guided by a four-member advisory committee. Three members of the committee will be graduate faculty from the Department of Economics and the fourth will be a graduate faculty from outside the Department of Economics who holds appropriate graduate faculty status. Students should consult with the graduate coordinator in the formation of their committees.

Degree Program Benchmarks
The program requires 30 credit hours, which includes 18 credit hours of core economics courses, 9 credit hours of electives, and 3 credits writing the professional paper. For students going the thesis option, one less elective will be required and 6 thesis credits will be required. Please see the graduate catalog for official degree requirements.

The culminating experience consists of writing a professional level research paper that uses the modeling and quantitative skill developed in the coursework. Typically, the students write their professional papers or theses during their second semester/year of the program.

To maintain good academic standing, students are required to maintain a 3.0 GPA. For students who fall below a 3.0, academic probation will be imposed and a remedial plan adopted. Students must have 3.0 GPA to graduate from the program.

Professional Code of Ethics/Discipline Guidelines UNLV Graduate College policy regarding academic integrity can be found in the graduate catalog.

Annual Review Procedures Annual Mandatory Individual Development Plan: Each winter break and early spring term, graduate students are required to complete the Graduate Student Individual Development Plan (IDP) form [Formerly known as the Student Annual Review]. The review covers the prior calendar year and assesses student progress, and it establishes reasonable goals for the year ahead. Faculty Advisors/Graduate Coordinators have the option to provide feedback to each students’ submitted IDP and provide acknowledgement that they have reviewed the IDP. Reported student data is shared with students’ graduate coordinators and advisors to foster opportunities for discussion about students’ strengths and weaknesses, accomplishments and next requirements, and mentoring plans so that students know what they need to do in order to progress successfully through their programs in a timely manner. Students who are graduating are also required to complete the form in order to record their achievements since the data is also used to track UNLV metrics related to the annual productivity of all students.

Probation
If a student fails to successfully progress in their degree program, their department/school will recommend that the student be placed on probation by the Graduate College. Students on probation may be dismissed/separated from their program for failing to successfully meet the conditions of their probation by the deadline provided. Please see the Probation and Separation section of the Graduate Catalog for more information.
