☆World Languages and Cultures Department Rules:
- Students who have studied Japanese in high school or another institution should take the placement exam and take JPN114 or higher.
- Students who received a low grade in their previous Japanese course should retake the course. (First retake will replace the original grade.)
- Students cannot take any course lower than those for which they have received credit.
- Students are not allowed to enroll in two Japanese courses (ex. JPN214 and JPN301) during the same semester.

☆REQUIRED Course Materials: ➔ Only the 2nd Edition of Genki will be used in class.
3. Kanji Practice Sheet and Worksheets (HW) ➔ It can be downloaded from WebCampus.
4. Japanese-English Dictionary (Recommended) ➔ It must be the paper dictionary or the electronic dictionary.

☆Course Description:
Japanese 214 is an intermediate course, continuation of JPN213, designed for students who have acquired the elementary level of Japanese. This course continues to develop communication skills with aspects of socio-cultural knowledge. This course covers Lesson 14, 15, 16, 17, and 18 of the textbook, Genki II.

☆Student Learning Outcomes: (Source: ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines [Speaking-Writing]: Intermediate-Mid)
Upon completion of this course, students will be:
1) Speaking: Able to handle a variety uncomplicated communicative tasks in straightforward social situations (e.g. gift giving/receiving for a special occasion, traveling, at work) and to express personal meaning and needs by combining longer and more complicated sentences.
2) Listening: Able to understand sentence-length utterances on more complicated tasks, such as the conversation at the travel info. office.
3) Reading: Able to read consistently with increased understanding simple connected texts dealing with a variety of basic and social needs, such as short description of a person and places and read/recognize about 240 Kanji characters in total.
4) Writing: Able to write a short letter/essay on more practical context such as places you want to visit, with personal experiences and more control of the syntax and basic morphology. (79 more Kanji characters will be introduced in this course.)
5) Culture: Able to act appropriately using culturally appropriate language in a variety of situations and appreciate the meaning of basic socio-cultural behavior.

1. Attendance and Participation: (Learning Outcomes Practiced: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

Japanese classes offer an important opportunity for students to be exposed to authentic Japanese. You are expected to come to class regularly, on time and participate in all class activities. First two absences will not affect your grade. (Your other grades such as homework may be affected if they were not excused absences.) Each additional absence will result in the loss of 2% of your total grade. Tardy that is longer than 30 minutes of class time will be considered as one absence.

Please note that doing the following activities 2 times will be counted as one absence. They are (1) being tardy (less than 30 min.), (2) early departure, (3) leaving more than 5 minutes during class (notify your instructor before leaving the classroom) and (4) an activity that disrupts students’ participation such as using a cell phone/computer (or other electronic devices), eating food, doing homework in class or sleeping. After 8 absences, students may receive a warning to drop the course. Contact your instructor before your absence.

Notify your instructor if your absence is justifiable (ex. religious holiday, UNLV extracurricular activity, emergency situation) and has the official documentation to support it.

2. Homework and Assignments: (Learning Outcomes Assessed: 2, 3, 4, 5)

All homework is due within the first 15 minutes of class on the designated day unless your instructor tells you differently. Late Homework will be accepted as long as it is submitted by the beginning of next class. However, there will be 50% reduction (-2pts) from your assignment grade. All the homework must be completed entirely in order to receive credit. If the homework is missing one or more section(s) or has too many errors it will be considered as “Incomplete” (0 pt.). Absolutely no credit will be given if your assignment is done or is submitted by someone else. This also applies if your assignment was done during class or if it was copied from someone else’s work.

Contact your instructor before due date if you have any questions or problems.

Points of each Homework assignment (4 pts. max.):

- 4 pts. → Everything was completed and submitted on time.
- 3 pts. → Everything was completed and submitted on time, but had a few errors./Re-do work was completed.
- 2 pts. → Late or incomplete work was completed and submitted./Re-do work was assigned.
- 0 pts. → Nothing was submitted./It was not completed entirely or had too many errors. (“incomplete”)*

Listening Homework: Use the CD-ROM that is included in the Genki Workbook (2nd Edition).

Kanji Homework: Use the Kanji Practice Sheet (on WebCampus) to take notes in class and to do the Kanji homework.

3. Classroom Quizzes: (Learning Outcomes Assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

Quizzes will be given frequently and students are allowed to drop the lowest quiz grade. If you miss a quiz, that will be counted as your lowest score. Under no circumstances will there be any make-up quizzes. Some quizzes will be given to test your speaking skills.

4. Lesson and Final Exams: (Learning Outcomes Assessed: 2, 3, 4, 5)

There will be three Lesson Exams. The Final Exam will be comprehensive. Make-ups are given with the submission of the official documentation that validates the justifiable nature of your absence. Other make-ups will receive 20% reduction.

5. Essay, Presentation and Interview: (Learning Outcomes Assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) Details will be announced later.

You will be assigned to write an essay, to participate in a presentation and to have one-on-one interview with the instructor.

Make-up without valid excuse will receive 20% reduction.

☆Students Responsibilities:

1. Preview the lesson:

   You MUST study Vocabulary and Kanji assigned for each lesson and read “Grammar” and “Expression Notes” sections in the textbook before class for effective class participation. Use the Genki-Online website for self-study and the Student CD to practice listening.

2. Rebel mail: Please use your Rebel mail (UNLV E-mail Account) or forward it to an account of your choice.

3. Getting Assistance:
If things become unclear and difficult, it is your responsibility to take the initiative and contact the instructor for assistance after class or during the instructor’s office hours.

4. Add, Drop and/ or Withdraw:
The last day to drop or withdraw from classes or Drops and withdrawals will not be allowed after this date even with the instructor’s approval. The instructor must assign a final grade if a student stops coming to class and fails to withdraw by the deadline. (Refer to the Undergraduate Catalog.)

5. Letter of Recommendation: Contact the instructor AT LEAST one month before the deadline and provide the information such as:
   (1) Description of the position/honor (possibly provide a URL/pamphlet); (2) Filled-out form, a pre-addressed, stamped envelope, and/or any other necessary materials; (3) Your resume/CV and/or personal statement; and (4) Any other details that might be helpful.

☆ Academic Dishonesty/Misconduct:
Academic Dishonesty/Misconduct includes, but is not limited to: Cheating, Getting External Assistance, and Plagiarism
- Cheating is not allowed in class. The actions during a quiz/test considered as cheating (but are not limited to) are: having a cell phone out, looking at other student’s quiz/test or a cheating material, putting your hands in your bag and communicating with others.
- Assignments and essays must be completed entirely by each student without any external assistance (ex. help by a tutor/friend, online translations). You should not have another person change your work or copy other people’s work.

Consequences:
- Any student found to have committed academic dishonesty/misconduct will receive a grade of “F/0 pt.” for the work.
  Instructor will notify the student and if the act of dishonesty is proved, he/she will receive “F/0 pt.” for the work. The instructor is required to report it, no matter how large or small, to the Japanese Program. If the second incident was witnessed, the Department and the University will be notified. The student’s academic dishonesty/misconduct will be on the official record and he/she will be administratively dropped from the course. The student may appeal a finding of academic dishonesty/misconduct to the Department Chair and go through the University’s appeal process.
- Japanese Program will follow the Academic Dishonesty Policy and Procedure of UNLV. (Refer to the Undergraduate Catalog or <http://studentconduct.unlv.edu/misconduct/policy.html>)

☆ Other Information:
Language Resource Center (LRC): LRC is located in FDH240 (Phone: 895-1930 / http://lrc.unlv.edu/).
Japanese Placement Exams can be taken in the LRC. Students are encouraged to visit the lab for their independent study. It has Internet access, Japanese software, and the audio CDs for the Workbook Listening Comprehension and the Textbook Dialogue/Vocabulary practice. Operating Hours: Mon.–Thurs. 9 a.m. – 7 p.m. Fri. 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Copyright and Fair Use Requirement:
You are individually and solely responsible for violations of copyright and fair use laws. The university will neither protect nor defend you nor assume any responsibility for employee or student violations of fair use laws. Please visit the copyright website at: <http://provost.unlv.edu/copyright/> for more information.

Official Extracurricular Activity: Students who represent UNLV at any official extracurricular activity shall have the opportunity to make up assignments; however, the student must provide official written notification to the instructor no less than one week prior to the missed class(es).

Religious Holidays: Students who will miss class to observe religious holidays are responsible for notifying the instructor no later than Friday of the second week to be assured of this opportunity.

Students with Disabilities:
If you have a documented disability that may require accommodations, you will need to contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) for coordination of services. The DRC is located in the Student Services Complex (SSC-A), Room 143, phone (702) 895-0866, fax (702) 895-0651. For additional information please visit: <http://drc.unlv.edu/>.

University Policies

Academic Misconduct—Academic integrity is a legitimate concern for every member of the campus community; all share in upholding the fundamental values of honesty, trust, respect, fairness, responsibility and professionalism. By choosing to join the UNLV community, students accept the expectations of the Student Academic Misconduct Policy and are encouraged when faced with choices to always take the ethical path. Students enrolling in UNLV assume the obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with UNLV’s function as an educational institution.

An example of academic misconduct is plagiarism. Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of another, from the Internet or any source, without proper citation of the sources. See the Student Academic Misconduct Policy (approved December 9, 2005) located at: https://www.unlv.edu/studentconduct/student-conduct.

Copyright—The University requires all members of the University Community to familiarize themselves with and to follow copyright and fair use requirements. You are individually and solely responsible for violations of copyright and fair use laws. The university will neither protect nor defend you nor assume any responsibility for employee or student violations of fair use laws. Violations of copyright laws could subject you to federal and state civil penalties and criminal liability, as well as disciplinary action under University policies. Additional information can be found at: http://www.unlv.edu/provost/copyright.

Disability Resource Center (DRC)—The UNLV Disability Resource Center (SSC-A 143, http://drc.unlv.edu/, 702-895-0866) provides resources for students with disabilities. If you feel that you have a disability, please make an appointment with a Disabilities Specialist at the DRC to discuss what options may be available to you. If you are registered with the UNLV Disability Resource Center, bring your Academic Accommodation Plan from the DRC to the instructor during office hours so that you may work together to develop strategies for implementing the accommodations to meet both your needs and the requirements of the course. Any information you provide is private and will be treated as such. To maintain the confidentiality of your request, please do not approach the instructor in front of others to discuss your accommodation needs.

Religious Holidays Policy—Any student missing class quizzes, examinations, or any other class or lab work because of observance of religious holidays shall be given an opportunity during that semester to make up missed work. The make-up will apply to the religious holiday absence only. It shall be the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor within the first 14 calendar days of the course for fall and spring courses (excepting modular courses), or within the first 7 calendar days of the course for summer and modular courses, of his or her intention to participate in religious holidays which do not fall on state holidays or periods of class recess. For additional information, please visit: http://catalog.unlv.edu/content.php?catoid=6&navoid=531.

Transparency in Learning and Teaching—The University encourages application of the transparency method of constructing assignments for student success. Please see these two links for further information:

https://www.unlv.edu/provost/teachingandlearning

https://www.unlv.edu/provost/transparency

Incomplete Grades—The grade of I—Incomplete—can be granted when a student has satisfactorily completed three-fourths of course work for that semester/session but for reason(s) beyond the student’s control, and acceptable to the instructor, cannot complete the last part of the course, and the instructor believes that the student can finish the course without repeating it. The incomplete work must be made up before the end of the following regular semester for undergraduate courses. Graduate students receiving “I” grades in 500-, 600-, or 700-level courses have up to one calendar year to complete the work, at the discretion of the instructor. If course requirements are not completed within the time indicated, a grade of F will be recorded and the GPA will be adjusted accordingly. Students who are fulfilling an Incomplete do not register for the course but make individual arrangements with the instructor who assigned the I grade.

Tutoring and Coaching—The Academic Success Center (ASC) provides tutoring, academic success coaching and other academic assistance for all UNLV undergraduate students. For information regarding tutoring subjects, tutoring times, and other ASC programs and services, visit http://www.unlv.edu/asc or call 702-895-3177. The ASC building is located across from the Student Services Complex (SSC). Academic success coaching is located on the second floor of the SSC (ASC Coaching Spot). Drop-in tutoring is located on the second floor of the Lied Library and College of Engineering TEB second floor.

UNLV Writing Center—One-on-one or small group assistance with writing is available free of charge to UNLV students at the Writing Center, located in CDC-3-301. Although walk-in consultations are sometimes available, students with appointments will receive priority assistance. Appointments may be made in person or by calling 702-895-3908. The student’s Rebel ID Card, a copy of the assignment (if possible), and two copies of any writing to be reviewed are requested for the consultation. More information can be found at: http://writingcenter.unlv.edu/.

Rebelmail—By policy, faculty and staff should e-mail students’ Rebelmail accounts only. Rebelmail is UNLV’s official e-mail system for students. It is one of the primary ways students receive official university communication such as information about deadlines, major campus events, and announcements. All UNLV students receive a Rebelmail account after they have been admitted to the university. Students’ e-mail prefixes are listed on class rosters. The suffix is always @unlv.nevada.edu. Emailing within WebCampus is acceptable.

Final Examinations—The University requires that final exams given at the end of a course occur at the time and on the day specified in the final exam schedule. See the schedule at: http://www.unlv.edu/registrar/calendars.

Library statement:

Students may consult with a librarian on research needs. For this class, the Subject Librarian is https://www.library.unlv.edu/contact/librarians_by_subject. UNLV Libraries provides resources to support students’ access to information. Discovery, access, and use of information are vital skills for academic work and for successful post-college life. Access library resources and ask questions at https://www.library.unlv.edu/.
