Lee Business School
BSBA Degree, Finance, 2018-2019

The Department of Finance offers courses to prepare students for a variety of careers in the rapidly changing fields of finance, insurance and investments. Students are exposed to both the theory and practical applications of finance as it relates to their areas. They are taught to focus on the key elements in complicated financial issues and to provide a solution based on theory, knowledge, analysis and logic.

Suggested Academic Plan

This is a suggested academic plan. Students may make adjustments and consult the current Undergraduate Catalog for course prerequisites. Student should also confirm with departments for semester course offerings.

UD means upper-division, which refers to courses at the 300- and 400-level.

- Notes about major electives:
- A. Required to take two 400-level FIN courses.
 - B. Required to take two 300- or 400-level (UD) FIN courses, excluding FIN 345, which is not permitted as a major elective. The Finance Department recommends students take FIN 308 and FIN 312.
 - C. Required to take one of the following:
 - one 300- or 400-level (UD) FIN courses, excluding FIN 345, or
 - one non-finance course from: ECON 262 or ECON 302 or ECON 303 or RE 332 or RE 333 or RE 334.
- ✘ FIN 345 is not permitted as a finance-major elective.

◆ The number of general electives varies depending on the total credits used to meet requirements. A student should count the number of credits needed to meet degree requirements and subtract that from the minimum credits required to earn the degree (120). The difference is the number of general elective credits needed.

The Undergraduate Catalog is the source for academic requirements and policies. Those listed below are some policies that affect registration. Please see the Undergraduate Catalog for additional information. Seek clarification from an academic advisor as needed.
