Lee Business School Mission Statement
Cultivating Leaders who Transform Business.

Welcome
We are thrilled to welcome you to campus and the Executive MBA program. You are about to embark on an experience unique to any other that you’ve participated in. The EMBA program will challenge you personally, professionally, and academically and as a result, you will grow and develop your professional acumen, leadership skills and the ability to analyze problems on an entirely different level.

To ensure that you begin your journey successfully, this handbook addresses many of the common questions EMBA students have during their time in the program. Each student is required to review the following materials to ensure a successful transition into academic life.

Below are some key points for your consideration prior to beginning class:

- Where to park: Each EMBA student will receive a UNLV Student Parking Permit in the mail the week before classes begin. Please place this permit on the bottom right hand corner of your windshield. These permits are valid in student spaces only. Students displaying a valid student permit may park in faculty/staff spaces after 7 pm, with the exception of Lots I and G. To view a campus parking map visit: [UNLV Parking Lots]

  It is recommended that EMBA students park in Lot F or H. Covered parking is available to students off Maryland Parkway and Cottage Grove Avenue in Parking Structure A, or in the parking area adjacent to the Thomas and Mack.

  Please note that parking is not enforced on Saturdays, and students are free to park in any space labeled as -Student- or -Staff-. Students are not permitted to park in any spots marked as -Reserved-.

- Where to go: All EMBA classes are held on the third floor of Wright Hall (WRI). Rooms C301 and C303 are utilized for instruction on class days and C302 and C304 are a part of the Executive MBA Suite located on the third floor of Wright Hall (WRI), C-304. To view a campus map visit: [UNLV Main Map]

- Breakfast: Breakfast is served each class day from 7:30 a.m. – 8:30 a.m.

- Lunch: Lunch is served each class day from 12:30 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

- Class times: Morning class sessions are from 8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. Afternoon class sessions are from 1:30 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

- Laptops/software: Laptops are required for the EMBA program. It is strongly suggested that students have the most recent Microsoft Office Suite. Excel, Word and PowerPoint are used frequently in classes. If you do not have the Microsoft software let the EMBA office know, and we will help you acquire a student version.

- Distribution of materials: Typically, class materials are delivered to students, in class, two weeks prior to new classes beginning. Please be sure to look over each new course syllabus in order to ensure you complete any necessary readings and/or assignments prior to the new course start date.

- What to bring: Each student is different. Some prefer to take all notes on their laptops, while others feel most comfortable keeping notes in a traditional notebook. Bring those items that will make it most conducive for you to take notes and participate in class discussions such as paper, pens, pencils, and highlighters. Limited supplies such as scissors, stapler, 3-hole punch, sticky notes etc. are available in the EMBA suite.

- What to wear: The classroom environment is intended to be comfortable and approachable. As such, students typically elect to wear casual clothes. Jeans are acceptable.

- Refreshments: Beverages and snacks are provided in the suite throughout the day. A variety of items are available, however, if you have a specific dietary requirement, please indicate your needs on the onboarding survey upon admission or alert an EMBA administrator.

We look forward to working closely with you over the next 18 months and ensuring that your academic experience is very successful. Please let EMBA Administration know if there is anything we can do to assist you in the program.

Program Requirements
Official program requirements regarding admission, coursework and culminating experience are found in the graduate catalog.
Culminating Experience
All students will complete EMBA 720 – International Seminar. During this course, includes current environment and challenges of international business, which require integrative analysis of existing problems. Under faculty supervision, students visit selected international enterprises operating outside the United States and produce a written analysis including specific recommendations. May be repeated to a maximum of three credits.

Degree Program Benchmarks
The academic performance of students is reviewed on a regular basis. If it is determined that a student is not making satisfactory progress toward meeting degree requirements, or if the student’s overall GPA falls below 3.00, the student will be placed on academic probation. Conditions and deadlines for the removal of probation will be specified. Failure to meet the conditions will result in separation from the EMBA program. Graduation requires a minimum overall GPA of 3.00 and completion of all course work, including the International Seminar.

Program Timeline
The EMBA program begins in June each year. Students complete all course work within an 18-month time frame and graduate from the program by December of the following year.

Professional Code of Ethics/Discipline Guidelines
UNLV Graduate College policy regarding academic integrity can be found in the graduate catalog.

International Seminar Policies
The International Seminar is a required course for EMBA program completion. There are many business visits and outings planned as a part of our travel itinerary. As a student in this class you are expected to attend these visits and outings just like you are expected to attend class throughout the program. Depending on the circumstances, missing an outing or business visit during the International Seminar can impact your overall course grade.

Due to the robust nature of the International Seminar, there is a full itinerary, which is carefully planned well in advance. On occasion, it may be necessary to adjust the schedule based on unforeseen circumstances. Although every effort will be made to adhere to the schedule, the administration reserves the right to adjust the itinerary, as needed. Your professor, as well as the administration, has developed the itinerary based on providing an educational, enriching, and memorable experience for all participants. We discourage requests for changes in the schedule from students, but will accept recommendations and may consider reasonable requests if we determine the modification will benefit the overall educational experience. Please contact the program director with these requests.

Be mindful that students travel on the International Seminar as representatives of the EMBA program, UNLV and the United States. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times. We encourage you to enjoy the experience abroad and immerse yourself in the culture of the countries we visit. There is a zero-tolerance policy of harassment or prejudice of any kind. Any student displaying unethical, offensive, or illegal behavior will be asked to return to the United States at his/her expense and will not pass the course.

Airfare and hotels are booked far in advance of the actual travel dates. Students will be notified as to when these booking dates are final. If, for whatever reason, a student must change part of their travel itinerary after this date, costs associated with the change are the student’s responsibility.

If feasible, an extension will be offered to students at the conclusion of the International Seminar. Typically, extensions are three days/two nights and are provided as a recreational experience. Destinations vary based on the area of the world we visit. For example, previous cohorts went on Safari after the seminar in South Africa, or Phuket, a resort-island, visited by students after the seminar to Vietnam and Thailand. Extensions are optional and at the student’s expense. Details about any optional extension will be made available to students as soon as they are available.

The EMBA program arranges for students to travel safely from Las Vegas to the International Seminar destination(s) and then return from the seminar back to Las Vegas. The EMBA program also arranges travel for participants to the extension destination and back to Las Vegas. If a student elects to deviate from these travel arrangements, it is the student’s responsibility to coordinate these arrangements, as well as pay for any associated costs.

Spouses/significant others are not permitted to attend the International Seminar.

Program Attendance Policy
The Executive MBA Program is an intense program that requires active student participation both in and out of the classroom. For this reason, students are expected to attend each class session and be prepared to participate in discussions, group activities and exercises. When a student is not present, it not only affects the learning of that individual, but it also undermines the quality of learning for the entire cohort.

It is understandable that circumstances may occur where a student needs to legitimately miss a class including illness, medical emergency, or family emergency. If a student is unable to attend a class session for any reason, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the faculty member and EMBA administration prior to the start of class. Students may not miss more than three (3) class days over the entire 18-month program. Should a student miss more than the allowable days, disciplinary action may be taken including written warning, academic probation and, if necessary, separation from the EMBA program.

Additionally, students are expected to be on time for both the morning and afternoon sessions, as well as be in class for the duration of the session. Excessive tardiness or leaving early may also result in disciplinary actions.

The policy outlined above is UNLV EMBA Program policy; however, each professor may have his or her own classroom attendance policy for missed classes, which may include extra work or an effect on final grades based on attendance and class participation.

Course Completion Letters
At students’ request, a course completion letter can be provided for submission to their employers.
This letter will include the name of the course completed, the amount of credit earned, final course grade, and the cost for the completed course. If you have specific needs for employer reimbursements we would be happy to provide those to you as well.

Course Evaluations
Suggestions and comments are vital for the continued development and improvement of the EMBA program. At the completion of each course student will be required to answer a short, five-question survey and provide feedback on the class. These evaluations will be emailed as a link for completion online. Responses will be shared with the professor and his/her supervisor, but respondents’ names will be kept confidential. Please ensure that your comments are constructive and limited to the evaluation of the course and teaching style of the professor, not a review of the professor’s personality. These course evaluations must be completed within 10 days.

Annual Review Procedures
Each winter break and early spring term, graduate students are required to complete the Graduate Student Individual Development Plan (IDP) form. The review covers the prior calendar year and assesses student progress, and it establishes reasonable goals for the year ahead.
Reported student data is shared with students’ graduate coordinators and advisors to foster opportunities for discussion about students’ strengths and weaknesses, accomplishments and next requirements, and mentoring plans so that students know what they need to do in order to progress successfully through their programs in a timely manner. Students who are graduating are also required to complete the form in order to record their achievements since the data is also used to track metrics related to the annual productivity of all students. This survey will be sent by the Graduate College to the student’s Rebelmail account. The review covers the prior calendar year and assesses student progress while setting goals for the year ahead.
Probation
If a student fails to successfully progress in their degree program, their department/school will recommend that the student be placed on probation by the Graduate College. Students on probation may be dismissed/separated from their program for failing to successfully meet the conditions of their probation by the deadline provided. Please see the Probation and Separation section of the Graduate Catalog for more information.
