Are you interested in exploring a career in politics? Do you want to make a difference in the community? Do you want to develop personal and professional relationships with local and national political leaders?

Join the Sam Peters for Congress Campaign today! This is a part-time opportunity that can easily be balanced with a full course load. Most interns work 15-20 hours a week with flexible hours.

This internship will involve a combination of voter contact, internet research, database management, event advance, social media work, and election day operations. Hours available to work include 9:00am-9:00pm Monday through Saturday.

Some benefits of the internship include:

- A personal reference/recommendation from Sam Peters.
- Building connections with federal, state, and local leaders.
- Sharpening people, business, and life skills.
- Real-world experience in problem-solving.
- Developing leadership, persuasion, and team-building skills.
- Making valuable future connections with some of the top political talent in the state and country.

To apply, or for more information, please reach out to Ryan Shear and include an up to date resume.
