ROTC Advanced Course

Structure:

The Advanced Course is an academically rigorous 2-year college program comprised of four college courses, Leadership Labs (two sets, Fall/Spring), and the Cadet Leader Course (CLC) conducted at Fort Knox, KY. The overall objective of this course is to integrate the principles and practices of effective leadership, military operations and personal development in order to adequately prepare you for the summer CLC. This course has specific learning objectives for the six ALAs listed below.

Outcomes and Objectives:

The Army Profession

- Live honorably and build trust

Professional Competence

- Demonstrate intellectual, military and physical competence

Adaptability

- Think critically and creatively, make sound and timely decisions

Teamwork

- Develop, lead and inspire
- Communicate and interact effectively

Lifelong Learning and Comprehensive Fitness

- Pursue excellence and continue to grow

Comprehensive Fitness

- Seek balance, be resilient and demonstrate a strong and winning spirit

Course Description

Includes current tactical doctrine as applied to small unit leadership with special emphasis on those leadership skills required for an ROTC cadet to be successful at the Army ROTC Leadership Development and Assessment course.

Student Learning Outcomes

This is an academically challenging course where you will study, practice, and apply the fundamentals of Army Leadership, Officership, Army Values and Ethics, Personal Development, and small unit tactics at the platoon level. By the end of the course, the student will be able to:

- Describe the steps involved in the execution of a mission including planning, coordinating, navigating, motivating and leading
- Effectively evaluate peers on their leadership skills, write peer evaluations and make recommendations on improving your own leadership skills
- Write and present an Information Brief following the Commander and Staff Organization and Operations format

Successful completion of this course will help prepare you for the ROTC Cadet Leader Course (CLC), which you will attend in the summer at Fort Knox, KY.

Course Design

This course was designed to be student-centric with the onus of learning on the student, but facilitated by the instructor. Army Officers are expected to be life-long learners who take responsibility and personal initiative for their learning. You must properly conduct your pre-class assignments to gain an understanding of the foundation on each subject in the course. Doing so will allow your instructor to spend the majority of the class time on specific areas that are least understood from the lessons, rather than your instructor re-teaching the subject from scratch.

Your instructor has a wealth of experience and knowledge to share in the classroom—do your homework so your instructor can spend more time sharing his personal knowledge and experiences with your class. Class will be conducted in an interactive manner with ample opportunities for small group discussions and practical exercises. Everyone will be responsible for contributing to the success of the learning experience.

MSL 301 Course Requirements

Class/PT participation

You are expected to participate actively in learning through critical reflection, inquiry, dialogue, and group interactions. This includes participating in class discussion, sharing personal perspectives and experiences related to principles discussed in class or reading, working with fellow students to engage in class exercises, and leading lab exercises. Participating in the ROTC PT program will also count towards your grade. Unexcused absences from PT will count as deductions from your final grade.

Skills Presentation (Branch Information Brief)

Briefing Skills: Present a five minute information brief on a topic selected by the student and approved by the instructor. (See Branch Information Briefing below for additional information)

Quizzes

Quizzes will be given throughout the semester to assess your progress in learning the principles and practices related to the course material.

Mid-Term Exam

A mid-term exam will be given to assess your knowledge achieved during the first half of the semester.

Final Examinations – A cumulative Final Exam will be given to assess your knowledge attained throughout the course of the semester.

The University requires that final exams given at the end of a course occur at the time and on the day specified in the final exam schedule. See the schedule at: <http://www.unlv.edu/registrar/calendars>.

APFT*

As a future officer, you are expected to set the example for physical fitness according to Army regulations. You will be required to take a diagnostic APFT at the beginning of the spring semester and a for-record APFT at the end of the semester.

NOTE: *Contracted Cadets are required to participate in all ROTC activities. Students auditing this class or not yet contracted, are encouraged but not required to participate in ROTC activities in and outside the classroom.

Branch Information Briefing

As a future officer, you will be required by your superior to present briefings. As a way to prepare you for the future requirements and assist with public speaking skills, Cadets will be assigned a specific Army branch to research and present an Information brief. This brief will follow the format contained in FM 5-0, Commanders and Staff Organization and Operations, 5 May, 2014, Chapter 7, Military Briefings. The instructor should ensure that all branches are represented before assigning duplicates. This Branch Information Briefings will be conducted during Lessons 20, 23, 26, 29, and 32. (See cadre for additional information)

Final Paper

1. Cadets will write a 2 page minimum, 4 page maximum, essay in which they explain their choice of Branch and Component they want to commission in. Essay should inform the reader what factors led them to select their Branch and Component, as well as why they feel they are best suited to those choices. Essay will be 12pt, Times New Roman font. Essay will include a title page. Essay will be double spaced and in the proper APA format. Any references or quotes used must be properly cited on a Reference page.

UNLV Policies:

Academic Misconduct—Academic integrity is a legitimate concern for every member of the campus community; all share in upholding the fundamental values of honesty, trust, respect, fairness, responsibility and professionalism. By choosing to join the UNLV community, students accept the expectations of the Student Academic Misconduct Policy and are encouraged when faced with choices to always take the ethical path. Students enrolling in UNLV assume the obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with UNLV's function as an educational institution.

An example of academic misconduct is plagiarism. Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of another, from the Internet or any source, without proper citation of the sources. See the Student Academic Misconduct Policy (approved December 9, 2005) located at: <https://www.unlv.edu/studentconduct/student-conduct>.

Copyright—The University requires all members of the University Community to familiarize themselves with and to follow copyright and fair use requirements. You are individually and solely responsible for violations of copyright and fair use laws. The university will neither protect nor defend you nor assume any responsibility for employee or student violations of fair use laws. Violations of copyright laws could subject you to federal and state civil penalties and criminal liability, as well as disciplinary action under University policies. Additional information can be found at: <http://www.unlv.edu/provost/copyright>.

Disability Resource Center (DRC)—The UNLV Disability Resource Center (SSC-A 143, <http://drc.unlv.edu/>, 702-895-0866) provides resources for students with disabilities. If you feel that you have a disability, please make an appointment with a Disabilities Specialist at the DRC to discuss what options may be available to you. If you are registered with the UNLV Disability Resource Center, bring your Academic Accommodation Plan from the DRC to the instructor during office hours so that you may work together to develop strategies for implementing the accommodations to meet both your needs and the requirements of the course. Any information you provide is private and will be treated as such. To maintain the confidentiality of your request, please do not approach the instructor in front of others to discuss your accommodation needs.

Religious Holidays Policy—Any student missing class quizzes, examinations, or any other class or lab work because of observance of religious holidays shall be given an opportunity during that semester to make up missed work. The make-up will apply to the religious holiday absence only. It shall be the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor within the first 14 calendar days of the course for fall and spring courses (excepting modular courses), or within the first 7 calendar days of the course for summer and modular courses, of his or her intention to participate in religious holidays which do not fall on state holidays or periods of class recess. For additional information, please visit: <http://catalog.unlv.edu/content.php?catoid=6&navoid=531>.

Transparency in Learning and Teaching—The University encourages application of the transparency method of constructing assignments for student success. Please see these two links for further information:

<https://www.unlv.edu/provost/teachingandlearning>

<https://www.unlv.edu/provost/transparency>

Incomplete Grades—The grade of I—Incomplete—can be granted when a student has satisfactorily completed three-fourths of course work for that semester/session but for reason(s) beyond the student’s control, and acceptable to the instructor, cannot complete the last part of the course, and the instructor believes that the student can finish the course without repeating it. The incomplete work must be made up before the end of the following regular semester for undergraduate courses. Graduate students receiving “I” grades in 500-, 600-, or 700-level courses have up to one calendar year to complete the work, at the discretion of the instructor. If course requirements are not completed within the time indicated, a grade of F will be recorded and the GPA will be adjusted accordingly. Students who are fulfilling an Incomplete do not register for the course but make individual arrangements with the instructor who assigned the I grade.

Library Resources

Students may consult with a librarian on research needs. For this class, the subject librarian is Sue Wainscott.

(https://www.library.unlv.edu/contact/librarians_by_subject). UNLV

Libraries provides resources to support students’ access to information.

Discovery, access, and use of information are vital skills for academic work and for successful post-college life. Access library resources and ask questions at <https://www.library.unlv.edu>.

Tutoring and Coaching—The Academic Success Center (ASC) provides tutoring, academic success coaching and other academic assistance for all UNLV undergraduate students. For information regarding tutoring subjects, tutoring times, and other ASC programs and services, visit <http://www.unlv.edu/asc> or call 702-895-3177. The ASC building is located across from the Student Services Complex (SSC). Academic success coaching is located on the second floor of the SSC (ASC Coaching Spot).

Drop-in tutoring is located on the second floor of the Lied Library and College of Engineering TEB second floor.

UNLV Writing Center—One-on-one or small group assistance with writing is available free of charge to UNLV students at the Writing Center, located in CDC-3-301. Although walk-in consultations are sometimes available, students with appointments will receive priority assistance. Appointments may be made in person or by calling 702-895-3908. The student's Rebel ID Card, a copy of the assignment (if possible), and two copies of any writing to be reviewed are requested for the consultation. More information can be found at: <http://writingcenter.unlv.edu/>.

Rebelmail—By policy, faculty and staff should e-mail students' Rebelmail accounts only. Rebelmail is UNLV's official e-mail system for students. It is one of the primary ways students receive official university communication such as information about deadlines, major campus events, and announcements. All UNLV students receive a Rebelmail account after they have been admitted to the university. Students' e-mail prefixes are listed on class rosters. The suffix is always @unlv.nevada.edu. Emailing within WebCampus is acceptable.

Final Examinations—The University requires that final exams given at the end of a course occur at the time and on the day specified in the final exam schedule. See the schedule at: <http://www.unlv.edu/registrar/calendars>.
