Required Texts

Online Learning

In order to stay engaged, receive course updates, and generally get the most out of the course, you are encouraged to login multiple times each week.

Communication

- For e-mails sent to me Monday through Friday (during normal business hours), I will respond within 24 hours. For e-mails sent to me on weekends and holidays, expect a response within 48 hours. You should anticipate at least 72 hours before written assignments are graded and returned to you.
- The internal email is disabled in this course. Please use your UNLV rebel mail account when emailing me.
- I am available for telephone conferences or on-campus meetings. Please e-mail me through the course if you would like to meet.

Technology and Student Support

- If you encounter difficulty with accessing portions of the course or have any technology issues, contact the IT help desk at 702-895-0777 or ithelp@unlv.edu. The help desk is staffed daily, 7 am to 11 pm. The help desk website is: https://oit.unlv.edu/help/it-help-desk
- In order to avoid formatting problems, please type your documents in Microsoft Word and then copy and paste (or attach) on the Discussion Board under the appropriate topic. This will also help you avoid losing your work should the Internet or WebCampus go down.

Time Zone Variance

- Deadlines for all course assignments is listed in Pacific Time (PT).

Evaluation Methods
This courses uses quizzes and written assignments to evaluate your learning. All written assignments must be submitted in APA format. All assignments must be submitted no later than 11:55 pm Pacific Standard Time. If the assignment is submitted after the due date/time, it will not be scored and a "0" will be given for the assignment.

Grading Scale

The course grading scale follows the approved scale of the School of Nursing. As per School of Nursing policy, there is no rounding (up or down) or scores; thus, a grade of 89.99% will be recorded as 89%. A minimum of a "B" grade (83%) is required to satisfactorily complete the course.

Incomplete Grades

An incomplete grade can be granted when a student has satisfactorily completed at least three-fourths of the semester but for reason(s) beyond the student's control, and acceptable to instructor, cannot complete the last part of the course and the instructor believes that the student can finish the course without repeating it. A student who receives an "I" is responsible for making up whatever work was lacking at the end of the semester. The incomplete must be made up according to a written time schedule determined by the instructor in consultation with the student. If course requirements are not completed within the time indicated, a grade of "F" will be recorded and GPA will be recomputed accordingly. Students who are making up an incomplete do not reregister for the course, but make individual arrangements with instructor who assigned the "I".

UNLV Academic Policies

All School of Nursing and University academic standards apply. These are described in both the School of Nursing Student Handbook and the University Student Handbook.

Academic Misconduct - Academic integrity is a legitimate concern for every member of the campus community; all share in upholding the fundamental values of honesty, trust, respect, fairness, responsibility and professionalism. By choosing to join the UNLV community, students accept the expectations of the Student Academic Misconduct Policy and are encouraged when faced with choices to always take the ethical path. Students enrolling in UNLV assume the obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with UNLV's function as an educational institution.

An example of academic misconduct is plagiarism. Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of another, from the Internet or any source, without proper citation of the sources. See the Student Academic Misconduct Policy (approved December 9, 2005) located at: http://studentconduct.unlv.edu/misconduct/policy.html.

Copyright - The University requires all members of the University Community to familiarize themselves with and to follow copyright and fair use requirements. You are individually and solely responsible for violations of copyright and fair use laws. The university will neither protect nor defend you nor assume any responsibility for employee or student violations of fair use laws. Violations of copyright laws could subject you to federal and state civil penalties and criminal liability, as well as disciplinary action under University policies. Additional information can be found at: http://www.unlv.edu/provost/copyright.

Disability Resource Center (DRC) - The UNLV Disability Resource Center (SSC-A 143, http://drc.unlv.edu/, 702-895-0866) provides resources for students with disabilities. If you feel that you have a disability, please make an appointment with a Disabilities Specialist at the DRC to discuss what options may be available to you. If you are registered with the UNLV Disability Resource Center, bring your Academic Accommodation Plan from the DRC to the instructor during office hours so that you may work together to develop strategies for implementing the accommodations to meet both your needs and the requirements of the course. Any information you provide is private and will be treated as such. To maintain the confidentiality of your request, please do not approach the instructor in front of others to discuss your accommodation needs.

Religious Holidays Policy - Any student missing class quizzes, examinations, or any other class or lab work because of observance of religious holidays shall be given an opportunity during that semester to make up missed work. The make-up will apply to the religious holiday absence only. It shall be the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor within the first 14 calendar days of the course for fall and spring courses (excepting modular courses), or within the first 7 calendar days of the course for summer and modular courses, of his or her intention to participate in religious holidays which do not fall on state holidays or periods of class recess. For additional information, please visit: http://catalog.unlv.edu/content.php?catoid=6&navoid=531.

Transparency in Learning and Teaching—The University encourages application of the transparency method of constructing assignments for student success. Please see these two links for further information:

https://www.unlv.edu/provost/teachingandlearning
https://www.unlv.edu/provost/transparency
Incomplete Grades - The grade of I - Incomplete - can be granted when a student has satisfactorily completed three-fourths of course work for that semester/session but for reason(s) beyond the student's control, and acceptable to the instructor, cannot complete the last part of the course, and the instructor believes that the student can finish the course without repeating it. The incomplete work must be made up before the end of the following regular semester. If course requirements are not completed within the time indicated, a grade of F will be recorded and the GPA will be adjusted accordingly. Students who are fulfilling an Incomplete do not register for the course but make individual arrangements with the instructor who assigned the I grade.

Library Resources - Students may consult with a librarian on research needs. For this class, the subject librarian is Xan Goodman https://www.library.unlv.edu/contact/librarians_by_subject. UNLV Libraries provides resources to support students’ access to information. Discovery, access, and use of information are vital skills for academic work and for successful post-college life. Access library resources and ask questions at https://www.library.unlv.edu/.

Tutoring and Coaching—The Academic Success Center (ASC) provides tutoring, academic success coaching and other academic assistance for all UNLV undergraduate students. For information regarding tutoring subjects, tutoring times, and other ASC programs and services, visit http://www.unlv.edu/asc or call 702-895-3177. The ASC building is located across from the Student Services Complex (SSC). Academic success coaching is located on the second floor of the SSC (ASC Coaching Spot). Drop-in tutoring is located on the second floor of the Lied Library and College of Engineering TEB second floor.

UNLV Writing Center - One-on-one or small group assistance with writing is available free of charge to UNLV students at the Writing Center, located in CDC-3-301. Although walk-in consultations are sometimes available, students with appointments will receive priority assistance. Appointments may be made in person or by calling 702-895-3908. The student's Rebel ID Card, a copy of the assignment (if possible), and two copies of any writing to be reviewed are requested for the consultation. More information can be found at: http://writingcenter.unlv.edu/

Rebelmail - By policy, faculty and staff should e-mail students' Rebelmail accounts only. Rebelmail is UNLV’s official e-mail system for students. It is one of the primary ways students receive official university communication such as information about deadlines, major campus events, and announcements. All UNLV students receive a Rebelmail account after they have been admitted to the university. Students' e-mail prefixes are listed on class rosters. The suffix is always @unlv.nevada.edu. Emailing within WebCampus is acceptable.

Teaching Evaluations
In order to evaluate the effectiveness of teaching at UNLV, course evaluations are required to be administered at the end of each course. Teaching evaluations are a very important piece of assessment data and it is important that the reliability, validity, and legitimacy of these instruments be maintained. The minimum standards for administering these evaluations (Anonymity, Objectivity and Post-Evaluation Procedures) are outlined in the document "Minimum Standards for Teaching Evaluation by Students." This document has been approved unanimously by the Academic Council of Deans and the Executive Vice President and Provost as reflecting the minimum standards that apply to all departments/schools/units when administering student evaluations of teaching. To review the policy, please see "Evaluations by Students - Minimum Standards for" in the alphabetical listing at: http://provost.unlv.edu/policies.html#list_e.
