Degree Program Benchmarks

Thesis Track

Conducting research and analyzing the results is an important part of this track and the graduate studies experience.

A graduate advisory committee is mandatory for anyone in the Harrah College of Hospitality choosing to do a thesis. The committee must be chaired by a faculty member with full graduate faculty standing and should include two or three additional faculty members from the Hospitality College and one faculty member from outside the college who represents the Graduate College. The members of the committee should be chosen based on their area(s) of expertise in relation to the thesis topic chosen by the student.
To confirm the members of a student’s committee, the Graduate College form, Appointment of Advisory Committee must be completed via Grad Rebel Gateway.

Prior to being allowed to register for HOA 789R Thesis, a student must submit the completed HOA 789 Registration Form (Hospitality Graduate Forms) to the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs. This form must be accompanied by a three-page abstract of the student’s proposed area of study, which will be placed in the student’s file. The thesis committee will be on record with the Graduate College.

Prior to being allowed to register for the second term of HOA 789R Thesis, a student must submit the completed Thesis-Dissertation Proposal Defense Form (Hospitality Graduate Forms) to the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs. This form indicates that the student has presented the first three chapters of his/her thesis and is ready to begin the research process. This document is placed in the student’s file in the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs.

Financial Support for Thesis Research

The Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs is here to support students as they move through the research phase of their thesis. Upfront planning will ensure that all research-related costs are taken care of in a timely manner, allowing students to graduate according to schedule.

Immediately following a successful proposal defense, students should:

- Obtain approval for their research expenditures from the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs by submitting a brief request proposal with detailed budget items and a proposed timeline.
- Work closely with the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs in relation to the following:
  - Data collection and related charges (include dates for starting this procedure)
  - Participant incentives and related charges (if needed)
  - Research-related travel
  - Other research related incidentals

If students have tight deadlines and are working in a critical timeframe, they may want to begin the financial planning for their research even before the proposal defense. Students must receive prior approval for any research expenditures, which might take time. Therefore, students should work closely their Principle Investigator (Committee Chair) and the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs. In addition, students must receive prior approval for any travel for their research.

The Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs does not provide students with clerical support. This is the responsibility of the student.

The Principle Investigator (Committee Chair) is responsible for the accountability of any financial incentives given to survey participants. He/she must purchase the gift cards, etc., confirm that they are all distributed, and provide a final report verifying receipt of the cards to the IRB. Please review the Incentives for Human Research Subjects Policy (Policies and Regulations) for more information.

The Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs will assist students with the following in relation to the final defense of the thesis.

- Scheduling a room for the defense.
- Inviting graduate faculty, graduate students, and other appropriate guests to the defense and sending out an electronic copy of the thesis.
- Preparation of the Thesis Approval Form (printed in color with thesis title and spaces for committee signatures).
- Preparation of Culminating Experience Results Form Copies of all completed forms for student and student file Delivery of forms to the Graduate College.

Professional Track

Students in the Professional Track will select an industry related problem to research and write a professional paper as their culminating experience in their final semester of the program. A student in this track will select a chairperson who can provide guidance on the chosen topic based on his/her expertise.

Prior to registering for HOA 788, Professional Paper, a student must secure a chairperson. Once a chairperson is selected, students must complete and submit the Professional Paper Course Registration Form (Hospitality Graduate Forms) to the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs. Students will want to complete this form prior to semester they need to enroll in the course.

Program Timeline

The Master's in Hotel Administration is a one to one-and-half year program for students who complete it as a full-time student. For students in the Professional track, it is possible to complete the program in one year (fall, spring, summer). It is important that students work closely with the Faculty Program Director and the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs to ensure timely completion in this program.

Probation

If a student fails to successfully progress in their degree program, their department/school will recommend that the student be placed on probation by the Graduate College. Students on probation may be dismissed/separated from their program for failing to successfully meet the conditions of their probation by the deadline provided. Please see the Probation and Separation section of the Graduate Catalog for more information.

Professional Code of Ethics/Discipline Guidelines

UNLV Graduate College policy regarding academic integrity can be found in the graduate catalog. These policies should be read and understood prior to attending your first class.

Annual Review Procedures

Each winter break and early spring term, graduate students are required to complete the Graduate Student Individual Development Plan (IDP) form. [Formerly known as the Student Annual Review]. The review covers the prior calendar year and assesses student progress, and it establishes reasonable goals for the year ahead.

Faculty Advisors/Graduate Coordinators have the option to provide feedback to each students’ submitted IDP and provide acknowledgement that they have reviewed the IDP.

Reported student data is shared with students’ graduate coordinators and advisors to foster opportunities.
for discussion about students’ strengths and weaknesses, accomplishments and next requirements, and mentoring plans so that students know what they need to do in order to progress successfully through their programs in a timely manner.

Students who are graduating are also required to complete the form in order to record their achievements since the data is also used to track UNLV metrics related to the annual productivity of all students.

Additional Program Options

Internships

Students may register for HOA 783, Internship, as one of their elective courses. It is the student responsibility to secure his/her own internship, which can be paid or unpaid. In addition, students must complete the Internship form (Hospitality Graduate Forms) and obtain the necessary signatures before being given permission to register for the course. The completed form must be submitted to the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs.

International students must meet the requirements for CPT to be eligible for an internship experience. The requirements for CPT are outlined at Curricular Practical Training (CPT) and Occupational Practical Training (OPT). International students should contact the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs to discuss the process before securing an internship or registering for HOA 783.

Some students who did not complete any internships during their undergraduate studies or have no prior work experience in the hospitality industry may have a conditional requirement to complete an internship, which will have been documented at the time of admission into the program. Students who have this condition should complete their internship experience during the Summer term.

Independent Study

Students may register for HOA 781, Independent Study, as one of their elective courses. This class is completed through one-on-one work with a faculty member and usually focuses on a research topic of interest to both the professor and the student.

Students must complete the Independent Study Course Registration form (Hospitality Graduate Forms) and obtain the proper signatures before being given permission to register for this course. The completed form must be submitted to the Hospitality Office of Graduate Programs.

- The main focus for students in the college, is the annual Graduate Student Research Conference in Hospitality and Tourism, held the first week in January. This is an excellent opportunity for students to present their research with either oral presentations or poster sessions. Travel funds to attend are provided for master’s level students on a case-by-case basis.

Organizations/Associations

The hospitality industry has many different components, and there is a professional organization for each of those individual sectors. Students are encouraged to become familiar with and join the association(s) that are closely related to their areas of interest. Many of these organizations have special membership fees for students and this is a good opportunity to become involved. A list of many of the industry organizations is on the Harrah College of Hospitality’s website.

On campus, there are several student organizations – many related to the national/international industry associations. The list of student organizations is also on the college’s website.
