Graduate Certificate Chief Diversity Officer in Higher Education

The Graduate Certificate Chief Diversity Officer in Higher Education (CDOHE) is a collaborative program between the Departments of Educational Psychology and Higher Education and Teaching and Learning. The certificate targets full or part-time graduate students who seek professional preparation commensurate with the Standards of Professional Practice for Chief Diversity Officers (CDO) established by the National Association of Diversity Officers in Higher Education (NADOHE) in 2014. Master’s and doctoral students enrolled in disciplines outside of higher education and multicultural education, as well as current administrative professionals who already possess an undergraduate degree and have 2-3 years full-time work experience, will particularly benefit from this certificate.

Admission Requirements

Both non-degree and degree seeking students post baccalaureate are eligible to enroll for the certificate. In addition, current administrative professionals may enroll. All minimum Graduate College requirements MUST be met.

Both Degree and Non-Degree Seeking

A qualified student, who wishes to enter UNLV to obtain the Graduate Certificate in CDOHE without being enrolled in a degree program, may apply for graduate admission to the Graduate College via the ApplyYourself (AY) system.

DEGREE SEEKING

Doctoral and masters level students who are admitted to and pursuing other disciplines are eligible for the certificate program CDOHE.

Admission Process

Both Degree and Non-Degree Seeking applicants:

1. Apply for graduate admission to the Graduate College via the ApplyYourself (AY) system;
2. Select “degree-seeking” option—the menu of programs will then be provided;
3. Select “Certificate in Chief Diversity Officer”;
4. Complete application;
5. Upload a one-page statement regarding your interest in the certificate and how it meets your professional goals;
6. Upload a current resume or vitae;
7. Submit all materials via the AY system.
