What are your next steps?

1. Create a list of scholarships for which you are eligible.
 - a. Take note of GPA requirements, citizenship requirements, destination/major of study requirements, language requirements, length of stay requirements, etc.
2. Notate each scholarship deadline including the exact time and time zone of submission.
3. Notate any supplemental requirements you might need.
 - a. Examples: Number of essays, letters of recommendation, transcripts, etc.
4. UNLV's Writing Center can meet with you at the brainstorming stage if helpful (before you write a draft), and can meet with you again once you have drafts to review.
5. For non-UNLV based scholarships, you can make an appointment with your study abroad advisor for essay review.
6. Make use of the resources below
