ROTC Basic Course: Structure

The Basic Course is an academically rigorous 2-year college program comprised of four college courses, Leadership Labs (two sets, Fall/Spring), and Cadet Initial Entry Training (CIET) conducted at Fort Knox, KY. The overall objective of this course is to integrate the principles, theories, methods, and practices of effective leadership, problem solving, military operations and personal development in order to adequately prepare you for the Advanced Course. This course has specific learning objectives from the six Army Learning Areas (ALA) listed below.

Outcomes and Objectives:
The Army Profession

- Live honorably and build trust

Professional Competence

- Demonstrate intellectual, military and physical competence

Adaptability

- Think critically and creatively, make sound and timely decisions

Teamwork

- Develop, lead and inspire
- Communicate and interact effectively

Lifelong Learning and Comprehensive Fitness

- Pursue excellence and continue to grow

Comprehensive Fitness

- Seek balance, be resilient and demonstrate a strong and winning spirit

Course Description

Leadership and management, which develops the basic skills that must be learned in order to perform as an effective leader. Introduction to the Army Leadership Development Program (LDP), the decision-making process, the code of conduct, the Army Operations Order format and its use. Advanced land navigation, physical fitness, and briefing skills.

MSL202 primarily is drawn from the Army Profession and Team Work ALA's. This is an academically challenging course where you will study, practice, and apply the fundamentals of the Leadership, Officer Skills, Army Values and Ethics, Personal Development, and Tactics at the small unit level.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, the student will be able to:

- Demonstrate understanding of the Plan, Prepare and Execute format for briefings
  - Write and present information briefings using this format
- Describe defensive versus offensive tactical decisions
- Integrate feedback on your leader attributes, values, and core leader competencies from your instructor, other ROTC cadre, and MSL IV Cadets into future actions and activities in the course

Course Design

This course was designed to be student-centric with the onus of learning on the student, but facilitated by the instructor. Army Officers are expected to be life-long learners who take responsibility and personal initiative for their learning.

You must properly conduct your pre-class assignments to gain an understanding of the foundation on each subject in the course. Doing so will allow your instructor to spend the majority of the class time on specific areas that are least understood from the lessons, rather than your instructor re-teaching the subject from scratch.

Your instructor has a wealth of experience and knowledge to share in the classroom—do your homework so your instructor can spend more time sharing his personal knowledge and experiences with your class. Class will be conducted in an interactive manner with ample opportunities for small group discussions and practical exercises. Everyone will be responsible for contributing to the success of the learning experience.

Class Participation

You are expected to participate actively in learning through critical reflection, inquiry, dialogue, and group interactions. This includes participating in class discussion, sharing personal perspectives and experiences related to principles discussed in class or student readings, and working with fellow students to engage in class exercises.

NOTE: Cadets in MSL 202 are not required to attend Physical Training, but it is highly encouraged that they participate. Attendance positively affects class participation grades.

NFORMD.NET SHARP Program (Mandatory Curriculum Requirement)

This student assignment is conducted in two parts. Each part (SROTC and ASROTC NFORMD.NET) is only required to be successfully completed one time during BOLC A, upon providing completion certificates that can be verified by the instructor.

NOTE: Successful completion of Part One SROTC (Basic) assignment is a prerequisite for Part Two (ASROTC (Advanced) NFORMD.NET). It is highly recommended that students maintain a copy of the SROTC and ASROTC NFORMD.NET SHARP Program completion certificates.

SROTC (Basic) NFORMD.NET:

Every student enrolled in MSL I, II, III, and IV must successfully complete the Part One SROTC (Basic) assignment and receive a certificate of completion when finished.

ASROTC (Advanced) NFORMD.NET: (MSL IV Cadets ONLY)

As Part Two of the NFORMD.NET SHARP Program, only MSL IV Cadets must successfully complete and receive a certificate of completion for the ASROTC (Advanced) assignment.

Skills Presentation (Information Briefings)

As a future officer, you will be required by your superior to write and present briefings. As a way to prepare you for the future requirements and assist with public speaking skills, Cadets are responsible for two assignments (oral and written) using the plan, prepare and execute format. Assignment instructions are located in MSL202 L16 Army Briefings.

Writing Skills-Develop a short essay. (See cadre for additional information)

Briefing Skills-Present an information brief approximately 10 minutes. (See cadre for additional information)

Quizzes

Quizzes will be given throughout the semester to assess your progress in learning the principles and practices related to the course material.

Mid-Term Exam

A mid-term exam will be given to assess your knowledge achieved during the first half of the semester.

Final Examinations – A cumulative Final Exam will be given to assess your knowledge attained throughout the course of the semester.

The University requires that final exams given at the end of a course occur at the time and on the day specified in the final exam schedule. See the schedule at: <http://www.unlv.edu/registrar/calendars>.

UNLV Policies:

Academic Misconduct—Academic integrity is a legitimate concern for every member of the campus community; all share in upholding the fundamental values of honesty, trust, respect, fairness, responsibility and professionalism. By choosing to join the UNLV community, students accept the expectations of the Student Academic Misconduct Policy and are encouraged when faced with choices to always take the ethical path. Students enrolling in UNLV assume the obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with UNLV's function as an educational institution.

An example of academic misconduct is plagiarism. Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of another, from the Internet or any source, without proper citation of the sources. See the Student Academic Misconduct Policy (approved December 9, 2005) located at: <https://www.unlv.edu/studentconduct/student-conduct>.

Copyright—The University requires all members of the University Community to familiarize themselves with and to follow copyright and fair use requirements. You are individually and solely responsible for violations of copyright and fair use laws. The university will neither protect nor defend you nor assume any responsibility for employee or student violations of fair use laws. Violations of copyright laws could subject you to federal and state civil penalties and criminal liability, as well as disciplinary action under University policies. Additional information can be found at: <http://www.unlv.edu/provost/copyright>.

Disability Resource Center (DRC)—The UNLV Disability Resource Center (SSC-A 143, <http://drc.unlv.edu/>, 702-895-0866) provides resources for students with disabilities. If you feel that you have a disability, please make an appointment with a Disabilities Specialist at the DRC to discuss what options may be available to you. If you are registered with the UNLV Disability Resource Center, bring your Academic Accommodation Plan from the DRC to the instructor during office hours so that you may work together to develop strategies for implementing the accommodations to meet both your needs and the requirements of the course. Any information you provide is private and will be treated as such. To maintain the confidentiality of your request, please do not approach the instructor in front of others to discuss your accommodation needs.

Religious Holidays Policy—Any student missing class quizzes, examinations, or any other class or lab work because of observance of religious holidays shall be given an opportunity during that semester to make up missed work. The make-up will apply to the religious holiday absence only. It shall be the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor within the first 14 calendar days of the course for fall and spring courses (excepting modular courses), or within the first 7 calendar days of the course for summer and modular courses, of his or her intention to participate in religious holidays which do not fall on state holidays or periods of class recess. For additional information, please visit: <http://catalog.unlv.edu/content.php?catoid=6&navoid=531>.

Transparency in Learning and Teaching—The University encourages application of the transparency method of constructing assignments for student success. Please see these two links for further information:
<https://www.unlv.edu/provost/teachingandlearning>
<https://www.unlv.edu/provost/transparency>

Incomplete Grades—The grade of I—Incomplete—can be granted when a student has satisfactorily completed three-fourths of course work for that semester/session but for reason(s) beyond the student's control, and acceptable to the instructor, cannot complete the last part of the course, and the instructor believes that the student can finish the course without repeating it. The incomplete work must be made up before the end of the following regular semester for undergraduate courses. Graduate students receiving "I" grades in 500-, 600-, or 700-level courses have up to one calendar year to complete the work, at the discretion of the instructor. If course requirements are not completed within the time indicated, a grade of F will be recorded and the GPA will be adjusted accordingly. Students who are fulfilling an Incomplete do not register for the course but make individual arrangements with the instructor who assigned the I grade.

Library Resources

Students may consult with a librarian on research needs. For this class, the subject librarian is Sue Wainscott.

(https://www.library.unlv.edu/contact/librarians\_by\_subject). UNLV Libraries provides resources to support students' access to information. Discovery, access, and use of information are vital skills for academic work and for successful post-college life. Access library resources and ask questions at <https://www.library.unlv.edu>.

Tutoring and Coaching—The Academic Success Center (ASC) provides tutoring, academic success coaching and other academic assistance for all UNLV undergraduate students. For information regarding tutoring subjects, tutoring times, and other ASC programs and services, visit <http://www.unlv.edu/asc> or call 702-895-3177. The ASC building is located across from the Student Services Complex (SSC). Academic success coaching is located on the second floor of the SSC (ASC Coaching Spot). Drop-in tutoring is located on the second floor of the Lied Library and College of Engineering TEB second floor.

UNLV Writing Center—One-on-one or small group assistance with writing is available free of charge to UNLV students at the Writing Center, located in CDC-3-301. Although walk-in consultations are sometimes available, students with appointments will receive priority assistance. Appointments may be made in person or by calling 702-895-3908. The student's Rebel ID Card, a copy of the assignment (if possible), and two copies of any writing to be reviewed are requested for the consultation. More information can be found at: <http://writingcenter.unlv.edu/>.

Rebelmail—By policy, faculty and staff should e-mail students' Rebelmail accounts only. Rebelmail is UNLV's official e-mail system for students. It is one of the primary ways students receive official university communication such as information about deadlines, major campus events, and announcements. All UNLV students receive a Rebelmail account after they have been admitted to the university. Students' e-mail prefixes are listed on class rosters. The suffix is always @unlv.nevada.edu. Emailing within WebCampus is acceptable.

Final Examinations—The University requires that final exams given at the end of a course occur at the time and on the day specified in the final exam schedule. See the schedule at: <http://www.unlv.edu/registrar/calendars>.
