WELCOME

Welcome to the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs (OPA) at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV). We would like to provide you with some context regarding the OPA as well as the information found in this handbook.

Office of Postdoctoral Affairs Role on Campus

The onboarding process and orientation are primarily done by the Office of Human Resources (HR), but the OPA can help answer questions and connect you to the right resources.

We primarily support postdoctoral scholars and their mentors/supervisors by:

- Serving as the central resource office for postdoctoral questions and issues for faculty, supervisors, mentors, and prospective and current postdoctoral scholars
- Hosting at least one major research and networking event each semester for postdoctoral scholars and faculty
- Keeping postdoctoral scholars and their mentors/supervisors apprised of relevant events and professional development opportunities through our email group
- Working with various units around campus to offer high-quality professional development opportunities for postdoctoral scholars that will help prepare them for their next career steps, including in industry, government, academia, and other settings
- Serving as an advocate for postdoctoral scholars and as a liaison between the postdoctoral scholar community and university administration
- Building a community for all UNLV postdocs and working toward ensuring that UNLV postdoctoral scholars feel part of the UNLV community

Information in the UNLV Postdoctoral Scholars Hiring and Procedural Handbook

This handbook primarily provides information on the hiring process and important procedures related to postdocs, including:

- Definition of postdoctoral scholars at UNLV and information on appointment length of time, minimum degree requirements, and minimum salary requirements
- Step-by-step process for hiring a postdoc (primarily when creating a new position)
- Sample offer letter

- Onboarding process and important trainings and orientations for new UNLV postdocs
- What to put in Workday if postdocs are attending a conference or training
- Evaluation process
- Offboarding process

Our OPA website has additional resources and information for prospective and new postdocs, current postdocs, and postdoc mentors/supervisors.

Please contact us with questions or feel free to just stop by to introduce yourself. Our office is located on the second floor of the University Gateway Building located on the east side of Maryland Parkway. We also have an amazing space where postdoctoral scholars, along with graduate faculty, can work.

Looking forward to meeting you. Sincerely,

Valarie Burke, Ph.D.

POSTDOCTORAL APPOINTMENTS AT UNLV

A postdoctoral appointment is a temporary specialized education and training position in research, teaching, performance, or scholarship established for the continued education and professional growth of the candidate. The appointment is under the direction of faculty sponsor(s), and it can be in any discipline or academic unit on campus. Below is important information on the appointment terms of postdoctoral scholars, according to the Board of Regents Handbook (Title 4, Chapter 7, Sections 5-7).

Minimum Appointment Percentage

A postdoctoral appointment must be at least 50 percent FTE.

Minimum and Maximum Length of a Postdoctoral Position

The minimum length of a postdoctoral position is one year, while two or three years is typical, and four or five years is not customary. The Nevada System of Higher Education (NSHE) does not allow postdocs over five years. Research positions that do not meet this requirement should be established using other available employment types and recruitment strategies.

Requirements for a Postdoctoral Scholar Appointment

Completion of a doctoral degree in the appropriate or related discipline is required. A recent postdoc is someone who has graduated within the past five years. Departments can set the preferred qualifications on their search to be less than five years if they choose to do so; however, if an excellent candidate applies for a postdoc position that is more than five years out, the hiring authority can make a case to include that applicant in their search.

Minimum Base Salary Policy

The minimum allowable base salary through UNLV's HR is $42,800. However, the OPA recommends a minimum salary of $50,000 based on the National Postdoctoral Association.

POSTDOCTORAL SCHOLAR ONBOARDING PROCESS

The onboarding process is primarily managed by UNLV's Office of Human Resources. Information on the full onboarding process can be found on the New Employee Onboarding webpage.

For a snapshot of the onboarding process, please see:

- Supervisor's Checklist for Onboarding Postdoctoral Scholars (provides guidance on items that should be completed for postdoctoral scholars prior and after they have started their position)
- Getting Started for Postdoctoral Scholars (provide guidance on things that postdocs should know prior to your first day and what tasks should be completed when; e.g., your first few days at UNLV, your first month, your first few months, your first six months, and your first year)

Trainings and Orientations for New UNLV Postdocs

As part of the onboarding process, there are important trainings and orientations that new UNLV postdocs should attend.

HR Benefit Orientation Dates

All new postdocs or postdocs who are newly benefits-eligible should attend a benefits orientation session as soon as possible after their contract begins. New benefits-eligible employees will be automatically scheduled to attend the New Employee Orientation during their first week of employment. If one does not receive a scheduling confirmation during their first week, please contact University Human Resources at 702-895-3504 or hrbenefits@unlv.edu.

New Faculty Orientation

New Faculty Orientation is part of the university's welcoming and onboarding of new faculty. The event is held every August. As a result, one can attend if they are a brand-new postdoc or have been on campus for several months. It is designed to introduce postdocs and other new faculty to important information and campus resources to assist in their career at UNLV. In addition, the orientation enables one to meet other new faculty, senior faculty, and campus administrators. For additional information, please see the New Faculty Orientation webpage.

Evaluation Process

Once a postdoctoral scholar is hired at UNLV, the postdoc and their supervisor will complete the Goal Setting Form within two weeks of the start date. This Postdoctoral Goal Setting Form will be used to assess the areas identified during the Annual Postdoctoral Evaluation. The Annual Postdoctoral Evaluation Form needs to be completed and submitted by April 1.

POSTDOCTORAL SCHOLAR RESOURCES AND BENEFITS

RESOURCES

- Postdoctoral scholarship conference/training attendance and Workday: The OPA strongly encourages postdoctoral scholars to attend conferences and trainings as part of their professional development. If a postdoc is attending a professional activity related to their position, the type of leave they should select in Workday is: Admin Leave w/pay. HR is in the process of creating two additional leave types for postdocs: Business Travel and Training. When these become available, we recommend that the postdoc uses these options.
- Email group: The OPA adds all postdocs to the postdoctoral email group in order to build a sense of community and to easily disseminate announcements about social activities, events, news, and other pertinent information.
- Article Processing Charges: UNLV Open Article Fund: The UNLV University Libraries offers funding to assist UNLV researchers seeking to publish in open access journals.
- University Faculty Travel Committee Travel Fund: The University Faculty Travel Committee (UFTC) travel fund provides funding toward academic faculty members' travel to attend conferences, conduct research at external sites, etc. Postdocs are eligible to receive funding. The maximum award is $1,000 per academic year.
- College/departmental-level travel/research/publication funds: Please also check with your college/department to see if they have funds available to postdocs for travel, research, publication, and/or scholarly activities.
- Workshops and training are hosted by members of the UNLV community and cover a broad range of areas from academic and professional topics to personal skills. Please see the Postdoctoral Scholar Calendar for a list of events and workshops each semester.

Additional resources for postdocs include:

- Career Services
- Office of Online Education
- UNLV Library
- Linked Learning
- UNLV Faculty Center
- Writing Center
- P.A.A.V.E. \(Peers Advocating Anti-Violence Education\): CARE Presentations
- Office of Sponsored Programs
- Office of Research Integrity

- Office of Information Technology \(OIT\) Canvas Training Workshops
- OIT Trainings/Workshops
- Student Diversity & Social Justice Diversity Training
- Graduate Faculty Status postdoctoral scholars at UNLV are encouraged to apply for Graduate Faculty Status (GFS). GFS allows individuals to be eligible to teach graduate courses, mentor/advise students, and serve on Graduate Advisory Committees (GACs).

Please note that these privileges are not automatic and must be granted by the Graduate College upon application; postdoctoral scholars' eligibility is dependent on their qualifications and approval by their department/school, college dean, and Graduate College dean.

GFS privileges will be organized as follows:

- GAC Member All Levels – And all privileges below
- GAC Chair Master's Only – And all privileges below
- GAC Member Master's Only – And all privileges below
- Graduate Instructor 1 – Teaching all levels and may be an extra GAC member
- Graduate Instructor 2 – Teaching master's students only and may be an extra GAC member
- Extra GAC Member Only

Please note that GFS expires every five years and that postdoctoral scholars are not eligible to be Graduate College Representatives.

- iThenticate: An internet-based service that allows you to scan your research, grant proposals, article drafts, and professional papers for missed citations and other mistakes that could be characterized as plagiarism, thereby protecting the integrity of your scholarship and your professional reputation. Postdoctoral scholars are provided complimentary accounts by the UNLV Graduate College. To gain access and create an account, please email Grad.Systems@unlv.edu
- Student Union: The Student Union offers various conveniences and amenities including a food court and meeting rooms.
- UNLV Libraries
- University Gateway Building: The OPA is located on the second floor of the University Gateway Building.
- Postdoctoral Scholar and Graduate Faculty Commons: The Postdoctoral Scholar and Graduate Faculty Commons is located on the second floor of the University Gateway Building. It is open Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m., with drop-in workstations for postdocs and faculty to use. These are great spots if you need a change of venue for some inspiration, a place to hide out and finish a project, and/or work space to use before or after other meetings you may have in the Gateway Building.
- Office of International Students and Scholars \(OISS\): International postdocs should contact this office, which assists with employment applications and eligibility verification, visa and travel issues, and immigration advising and documents. The OPA and OISS are available to help international postdocs acclimate to life in Las Vegas and to being a postdoc in the U.S. International postdocs should contact OISS, which assists with employment applications and eligibility verification, visa and travel issues, and immigration advising and documents. The NPA has excellent resources for international postdocs as well, including the International Postdoc Survival Guide, a quick guide to visas, a white paper on visa reforms, important U.S. government links, a list of international grants and fellows, training plans (I-983 Forms), a quick guide to income taxes, among other helpful resources.

- Nonresident Alien Tax Support: UNLV has a Nonresident Alien Tax Specialist who can assist international scholars with taxes. Email nrat@unlv.edu.
- RebelCard: The RebelCard is the official UNLV ID. It can be used at the library, health and recreation wellness center [Faculty and Staff Treatment (FAST) Center and gym], and many other facilities on campus. Money can also be deposited on the card (called RebelCash), which can be used at participating locations on and off campus. If you use RebelCash at on-campus dining locations, you do not have to pay sales tax on your purchase.
- This handy interactive UNLV map and parking website is an excellent tool to help you find your way around campus.
- Parking and Transportation Services: If you plan to drive on campus, you will need a parking permit. These can be purchased by the semester, the academic year, or the calendar year. If you park on campus without the appropriate permit, you will get a ticket. Parking is enforced 7 a.m.-7 p.m. Monday-Thursday and 7 a.m.-1 p.m. Friday during the calendar school year. During the summer months parking enforcement hours are from 7 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Thursday and 7 a.m.-1 p.m. on Friday. Parking is not enforced on the weekends.
- FAST Center provides fast and convenient access to medical care for UNLV employees and their dependents (five years of age and older).
- UNLV Pharmacy serves UNLV students, faculty, staff, postdocs, and faculty/staff dependents and strives to offer low, competitive prices on many prescriptions and over-the-counter medicine.
- Dental Clinic: The UNLV School of Dental Medicine operates several clinical programs, including on the Shadow Lane Campus and the Student Recreation and Wellness Center.
- UNLV Nutrition Center provides evidence-based nutrition education, including classes and workshops.
- Recreation and Wellness Center offers a variety of opportunities and experiences to promote a healthy lifestyle, including: an indoor jogging track; a six-lane, 25-yard lap pool; cardio equipment; strength equipment; functional trainers; free weights; personal training and group exercise; intramural sports; swim lessons; and open recreation opportunities. Postdoctoral scholars need to pay a monthly fee to become a member.
- The PRACTICE is a mental and behavioral health resource to the entire campus community, including postdocs. They have special rates for NSHE students, employees, and their dependents.
- UNLV Food Pantry: The year-round UNLV Food Pantry provides non-perishable items to any students, classified staff, professional staff, and faculty who need additional food items. It is located on the UNLV Paradise Campus (851 E. Tropicana Avenue) in Building 600, near the Bock Street and Radkovich Avenue intersection.
- National Postdoctoral Association \(NPA\): UNLV holds an institutional membership to the national organization. NPA offers a plethora of information and services including: career assistance and hosting events, workshops, and training.

BENEFITS

Below we provide a snapshot of postdoctoral scholar benefits at UNLV. For additional information, please visit the UNLV Human Resources Benefits webpage or check out the specific links below.

- Health Insurance Plans: UNLV's group health plan offers a comprehensive medical package that includes your choice of health insurance plan, dental, vision, prescription, a $25,000 term life insurance plan, and long-term disability insurance.
- Family and Dependent Coverage: When you enroll in a university health plan, you can also elect coverage for your family or dependents.
- Retirement Plans: All university employees, including postdoctoral scholars, are required to participate in a mandatory retirement plan in lieu of Social Security. Postdocs are enrolled in a mandatory defined contribution 403(b) retirement plan beginning on their date of hire. Under the terms of this retirement plan, employees must contribute 6.2% of their gross salary to the plan and the employer also makes a matching 6.2% contribution.
- Annual Time Off: Postdoctoral scholars receive 1.25 days of annual leave each month. Only 15 days of leave may be carried over each month. Time-off requests (annual, sick, etc.) are submitted through Workday.
- Holidays: University employees receive 11 paid holidays. Holiday leave is paid time off.
- Sick Leave: Postdoctoral scholars receive 15 days of sick leave the first day of employment. After one year, they accrue 1.25 days of sick leave each month. Sick leave is paid time off.
- Parental Leave Policy: There is not a specific university parental leave policy for postdoctoral scholars. As a compensated employee, postdocs would be eligible for Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave if they meet the criteria of working for the institution for at least 12 months and have worked at least 1,250 hours in the past 12 months. Additional information can be found on the FMLA webpage. Postdocs could also apply for an ADA accommodation if 1) they do not qualify for FMLA and 2) the request is for their own medical condition. Spouses would not qualify for an ADA accommodation. Additional information can be found on the ADA webpage.

- Grant-In-Aid: Grants-in-aid for tuition and fees will not be provided by the NSHE institution. Postdoctoral scholars with appointments of half time or more, along with the spouse and dependent children, will not be charged out of state tuition.
- Jury Duty: Nevada statute NRS 6.190 prohibits employers from terminating or threatening to terminate employees for jury duty.
 - states that “Judicial leave also will be granted to serve on a jury or when summoned to be a witness.” UNLV also has a policy of paid leave for employees who are serving on a jury or as a court witness. Thus, postdoctoral scholars cannot be terminated or threatened to be terminated if they have jury duty. Postdocs should let their supervisor know as soon as possible of upcoming jury duty services. For additional information, please see the Board of Regents Handbook; Jury Duty, Civil Leave, and Military Leave webpage; and Nevada Administrative Code, Rules for Personnel Administration, Classified Employees.
- Civil Leave (Voting): UNLV grants all employees paid time off to vote. The amount of time you receive to vote depends on the distance between the polling place and the university. With prior supervisory approval, NRS 293.463 permits employees to use “civil leave” to the extent reasonably necessary to vote when it is not “practical” for employees to vote on their own time. Postdoctoral scholars fall under this policy. If you anticipate the need to use any work time to vote, you need to talk with your supervisor in advance. Supervisors are encouraged to work with employees to provide reasonable opportunity to vote (and may not unreasonably withhold approval for civil leave). For additional information, please see Board of Regents Handbook; Jury Duty, Civil Leave, and Military Leave webpage; and Nevada Administrative Code, Rules for Personnel Administration, Classified Employees.

POSTDOCTORAL SCHOLAR OFFBOARDING PROCESS

The offboarding process for postdoctoral scholars is similar to other university employees. The information below is primarily for postdocs who are separating from the university.

Separating from the University

Discussing Separation and Necessary Steps to be Completed in Workday

Similar to all employees who separate from the university, postdoctoral scholars should give at least 30 days notice in advance. There are several steps that should be followed, per UNLV HR:

- Postdocs should talk to their supervisor about their separation and select an effective date for their separation
- Postdocs need to complete a resignation letter and indicate that they will be resigning. They will need to follow the steps below in Workday:
 - Click on the blue cloud in the upper right corner
 - 'View profile'
 - 'Job Change'
 - 'Resign' and complete prompts
 - Upload resignation letter
- Postdocs will need to schedule an offboarding meeting by emailing offboarding@unlv.edu to discuss the following:
 - Continuation of benefits
 - Retirement accounts
 - Continuation of voluntary insurance policies, unemployment, etc.
- It is also recommended that postdocs complete the exit surveys sent out by both HR as well as the OPA.

Accrued Annual Leave

Please note that postdocs forfeit any annual leave accrued.

Returning Department Property

Postdocs should return department property, including office keys, access cards, and department credit cards.

Settle Any Outstanding Debt Owed to the University

Postdocs need to settle any outstanding debt, including, but not limited to, library fines and parking citations.

Completing Workday Inbox Items and Updating Workday Contact Information

Postdocs will need to complete any outstanding inbox items. In addition, we strongly recommend that they update their contact information, including their email address. Their UNLV email will end on their last day of employment.

- Click on 'View Profile' in upper right corner in Workday
- Click on 'Actions' and 'Personal Data'
- Select 'Edit Personal Information'
- Select 'Change Contact Information,' make changes, and 'Submit'

Transitioning from a Postdoc Position to an Administrative or Academic Position at UNLV

Please see the Employee Offboarding webpage for additional information.

Search/Recruitment Required

Since the positions and position numbers are being converted from one employee type (postdoc) to another (admin or academic faculty), it will therefore require a search/recruitment. If the postdoc is selected for the position (based on the search/recruitment process), they must resign from the postdoc position.

Accrued Annual Leave

Please note that postdocs forfeit any annual leave accrued once they transfer out of that position. However, they will still receive leave in their new position; academic and administrative professionals accrue two days of annual leave per month.

Completing Workday Items

The hiring manager will need to complete the job change business process when it is received in their Workday, and the former postdoc may receive some onboarding tasks to complete related to benefits.

Benefits

Benefits differ for postdoctoral scholar positions and academic/administrative positions. As a result, the former postdoc should meet with a benefits counselor to go over the changes due to the job change. They do not need to attend a new hire orientation.

HIRING A POSTDOC

Below you will find the step-by-step process for hiring a postdoc. We focus primarily on the steps for when you are creating a new position. Whether you are hiring for a position that already exists or creating a new position, please follow the steps outlined on HR's Recruitment page to ensure a successful search. If you intend to request a search waiver for your postdoc position, please review the Search Waiver Process in Workday guidelines.

Step 1: Collecting and Creating New Position Documents

Documents that the hiring department needs to submit include:

- PDQ (created by hiring manager)
- New Position Request Form (budget form - business manager of area/unit can prepare)
- Updated FY budget (business manager of area/unit can prepare)
- Current Organization Chart (unit/area hiring postdoc with the postdoc position included)
- Search Waiver Letter of Support if you know who you are hiring (letter is from the dean or director)

Step 2: Letting Appropriate Channels Know of Intent to Hire a Postdoctoral Scholar

Email all of the documents listed above to the provost's office; Financial Planning, Budget & Analysis; Research and Economic Development; and your HR recruitment representative.

- Let them know your intention to request a postdoc position and request a search waiver (if the latter is applicable, this will allow for quicker review as the involved parties were made aware of the request before seeing it in their Workday inboxes).

Step 3: Creating a Position in Workday

In Workday, start typing into the search bar: create position. You will then follow standard procedures for the hiring of team members

Workday Task: Create Position

- Use job profile - J001510 - Postdoctoral Scholar
- Worker sub-type: Temporary-fixed term

- Note: Make sure all documents from above (Step 1) are scanned and uploaded

Once you submit the create position task, it needs to be approved by a number of people on campus. We recommend that you monitor Workday to see who is up next and, if necessary, send an email to them as a reminder that they need to approve the position in Workday.

Step 4: Creating the Job Requisition in Workday

After the create position task is fully approved, the next step in Workday is to create the job requisition. In Workday, start typing into the search bar: create job requisition. Use the information below:

Workday Task: Create Job Requisition with a Search Waiver

- Reason type: Exception > Postdoctoral Scholar
- Recruiting Instruction > Search Waiver
- Note: Make sure all documents from Step 1 are uploaded

Once the job requisition goes to HR, they will work with the department to have the candidate apply, and generate the employment agreement. HR's Search Waiver Process in Workday guide provides additional information about the search waiver process and necessary next steps.

Workday Task: Create Job Requisition with Recruitment (e.g., there is not a search waiver)

- See: Existing Positions - Create Job Requisition business process

Additional Steps in the Recruiting/Hiring Process

Here are the next hiring steps that will follow if you are not requesting a search waiver. It is important to note that each of these steps have multiple approval processes involved. We recommend that you monitor Workday to see who is up next and, if necessary, send an email to them as a reminder that they need to approve the position in Workday.

1. The position will be posted for your candidate(s) to apply. The HR Recruitment Representative (or Primary Recruiter) will provide instructions on the candidate application process. Please visit HR for more information about Job Posting.
2. The primary recruiter will edit the requisition according to the information provided in the vacancy announcement and then post the job. The Job Posting website has additional information regarding paid advertisements and additional resources.
3. The next step in the search process is establishing your search committee. You will need to follow the steps outlined on the Workday Search Committee Access Request page to give your search committee access to applicant materials in Workday.
4. Work with HR on the Request for Campus Interview Approval. Please note, approval is required from the UNLV Office of Equal Employment & Title IX or Human Resources prior to the final round of interviews.
5. Once a candidate has been selected, you can move on to the Job Offer/Hire Process/ Onboarding step. There are five tasks to complete under this step to move an individual from candidate to employee. Please review each task outlined on HR's website. Positions under the provost require an additional step when requesting to make an offer. This step can be found on the Job Offer/Hire Process/Onboarding page. Please make sure you complete this task before moving the candidate to the Offer Stage.

6. After the conclusion of the recruitment follow the steps to Finalize the Recruitment and complete the steps to close the search.

Title IX Statement

UNLV does not discriminate in its employment practices or in its educational programs or activities, including admissions, on the basis of sex/gender pursuant to Title IX, or on the basis of any other legally protected category as is set forth in NSHE Handbook Title 4, Chapter 8, Section 13. Reports of discriminatory misconduct, questions regarding Title IX, and/or concerns about noncompliance with Title IX or any other anti-discrimination laws or policies should be directed to UNLV's Title IX Coordinator Michelle Sposito. The Title IX Coordinator can be reached through the online reporting form, by email at titleixcoordinator@unlv.edu, by phone at 702-895-4055, by mail at 4505 S. Maryland Parkway, Box 451062, Las Vegas, NV, 89154-1062, or in person at Frank and Estella Beam Hall (BEH), Room 555.

Work Authorization: This employment contract is contingent upon the employee maintaining appropriate work authorization/visa status to work in the United States. If the employee fails or is unable to maintain the appropriate work authorization, this contract shall terminate immediately, notwithstanding any provisions of the NSHE Code.

Acknowledgement Date: This employment contract is valid for [ENTER NUMBER OF DAYS] business days from the delivery date of this document. Failure to acknowledge by this date may result in withdrawal of the offer.

After we receive your signed offer, we will initiate the hiring process in Workday, the university's human resources and finance system. Please check your email for login credentials and messaging on starting the onboarding process, as most of the onboarding process will be completed online in Workday, including the I-9 (Employment Eligibility Verification form). Please complete the I-9 no later than the commencement date of your employment.

The I-9 form you submit in Workday is unofficial until you present the original documents indicated on your I-9 for our review. Under federal law, failure to complete an I-9 form and present original documentation within three days of your start date could result in termination of this employment offer.

Conditions of Employment

DEFINITION: A postdoctoral fellow appointment is a temporary advanced scholarly appointment. It is a specialized education and training research position under the direction of a faculty sponsor in an operational laboratory, established for the postdoctoral fellows' continuing education and professional growth. The postdoctoral fellow appointment serves to advance the competence of a person who has recently completed higher professional training marked by a doctoral degree. The postdoctoral fellow is not precluded from applying for postdoctoral training grants or nationally competitive postdoctoral fellowships. Those persons excluded from the postdoctoral status are registered full-time students, candidates for a degree, visiting scholars who are not at the institution for receiving further training, or anyone who does not meet the above definition.

Title 4, Chapter 7 of the Board of Regents Handbook pertains to Postdoctoral Fellows and by this reference is not made part of the contract. Notwithstanding any provision of the Nevada System of Higher Education Code to the contrary, including but not limited to Section 5.9 (Section 5.8, DRI), this contract may be terminated at will, upon giving the employee 30 days written notice of termination; except that in cases where funding is not renewed or available, notice of termination of this contract may be given at any time. Employees have no appeal rights. The Nevada System of Higher Education reserves the right to correct clerical errors that may occur in this document and deduct any overpayments from future paychecks.

In consideration of a portion of revenues that accrue from Intellectual Property, as defined in the Intellectual Property, Research, and Entrepreneurial Activity Policy (the "Policy"), Title 4, Chapter 12 of the NSHE Handbook, in accordance with the Policy, I agree to assign and do hereby assign any Intellectual Property to NSHE for which NSHE has an ownership interest pursuant to the Policy.

Any other terms, understandings, promises, prior negotiations or representations, or conditions not specified in this document or attached to and made a part of this contract by reference in this document shall not be considered a part of this contract. This contract is not binding or of any legal effect until duly executed by both the employee and the appointing authority. I accept all conditions listed above.
