Year One, Summer

Lawyering Process III*	3 credits
Elective	3 credits
Community Service Prgm	0 credits
	6 credits total

Year Two, Fall

Professional Responsibility	3 credits
Constitutional Law I	3 credits
Electives	3 credits
	9 credits total

Year Two, Spring

First Year Elective	3 credits
Property	4 credits
Constitutional Law II	3 credits
	10 credits total

Year Two, Summer and Beyond

Electives

*Students must complete Lawyering Process III by the semester before their final semester.

Can be taken anytime before graduation

This course will focus on one of two topics: (1) Legislative process, Statutory Interpretation or Administrative Law; or (2) non-doctrinal perspectives on the law, such as American Legal History, International Human Rights, or Critical Race Theory.