Course Policies and Method of Assessment

The use of a cellular phone is prohibited in this course. It must be put away in your bag, not in your pocket. A laptop computer or a tablet should only be used for the purpose of this course and the lectures. During a quiz or exam, all electronic devices must be put away. (See below for the consequences.)

1. Attendance and Participation: (Learning Outcomes Practiced: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

Japanese classes offer an important opportunity for students to be exposed to authentic Japanese. You are expected to come to class regularly, on time, and participate in all class activities. The first three absences will not affect your grade. (Your other grades such as homework may be affected if they were not excused absences.) Each additional absence will result in the loss of 2% of your total grade. Tardy that is longer than 30 minutes of class time will be considered as one absence. If you are not in the classroom at the class beginning time, you will be marked as "tardy."

Please note that doing the following activities 2 times will be counted as one absence. They are (1) being tardy (less than 30 min.), (2) early departure, (3) leaving more than 5 minutes during class (notify your instructor before leaving the classroom), (4) using a cellular phone in class, (5) using a laptop computer or a tablet for other than the course/lecture purpose, and (6) engaging in activities irrelevant to class such as eating, chewing gum, sleeping, working on homework assignments. After 8 absences, students will receive an "F" for this course. You must follow your instructors' attendance/participation rules and decisions. Contact your instructor before your absence.

If your absence is justifiable (e.g., religious holiday, UNLV extracurricular activity, emergency, illness), you MUST provide the official documentation and notify your instructor.

2. Homework and Assignments: (Learning Outcomes Assessed: 2, 3, 4, 5)

All homework will be submitted online to WebCampus 30 minutes before the class beginning time on the designated day unless your instructor tells you differently. For the workbook homework, use the purchased workbook pages or a copy of the pages. The worksheets must be printed out from WebCampus. Erase mistakes before writing the correct answers.

The homework file must be in PDF or Word and include all assignments and pages in a single file (not as separate files). (Details will be announced later by your instructor.) Late homework will be accepted as long as it is submitted 30 minutes before the next class. However, there will be a 50% reduction (-2pts) from your assignment grade. All homework must be completed entirely to receive full credit. (Absolutely no credit will be given if your assignment was done or was submitted by someone else.) This also applies if your assignment was done during class, if it was copied from someone else's work, or if it was the same as the Genki Answer Keys.

Contact your instructor before the due date if you have any questions or problems.

Points of each homework assignment (4 pts. max.):

- 4 pts. → Everything was completed neatly and submitted on time.
- 3 pts. → Everything was completed and submitted on time but had a few errors or not following the instructions. / Re-do work was completed.
- 2 pts. → Late or incomplete work was completed and submitted. / Re-do work was assigned.
- 0 pts. → Nothing was submitted. / Too many sections were left blank or had too many errors. ("incomplete")*

Listening Homework: Download a free app, "OTO Navi - Sound Navigator" by Japan Times Publishing.
OTO Navi app information or <https://genki3.japantimes.co.jp/en/student/#apps>

Kanji Homework: Use the Kanji Practice Sheets \(on WebCampus\) to take notes in class and to do the Kanji homework.

3. Classroom Quizzes: (Learning Outcomes Assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

Quizzes are given frequently, and students are allowed to drop the lowest quiz grade. If you miss a quiz, it will be counted as your lowest score. Under no circumstances will there be any make-up quizzes. Some quizzes will be given to test your speaking skills.

4. Lesson Exams and Final Exam: (Learning Outcomes Assessed: 2, 3, 4, 5)

There will be three Lesson Exams. The Final Exam will be comprehensive. Make-ups of the Lesson Exams are given with the submission of the official documentation that validates the justifiable nature of your absence. Make-ups without valid excuses will receive a 20% reduction. No make-up of the Final Exam will be given. It is your responsibility to check the final exam schedule. You must contact the instructor by the end of the day of your Lesson Exam or Final Exam if an emergency has occurred.

The University requires that final exams given at the end of a course occur on the date and at the time specified in the Final Exam schedule. The general schedule is typically available at the start of the semester, and the classroom locations are available approximately one month before the end of the semester. See the Final Exam Schedule, <https://www.unlv.edu/registrar/calendars>.

5. Presentation and Interview: (Learning Outcomes Assessed: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

You will be assigned to participate in a presentation and to have a one-on-one interview with the instructor. Details will be announced later. Make-ups without valid excuses will receive a 20% reduction.

Students Responsibilities

1. Previewing the Lesson and Getting Assistance

You MUST study the Vocabulary and Kanji assigned for each lesson and read “Dialogue,” “Grammar,” and “Culture and Expression Notes” in the textbook before class for effective class participation. Use the Genki-Online 3rd ed. website for self-study and use the audio files to practice listening and reading. If things become unclear or difficult, it is your responsibility to take the initiative and contact the instructor for assistance.

2. Retaking a Japanese Course

If your grade in your previous Japanese course was a C or below, it is highly recommended you retake the course. Please notify the instructor during the first week if you are retaking this course.

3. Add, Drop, and/or Withdraw

The last day to add, drop, or withdraw and receive a 100% refund is Monday, January 22, 2024. The last day to drop/withdraw from classes or change to audit is Friday, March 29, 2024. Drops or withdrawals will not be allowed after this date even with the instructor’s approval. The instructor must assign a final grade to a student who failed to withdraw by the deadline. (Refer to the Undergraduate Catalog.)

4. Rebelmail

Rebelmail is UNLV’s official email system for students and by University policy, instructors and staff should only send emails to students’ Rebelmail accounts. Rebelmail is one of the primary ways in which students receive official University communications, information about deadlines, major Campus events, and announcements. All UNLV students receive a Rebelmail account after they have been admitted to the University. Sending emails within WebCampus-Canvas is also acceptable. 日本語で書いてください。

5. Letter of Recommendation

Contact the instructor AT LEAST one month before the deadline and provide any necessary information.

Academic Dishonesty/Misconduct

Academic Dishonesty/Misconduct includes, but is not limited to Cheating, Getting External Assistance, and Plagiarism

- Cheating is not allowed in class. The actions during a quiz/exam considered as cheating (but are not limited to) are; having electronic devices out (e.g., cell phone, computer), looking at other student’s quiz/exam, or any cheating material, putting your hands in your bag, and communicating with others.
- Assignments and essays must be completed entirely by each student without any external assistance (e.g., help from a tutor/friend, online translations, Answer Keys, Artificial Intelligence). You should not have another person change your work or copy other people’s work.

Classroom Conduct

- Students have a responsibility to conduct themselves in class and in the libraries in ways that do not interfere with the rights of other students to learn, or of instructors to teach. Use of devices such as cellular phones and pagers, or other potentially disruptive activities are only permitted with the prior explicit consent of the instructor.

Consequences

- Any student found to have committed academic dishonesty/misconduct will receive a grade of “F/ 0 pt.” for the work and it will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct.
- The instructor will notify the student and if the act of dishonesty is proven, he/she will receive an “F/ 0 pt.” for the work. The instructor is required to report it, no matter how large or small, to the Japanese Program. With the decision of the Japanese Program, the department will be notified, and an Academic Misconduct Report will be filed at the Office of Student Conduct. Please note that the student’s academic dishonesty/misconduct may appear on the official record, and/or he/she may be administratively withdrawn from the course. (UNLV’s academic policy states “If a student does not comply with established requirements or obstructs the functioning of the class, the instructor may initiate an administrative withdrawal of the student from the course.”) The student may appeal a finding of academic dishonesty/misconduct to the Department Chair and go through the University’s appeal process.
- The Japanese Program will follow the Academic Dishonesty Policy and Procedure of UNLV. See the Student Conduct Website, <https://www.unlv.edu/studentconduct>, and/or the Student Conduct Code, <https://www.unlv.edu/studentconduct/student-conduct>, for more information.
