

The MPA degree gives students the knowledge, skills, and experiences appropriate for management positions in a variety of public, private, and nonprofit settings. Students will develop skills in strategic thinking, planning, and management, personnel relations, technology, and the design, operation, and evaluation of successful work systems.

Careers include:
Budget Analyst	Elections Coordinator	Program Administrator
Caseworker	Environmental Programs	Policy Analyst
City Clerk	Manager	Political Consultant
City Council Member	Equal Opportunity Director	Public Information
City Manager	Housing Director	Officer
City Housing Administrator	Human Resources Director	Public Relations Director
Communications Director	Law Enforcement/Public Safety	Public Safety Director
Community Development	Lawyer/Paralegal	Research Analyst
Constituent Services	Legislative	Risk Manager
Coordinator	Analyst/Coordinator	State Legislator
Public Affairs Advisor	Lobbyist	Strategic Planning
Government Relations	Management Analyst	Consultant
Economic Development	Mayor	Volunteer Coordinator
Director	Neighborhood Specialist	Youth Programs coordinator
Elected Official	Nonprofit Director	Parks & Recreation Director