

UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA, LAS VEGAS
DEPARTMENT OF WORLD LANGUAGES
SPAN 717-SEMINAR IN SPANISH LINGUISTICS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides an introduction to the structure of the Spanish language within the framework of theoretical linguistics. Topics covered include analysis of the Spanish sound system, word formation processes, and sentence structure. It also includes a panorama of the history of Spanish, and topics in Spanish pragmatics and semantics. The course is taught in Spanish.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this course, students will be expected to:

- identify and classify the phonemes and allophones of Spanish
- describe and analyze the morphological processes in Spanish
- analyze the structure of simple and compound sentences in Spanish within syntactic theory
- explain in general terms the historical evolution of Spanish
- identify and apply general concepts of semantics and pragmatics

GRADING:

Attendance & class participation	10%
Assignments (x2)	40%
GRAE chapter presentation	10%
Article reaction paper	10%
Take-Home Midterm Exam	15%
Final Exam (in-class exam)	15%

ATTENDANCE AND CLASS PARTICIPATION (10%)

Participation is vital. Students must come to class fully prepared to discuss all reading assigned for that day. Punctuality is very important. Attendance is necessary; however, you will be allowed one undocumented absence (1 session). Beginning with the second absence, your class participation grade will be adversely affected.

The instructor will use WebCampus mail to communicate with students. She also will post weekly announcements on WebCampus. It is the student's responsibility to check WebCampus on a daily basis.

ASSIGNMENTS (40%)

There will be two assignments and they will include problem-solving tasks. Instructions for each assignment will be posted on WebCampus a week before the due date.

Format:

- typed written assignment
- Student Name
- # of assignment
- # of pages top right
- double spaced
- font: Times New Roman
- size: 12

The instructor will not accept late assignments.

GRAE CHAPTER PRESENTATION (10%)

Students will make a 15-minute oral presentation on one of the following chapters from the “Nueva gramática de la lengua española” (Real Academia Española):

- 1) Presente del indicativo
- 2) Pretérito perfecto simple del indicativo
- 3) Pretérito imperfecto del indicativo
- 4) Pretérito pluscuamperfecto del indicativo
- 5) Futuro simple del indicativo
- 6) Presente del subjuntivo
- 7) Pretérito imperfecto del subjuntivo
- 8) Pretérito pluscuamperfecto del subjuntivo
- 9) Condicional

The oral presentation will be accompanied by a handout prepared according to a template created by the instructor and posted on WebCampus. After the oral presentation, all students will send an electronic of their handouts to the class (Word file).

ARTICLE REACTION PAPER (10%)

The students will write a reaction paper on one of the following articles:

- GDLLa Mendikoetsea, Amaya. (1999) Construcciones con se: Medias, pasivas e impersonales. In Ignacio Bosque y Violeta Demonte. Gramática descriptiva de la lengua española. Madrid: Espasa
- GDLLb Rojo, Guillermo y Veiga, Alexandre (1999). El tiempo. Los tiempos simples. In Ignacio Bosque y Violeta Demonte. Gramática descriptiva de la lengua española. Madrid: Espasa
- GDLLc Ridruejo, Emilio. (1999). Modo y modalidad. El modo en las subordinadas sustantivas. In Ignacio Bosque y Violeta Demonte. Gramática descriptiva de la lengua española. Madrid: Espasa

- I. Bibliographic information (APA Style)
- II. Major points in the article (Must be in narrative format)
 - a. The reaction paper must be written in Spanish.
 - b. Make sure you include a summary and an evaluation paragraphs.
 - c. Write in third person- do not include personal opinions or the use of personal nouns such as “yo”, “nosotros” or “a mí”. “Yo, nosotros, a mí” belong in the evaluation section where you are relating personal opinions, not in the summary.
 - d. The reaction paper must be typed and double-spaced.
 - e. The reaction paper should be at least one page, but no more than a page and a half.
 - f. Inclusive language should be used in the reaction paper (for example: gender references should be written as “él/ella” when the gender is unknown).
 - g. No citations are necessary (within the paper)
 - h. Read additional instructions published on WebCampus.

(Modified from www.myweb.wssu.edu , retrieved on 8/19/2012)

MIDTERM EXAM (15%)

The take-home midterm exam will cover chapters 1, 2 and 3. Topics will cover all the additional readings required in the course. Students will submit both electronic and printed copies.

FINAL EXAM (15%)

The open-book final exam will be comprehensive. Topics will cover the textbook, the reaction paper readings, and three of the GRAE chapters assigned in the course. The exam has two sections. In the first section, you will have to briefly define basic linguistic concepts. In the second section, you will be asked to solve exercises. This is an in-class exam.

ATTENTION!

IT IS THE STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO REGULARLY CHECK HIS/HER REBELMAIL. ALL THE MESSAGES FROM THE INSTRUCTOR WILL BE SENT USING THE WEBCAMPUS MAIL TOOL.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic Misconduct— Academic integrity is a legitimate concern for every member of the campus community; all share in upholding the fundamental values of honesty, trust, respect, fairness, responsibility and professionalism. By choosing to join the UNLV community, students accept the expectations of the Student Academic Misconduct Policy and are encouraged when faced with choices to always take the ethical path. Students enrolling in UNLV assume the obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with UNLV's function as an educational institution.

An example of academic misconduct is plagiarism. Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of another, from the Internet or any source, without proper citation of the sources. See the Student Academic Misconduct Policy (approved December 9, 2005) located at: <https://www.unlv.edu/studentconduct/student-conduct>.

Copyright—The University requires all members of the University Community to familiarize themselves with and to follow copyright and fair use requirements. You are individually and solely responsible for violations of copyright and fair use laws. The university will neither protect nor defend you nor assume any responsibility for employee or student violations of fair use laws. Violations of copyright laws could subject you to federal and state civil penalties and criminal liability, as well as disciplinary action under University policies. Additional information can be found at: <http://www.unlv.edu/provost/copyright>.

Disability Resource Center (DRC)— Disability Resource Center (DRC)—The UNLV Disability Resource Center (SSC-A 143, <http://drc.unlv.edu/>, 702-895-0866) provides resources for students with disabilities. If you feel that you have a disability, please make an appointment with a Disabilities Specialist at the DRC to discuss what options may be available to you. If you are registered with the UNLV Disability Resource Center, bring your Academic Accommodation Plan from the DRC to the instructor during office hours so that you may work together to develop strategies for implementing the accommodations to meet both your needs and the requirements of the course. Any information you provide is private and will be treated as such. To maintain the confidentiality of your request, please do not approach the instructor in front of others to discuss your accommodation needs.

Religious Holidays Policy— Any student missing class quizzes, examinations, or any other class or lab work because of observance of religious holidays shall be given an opportunity during that semester to make up missed work. The make-up will apply to the religious holiday absence only. It shall be the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor within the first 14 calendar days of the course for fall and spring courses (excepting modular courses), or within the first 7 calendar days of the course for summer and modular courses, of his or her intention to participate in religious holidays which do not fall on state holidays or periods of class recess. For additional information, please visit: <http://catalog.unlv.edu/content.php?catoid=6&navoid=531>.

Transparency in Learning and Teaching—The University encourages application of the transparency method of constructing assignments for student success. Please see these two links for further information:

<https://www.unlv.edu/provost/teachingandlearning>

<https://www.unlv.edu/provost/transparency>

Incomplete Grades—The grade of I—Incomplete—can be granted when a student has satisfactorily completed three-fourths of course work for that semester/session but for reason(s) beyond the student’s control, and acceptable to the instructor, cannot complete the last part of the course, and the instructor believes that the student can finish the course without repeating it. The incomplete work must be made up before the end of the following regular semester for undergraduate courses. Graduate students receiving “I” grades in 500-, 600-, or 700-level courses have up to one calendar year to complete the work, at the discretion of the instructor. If course requirements are not completed within the time indicated, a grade of F will be recorded and the GPA will be adjusted accordingly. Students who are fulfilling an Incomplete do not register for the course but make individual arrangements with the instructor who assigned the I grade.

Tutoring and Coaching—The Academic Success Center (ASC) provides tutoring, academic success coaching and other academic assistance for all UNLV undergraduate students. For information regarding tutoring subjects, tutoring times, and other ASC programs and services, visit <http://www.unlv.edu/asc> or call 702-895-3177. The ASC building is located across from the Student Services Complex (SSC). Academic success coaching is located on the second floor of the SSC (ASC Coaching Spot). Drop-in tutoring is located on the second floor of the Lied Library and College of Engineering TEB second floor.

UNLV Writing Center—One-on-one or small group assistance with writing is available free of charge to UNLV students at the Writing Center, located in CDC-3-301. Although walk-in consultations are sometimes available, students with appointments will receive priority assistance. Appointments may be made in person or by calling 702-895-3908. The student's Rebel ID Card, a copy of the assignment (if possible), and two copies of any writing to be reviewed are requested for the consultation. More information can be found at: <http://writingcenter.unlv.edu/>.

Rebelmail—By policy, faculty and staff should e-mail students' Rebelmail accounts only. Rebelmail is UNLV's official e-mail system for students. It is one of the primary ways students receive official university communication such as information about deadlines, major campus events, and announcements. All UNLV students receive a Rebelmail account after they have been admitted to the university. Students' e-mail prefixes are listed on class rosters. The suffix is always @unlv.nevada.edu. Emailing within WebCampus is acceptable.

Final Examinations—The University requires that final exams given at the end of a course occur at the time and on the day specified in the final exam schedule. See the schedule at: <http://www.unlv.edu/registrar/calendars>.

Library statement:

Students may consult with a librarian on research needs. For this class, the Subject Librarian is (https://www.library.unlv.edu/contact/librarians by subject). UNLV Libraries provides resources to support students' access to information. Discovery, access, and use of information are vital skills for academic work and for successful post-college life. Access library resources and ask questions at <https://www.library.unlv.edu/>.
