Purpose

This handbook contains information essential for graduate students in the Counselor Education Program. It is designed to provide students with policies, procedures, and requirements specific to the Counselor Education Program in order to help them successfully complete graduate studies. Like the Graduate Catalog, the handbook is in effect when a student enrolls and is the final authoritative document outlining the program's requirements.

It is the responsibility of the student to be familiar with the contents herein and to meet all requirements and deadlines (See the Affidavit of Commitment).

UNLV Counselor Education Program MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the program in Counselor Education is to provide all master's level students with the latest methods, theories, and techniques of the discipline and to provide a field experience that will allow for a theory-to- practice developmental training approach. Indeed, we seek to enhance the requisite clinical skills needed to function as a professional counselor. In addition, and more broadly, we seek to train students to be critical thinkers, scientifically minded, culturally sensitive, promoters of social justice, and above all to be highly ethical and competent in their particular area of specialization. The Counselor Education mission statement embodies the personal and professional commitment that is required for those individuals who are intent on making a difference for people in our society.

About the Counselor Education, School Psychology, & Human Services Department

The Counselor Education Program is housed within the Counselor Education, School Psychology, & Human Services (CSH) Department.

The faculty members in the Counselor Education Program endeavor to promote excellence in counselor education and counseling research. Our counseling programs help prepare students to:

- Serve as professional counselors, system advocates, educational leaders, team members, and consultants who maximize opportunities for individuals, groups, and communities and especially, underrepresented populations;
- Address the developmental, academic, career, mental health, personal, cultural, social, spiritual and wellness needs of those we serve within the context of counseling;
- Help individuals, groups and communities strive to find meaning, involvement, and worth in their lives;
- Plan and conduct qualitative, mixed design and quantitative research studies to further the knowledge base and best practice initiatives of the counseling profession; and finally
- Consult and interface with various school and community organizations to promote client/student and societal well being.

Counselor Education Program Objectives

1. UNLV Counseling students will demonstrate value for human dignity and advocacy for clients/students and the profession while holding strong identities as professional counselors who are theory-informed and ethically-driven.
2. UNLV Counseling students will be competent leaders, advocates, and counselors who implement multicultural and social justice counseling competencies (MSJCC) by working with and on behalf of clients/students within a diverse society at the individual, school/community, and public arena levels.
3. UNLV Counseling students will apply developmental knowledge and the related nature/needs of clients/students in counseling approaches and interventions.
4. UNLV Counseling students will integrate career development knowledge and best practices in a holistic manner to effectively facilitate meaningful life planning of clients/students.
5. UNLV Counseling students will competently apply counseling theories, skills, and conceptual models to guide their professional practice.
6. UNLV Counseling students will understand and implement counseling group facilitation skills, theoretical foundations of group counseling/group work, and approaches towards group development, and dynamics for different types of groups.
7. UNLV Counseling students will demonstrate an understanding and application of best practices in assessment, testing, and evaluation in counseling practice.
8. UNLV Counseling students will employ scientifically-driven approaches in understanding, critiquing, and/or conducting program evaluation/research in counseling to guide professional practice.
9. UNLV CMHC students will learn to assess, diagnose, treat, and advocate for clients in a multicultural society while emphasizing wellness, development, and evidenced-based practices.
10. UNLV school counseling students will learn to design and deliver developmentally appropriate and culturally responsive school counseling interventions (including curricula) that are based on analyzing data (in an ongoing process to assess learning, motivational, and developmental needs of students) and delivered within the context of a comprehensive school counseling program.

Counselor Education Graduate Program Degrees

M.S. Clinical Mental Health Counseling

The Master of Science (M.S.) of Counselor Education in Clinical Mental Health Counseling, a 60-semester hour program, prepares professional counselors to work in community agencies, educational settings, as well as private practice. The Clinical Mental Health Counseling program also prepares students to seek licensure as a Clinical Professional Counselor (CPC) in Nevada.

M.Ed. School Counseling

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) in School Counseling, a 60 semester hour program, prepares professional counselors to meet the academic, career, emotional, and social needs of culturally and linguistically diverse K-12 student populations. The program, meets the academic requirements for School Counseling endorsement in Nevada, and prepares counselors to:

- Serve as counselors, advocates, educational leaders, team members, and consultants, to maximize opportunities for students to succeed academically,
- Address the academic, career, and emotional/social needs of all students in the school,
- Serve as leaders of equity and achievement and be able to address institutional and environmental barriers impeding student progress,
- Through the collection and dissemination of data, advocate for systemic change to promote student achievement and academic success,
- Become managers of resources and partnership builders, enlisting the support of guardians, agencies, and community members

Advanced Graduate Certificate in Clinical Mental Health Counseling

The Advanced Graduate Certificate in Clinical Mental Health Counseling is designed for individuals already holding a master's degree in counseling from a CACREP accredited or equivalent program, but do not meet the necessary educational requirements for the licensure for Clinical Professional Counselors (CPC) in the State of Nevada. Specific programs of study are developed in consultation with the student's Faculty Advisor.

Currently admitted UNLV School Counseling Program students may apply for concurrent admission to the Advanced Graduate Certificate in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. These students will complete the 60 credit School Counseling core courses plus 12-18 additional credits for the certificate. (Please see UNLV Graduate Catalog for official requirements)

Advanced Graduate Certificate in Addictions Studies

The Advanced Graduate Certificate in Addiction Studies is designed for individuals already holding a master's degree in a helping profession who aim to expand their scope of practice to include addictions counseling. Specific programs of study are developed in consultation with the student's Faculty Advisor.

Currently admitted UNLV Clinical Mental Health Counseling and UNLV School Counseling Program students may apply for concurrent admission to the Advanced Graduate Certificate in Addictions Studies. These students will complete their 60 credit School Counseling or 60 credit Mental Health Counseling core courses plus 12-18 additional credits for the certificate. (Please see Graduate UNLV Catalog for official requirements)

Advanced Graduate Certificate in School Counseling

The certificate program is designed for individuals already holding master's degrees in counseling who are seeking to enhance their professional counseling practice and licensure options.

The Advanced Graduate Certificate in School Counseling is targeted primarily toward those individuals who have graduated from CACREP accredited or equivalent programs, but do not meet the necessary educational requirements for the School Counseling License in the State of Nevada. (Please see Graduate UNLV Catalog for official requirements)

UNLV CED Program Admission Writing Sample

In a two-three-page (500-750 words) narrative, please describe your reasons for wanting to pursue a career in counseling in general, and the reasons for the specific counseling degree/certificate here at UNLV. Additionally, please describe reasons why you believe the counseling profession is a good fit for you, and why the UNLV program in particular is a good fit. Points to consider including in your personal statement include, experiences with helping people, your personal and career goals, and your experiences with or goals for advocating for social justice and multicultural issues. Finally, please also consider addressing any unique skills and/or experiences that you believe will contribute to the program and to the greater community. For example, if you possess multilingual skills that may be useful for working with the linguistically diverse population of Las Vegas.

CED Graduate Course Sequences

Courses in both the Master of Science (M.S.) Clinical Mental Health Counseling (CMHC), and the Master of Education (M.Ed.) in School Counseling (SC) follow a designated course sequence that is designed to support and enhance students' growth and development as counselors. Courses are generally offered only once per year during the semester designated in the sequences. Failure to follow the course sequence may result in a delay in completion of the program. Please see below for the recommended course sequencing for students entering the program from 2019 and beyond. Official course requirements can be found in the UNLV Graduate Catalog.

Minority Recruitment & Diversity Policy

The principles of ethnic diversity and equal rights are accepted and valued by the Counselor Education Program at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. The program's commitment to equal opportunity includes active recruitment of minority students as a professional responsibility.

The program works to recruit and retain minority students by:

- Admissions process takes into consideration the benefits of student candidates from traditionally underrepresented populations in the counseling profession.
- Consideration of awarding graduate assistantships as a tool for recruitment/retention of underrepresented groups.
- Engaging with minority groups, as well as other organizations and institutions with minority participation, both on and off campus.
- Establishing outreach and personal contact with potential minority students.
- Using equitable admissions requirements (i.e., using multiple criteria).
- Seeking to employ minority faculty members.

The UNLV Counselor Education program seeks to recruit and retain a diverse student population as a reflection of our commitment to serve the people of Las Vegas and Nevada, to maintain the excellence of the University, and to offer our students richly varied disciplines, perspectives and ways of knowing and learning.

Statement of Liability Awareness

Counselors and counselors-in-training are not immune to litigation regarding counseling practice. Therefore, in order to protect students in training who are providing direct client services, all students enrolled in clinical courses must obtain and present evidence of adequate personal liability coverage. It is recommended that students select insurance providing a minimum coverage amount of $1,000,000 incident/$1,000,000 aggregate.

Students may choose their own insuring company. Sources that will insure counseling students include: The American Counseling Association and The American School Counselor Association. It is the student's responsibility to evaluate the available insurance prior to choosing a particular company. Students may choose to use his or her own personal insuring agent if that company can provide satisfactory coverage.

Students will be asked to present evidence of coverage at the first class meeting of each course involving a clinical component. Evidence of coverage consists of a photocopy of the cover page of the insurance policy that shows the student's name, policy number, and dates of coverage. Courses involving a clinical component include but are not limited to: Counseling Process and Procedures, Practicum, and Internship

CED Program Roles

Three key roles for graduate students in the counselor education program are the CED Program Coordinator, the CED Practicum & Internship Coordinator, and CED Faculty Advisor.

CED Program Coordinator

The CED Program Coordinator provides administrative leadership related to the academic and operational functions of the CED program on a semester-to-semester basis. In particular, the program coordinator is responsible for:

- The coordination of the counseling program(s) including the SC and CMHC specialties;
- Responding to inquiries regarding the overall academic unit;
- Providing input and making recommendations regarding the development of and expenditures from the budget; and
- Providing or delegating year-round leadership to the operation of the program(s)
- The Program Coordinator also receives release time from faculty member responsibilities to administer the academic unit

Example duties of the Program Coordinator includes: coordinating the counseling program curriculum, faculty assignments, accreditation compliance, and program policies, and response to inquiries regarding the program. The Program Coordinator reports to the Department Chair providing input about staffing, budget, and program changes.

CED Practicum & Internship Coordinator

The Practicum and Internship Coordinator is responsible for the management of practicum and internship field experience placements for the Counselor Education program and works collaboratively with CCSD, as well as community agencies to place practicum and internship students at approved school and mental health sites.

Other duties include:

- Organizing and facilitating the CED/Human Services Internship Fair each Spring
- Organizing and facilitating a Practicum/Internship orientation for students who will be completing field experiences in the spring, summer, and/or fall.
- Meeting with agencies throughout the academic year who are interested in becoming an approved site in the CED program and preparing paperwork for approval
- Ensuring that each approved site has a current Educational Affiliation Agreement (EAA) on file.
- Responding to inquiries regarding practicum and internship

CED Faculty Advisor

While the program has a Graduate Program Coordinator, upon admission to the graduate program all CED students are assigned an individual academic advisor from the CED faculty.

Please see your admission letter to identify your specific faculty advisor. The CED Faculty Advisor is responsible for assisting advisees with educational planning, clarifying program policies, course sequence, and communicating to the student the results of the systematic review of student program throughout the CED program including any necessary remediation therein. The CED Faculty Advisor will assist students in completing the requisite program of study and filing it with the UNLV Graduate College.

Student Advising

Upon admission to the Counselor Education Program, each student (including certificate students) will be assigned a CED Faculty Advisor to formulate a program of study compatible with the program to which the student has been admitted. Regular meetings with your Faculty Advisor will help ensure your progress and successful program completion. To officially assign your Faculty Advisor through the Graduate College, you will need to login to Grad Rebel Gateway and submit the "Appointment of Faculty Advisor" form.

When in doubt about any issues or concerns regarding your Program of Study or progress towards your degree, consult your Faculty Advisor. It is ultimately the student's responsibility to ensure that the Program of Study submitted meets the Program and Graduate College requirements. In addition, students are responsible for ensuring that they have met any and all prerequisite requirements for all courses in which they attempt to enroll.

Filing a Program of Study

With the consultation and approval of the Faculty Advisor, all students must prepare a Plan of Study Parts 1 and 2, and complete this task for the Graduate College via the Grad Rebel Gateway. Part II is downloaded from the Degrees Directory, completed by the student, and uploaded into the Grad Rebel Gateway Part I form. Plan of Study forms are required of all students; cannot be submitted until Appointment of Faculty Advisor or Appointment of Advisory Committee form, if those are required for the program. The degree program outlines the courses the student will complete for the degree and must conform to the student's chosen program. The proposed program is to be submitted via the Grad Rebel Gateway prior to the student's completion of 16 credit hours of work toward the degree (we suggest this is done during the first fall semester). It is the student's responsibility to schedule an appointment with his/her Faculty Advisor for the purpose of filing the program well in advance of the program deadline.

Changing Program Track

If a student wishes to change CED Program Tracks (i.e., from/to clinical mental health to/from school counseling), the student must first meet and discuss the potential change with their advisor. The advisor and advisee will discuss different options (e.g., switching program tracks, advanced certificates) and the subsequent implications for the student's educational plan and timeline. The student must then author a letter to faculty explaining the desired transfer and rationale. The letter is sent to the student's advisor and the advisor brings it to the next CED program meeting where faculty vote to approve/disapprove. The advisor then contacts the student with the program decision. If a student's request to change tracks is granted by the program faculty, the student is required to initiate all necessary changes with the Graduate College.

Policy on Independent Studies

Students with a particular interest in an area of study in the counseling field may pursue Independent Study courses with faculty who have expertise and/or substantive interest in the area in question. These Independent Study courses afford students an opportunity to tailor an experience to their individual educational needs. Independent studies are to be used for these purposes only. Independent studies may not be used as a substitute for core program coursework. Students may not enroll in an independent study without prior faculty approval.

Academic Policies in the Counselor Education Program

All full and part-time students entering into the M.Ed. and M.S. programs are required to enroll in CED 701 Introduction to Counseling and CED 727 Counseling Process and Procedures during their first fall semester. A grade of B or better is required in both CED 701 and CED 727 in order to continue taking coursework in the M.S. and M.Ed. programs. Students who make a grade of B- or lower (but not an F) in either CED 701 or CED 727 may not continue taking other CED coursework until successfully repeating these courses. If the student makes a B- or lower (but not an F) in either CED 701 or CED 727, the student will be recommended to be placed on academic probation to the Graduate College. If after a second attempt a student does not make a B or better in CED 701 or CED 727, the student will be separated from the graduate program.

Students must make a grade of B or better in CED 741 Practicum in Counseling in order to enroll in CED 751 Internship in Counseling. A grade of B or better is required for all internship courses (CED 751 and CED 775) or they must be repeated.

A student receiving a grade of F at any point and in any course in the degree program will be placed on academic probation. Students must repeat any course in which they make a grade of C- or lower.

Students making two grades of B- or lower will be recommended to be placed on academic probation to the Graduate College. Students with three or more grades of B- or lower will be separated from the graduate program.

In order to earn the degree, students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better.

Academic and Interpersonal Benchmarks of Student Progress

The Counselor Education Program requires high levels of academic success and excellent interpersonal skills. Students are regularly evaluated throughout the program for academic progress and demonstration of appropriate interpersonal skills, professional demeanor, and social and ethical judgment necessary for a successful career as a professional counselor. If concerns arise about a student for academic and/or interpersonal reasons, the faculty will meet to evaluate the severity and nature of the concern and will suggest an appropriate course of action. Placing students on academic probation with the Graduate College precedes recommendations for separation from the graduate program. Probations may address such remedial actions including desisting temporarily from course work, repeating courses, seeking personal counseling, or withdrawal from the program permanently. Continued lack of improvement or other infractions may result in a report to the Office of Student Conduct for a Student Conduct Code violation and appropriate actions and/or academic probation. See the Probation and Separation section of the Graduate Catalog.

Benchmarks of student progress include:

Benchmark 1: Successful completion of CED 701 and CED 727.

Benchmark 2: Successful completion of additional core coursework including Counseling & Consultation Theories, Multicultural and Social Justice in Counseling, Introduction to Group Counseling, and Legal & Ethical Issues in Counseling.

Benchmark 3: Successful completion of Counseling Practicum prior to Internship as evidenced by a grade of B or better.

Benchmark 4: Successful involvement in and completion of the Counseling Internship as evidenced by supervisor evaluations, completion of required contact hours, and a grade of B or better.

Benchmark 5: Successful completion of the comprehensive examination prior to graduation from the program.

Annual Review Procedures

Each winter break and early spring term, graduate students are required to complete the Graduate Student Individual Development Plan (IDP) form. The review covers the prior calendar year and assesses student progress, and it establishes reasonable goals for the year ahead.

Reported student data is shared with students' graduate coordinators and advisors to foster opportunities for discussion about students' strengths and weaknesses, accomplishments and next requirements, and mentoring plans so that students know what they need to do in order to progress successfully through their programs in a timely manner. Students who are graduating are also required to complete the form in order to record their achievements since the data is also used to track metrics related to the annual productivity of all students. This online form will be sent by the Graduate College to the student's Rebelmail account. The mandatory review covers the prior calendar year and assesses student progress while setting goals for the year ahead.

Student Review Process

The Counselor Education Program follows the Department, College and University Policies on student conduct which may be found at the Offices of Student Conduct. In addition, program faculty regularly reviews student progress in the CED program and appropriateness for the counseling profession using the Personal & Professional Competencies (PPC; see Personal and Professional Competencies Evaluation Form on page 23: PERSONAL-PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES FORM).

Remediation and Removal from the Counselor Education Program

The Counselor Education Program has developed the above procedure for remediation or dismissal from the program for non-academic reasons. A student may be terminated from the graduate programs for non-academic reasons as a result of one or more of the following factors:

1. Failure to remediate unmet Personal & Professional Competencies (see PPC Evaluation Form on page 23: PERSONAL- PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES FORM).
2. The student has displayed unprofessional conduct in the university or field placement, which represents a substantive violation of the ACA Code of Ethics.
3. The student has exhibited attitudes, values and/or behaviors that are grossly inconsistent with the ACA Code of Ethics and the profession of counseling.
4. The student is not meeting the counselor education program faculty members' expectations for performance in the field placement. Unacceptable performance in field placements may include, but are not limited to, students not fulfilling their assigned responsibilities for the field placement; consistent tardiness or absence in the field placement; displaying an inability to engage in a professional helping relationship with clients; an inability to appropriately use supervision; violating the ACA Code of Ethics; and/or inappropriate conduct toward clients or agency staff.
5. The student has been engaged in criminal behavior that has resulted in a felony conviction.
6. The student has given false information about him/herself in the admissions procedure or to any staff associated with the program, including employees of field placements and clients.
7. The student displays unacceptable behavior toward faculty and/or students that undermines the teaching process.
8. The student's behavior violates provisions of the UNLV Student Conduct Code.

NOTE: This document is not intended to address issues of student impairment that fall under the purview of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). In cases in which an ADA impairment is identified or suspected, the affected student would be directed to the University's Disability Resource Center to document the impairment and access the appropriate accommodations

Academic Appeals Policies

For academic appeal information, review the Graduate College guide

And Graduate Student Resources:

Endorsement Policy

Students who choose to apply for licensure as Clinical Professional Counselor Interns may do so as detailed on the MFT/CPC Board of Examiners website and students needing a recommendation should plan ahead in requesting a letter from faculty. Faculty may provide personal references for students with appropriate consideration as to their knowledge of the student's progress in the program and the faculty members' area of expertise within the scope of program instruction.

Any faculty member asked to provide an endorsement for a student enrolled in the Counselor Education Program pertaining to credentialing or employment opportunities consistent with the student's specialty area (e.g., clinical mental health or school counseling), may do so if they can confirm that the student: (a) has completed the necessary coursework to be considered for such endorsement; (b) was in good academic standing at the time the endorsement was requested; (c) can provide positive evaluations from an onsite supervisor(s) regarding preparedness for the profession; and (d) has maintained professional conduct consistent with the ACA Code of Ethics while enrolled in the program.

However, at the discretion of the endorser, the endorsement could be made without reservations. Likewise, the endorser may request that a student provide additional documentation before complying with the request for endorsement. Students should consult with the Counselor Education Program coordinator for any updates that may occur related to this policy and process.

Practicum & Internship Policies

Enrollment in practicum and internship are considered critical experiences for successful completion of the M.S. and M.Ed. in counseling. Primary goals of both practicum and Internship are to develop strong counseling skills and to promote the development of the student's professional counselor identity in an organization compatible with their program emphasis area. Practicum and Internship activities will take place at departmentally-approved sites with appropriately qualified supervisors where the practicum student/intern can work with clients/students appropriate for the student's program emphasis.

Practicum (CED 741) placement requires students to complete 100 hours in an approved community setting under supervision from faculty and site supervisors. Students typically spend 6-10 hours per week involved in direct and indirect counseling activities, including individual and group supervision. Hours in practicum must be accrued throughout the 15-week semester, though training and orientation hours may occur before the semester begins. Students ordinarily earn practicum credit at a single site; the program faculty must approve requests for an additional practicum site, which is granted only under exceptional circumstances as determined by program faculty.

Internship (CED 751) requires 600 hours total of direct and indirect counseling in community or school settings. Of these, at least 240 hours must involve direct client services. Students ordinarily earn internship credit at no more than one site per semester; the department faculty must approve requests for an additional internship site. The minimum time investment expected at an individual site placement is 15 weeks (one semester). Please note that students who choose to pursue full time completion of their internship hours (30-40 hours weekly) in a single semester may not be employed full time. In the semester prior to beginning Internship, students should select an Internship site in consultation with the Faculty Advisor that is consistent with their needs and their program area. All Internship sites must be approved by the CED Program.

Potential new sites undergo a vetting process, including the development of an Educational Affiliation Agreement. A current list of approved sites is available on the CED website updated annually, with the most current list available from the Practicum/Internship Coordinator.

Direct hours at the Internship site begin only after the student enrolls in, and begins attending, CED 751/775. Enrollment will be consistent with those guidelines described in the CACREP standards. Students must register for CED 751 each semester during which they work as Interns. During internship, the department faculty will provide opportunity for discussion of professional and ethical issues related to the practice of counseling through a weekly on campus seminar. Case presentations and consultation counts the seminar class time as group supervision hours. Attendance of this seminar, as well as providing service to the practicum/internship site, is required throughout internship.

Application for Practicum & Internship

Applications for Practicum and Internship must be filed by the appropriate deadline in the semester before the semester in which the experience will occur. Students will not be permitted to participate in Practicum, Internship or Internship unless an application is on file with all the necessary departmental and faculty approvals.

Students are required to consult with their Faculty Advisor regarding these applications in order to ensure that all prerequisites have been met prior to participation in these experiences.

Applications may be obtained from the field experiences section of the department webpage.

Practicum Requirements

The counseling practicum experience is designed to foster critical individual and group counseling skills necessary for the quality practice of professional counseling. Students in both school and community mental health programs complete their practicum experience at specific, departmentally approved, community counseling sites. In accordance with standards developed by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP), practicum consists of a minimum of 100 hours of supervised counseling activities. Of these, a minimum of 40 hours must be in direct individual counseling services and a minimum of 10 hours must be in direct group counseling services, with the remaining hours to be in appropriate indirect counseling related activities as outlined below:

40+ Direct Hours include:

- ★ Individual counseling
- ★ Group counseling
- ★ Client assessment or intake completed in a face-to-face manner (counseling over live video is considered face-to-face)

The remainder of 60 hours is comprised of activities which are essential training components or in some way support the direct counseling work.

60 Indirect Hours may include:

- ✓ Counselor observation of others' direct clinical/counseling work
- ✓ Individual case conceptualization planning for client needs
- ✓ Researching strategies, interventions and diagnostic information based upon counseling theories, practices, and research
- ✓ Documentation of cases, completing and developing progress notes, client histories, creating master treatment plans and other forms of clinical reporting
- ✓ Group supervision, observation consultation and other clinical meetings, UNLV faculty supervision, and on-site supervision
- ✓ Continuing education/training activities as approved by the site and/or faculty supervisor

Not all hours tangentially related to practicum can be included in documentation of hours.

Documented hours may not include:

- ✗ Non-counseling related clerical work
- ✗ Commuting time to and from the internship site

Recording Client Sessions

According to the professional practice standards from the Council on Accreditation of Counseling Related Education Programs (CACREP), students in practicum and internship must be afforded opportunities to become familiar with a variety of professional activities and resources to assist in development of individual counseling skills and the opportunity to lead or co-lead counseling or psychoeducational groups. In addition, supervision is to include "program appropriate audio/video recordings and/or live supervision of students' interactions with clients" (CACREP 3.B).

The protocols articulated here are to establish reasonable protections to privacy and confidentiality of client and student, while providing the student with sufficient clinical supervision in compliance with accreditation standards and ethical guidelines. Three scenarios and reasonable privacy protocols for each are provided: (a) recordings conveyed with informed consent from the field site; (b) live supervision performed by the faculty member; and (c) live supervision performed by the site supervisor.

Recordings conveyed with informed consent from the field site. Informed consent documentation will be on file at the agency, not in the student's possession and not in the faculty member's possession. The student will provide the practicum or internship course instructor with verification of informed consent.

Provisions for Ensuring Recording Security

1. Recordings for training purposes are not intended to be preserved as part of the client's medical record and while they exist must be preserved in compliance with HIPAA standards.
2. The video recording process utilizes the department-contracted Supervision Assist internet browser-based platform, which is HIPAA-secure. No recording should take place apart from that environment. See the guides on Supervision Assist for details to ensure secure recordings.
3. In environment without strong wifi, recordings are stored locally and then uploaded to the secure cloud where they reside until deleted when the computer is in an area with a strong internet connection.
4. At a minimum, the device used for digital session recording must be password-protected. The best practice is, in the case of a computer, for the discs to be encrypted, which means that should the device be stolen, the data (such as any recordings or parts thereof that remain resident on the device pending completion of uploading) are unrecoverable without the encryption key itself, automatically used by the device's operating system when you log in to it—thus, data on a stolen disc is “jibberish” without the encryption key. As a result, the simple process of activating disc encryption for devices having the provision for that function, are protected in a secured way.
5. Extra care should be taken regarding physically securing digital devices where client information such as recordings may reside in some way.
6. Never download a recording or store it yourself outside of the Supervision Assist environment.
7. Never review a recording in the presence of persons who are not your site supervisor or faculty supervisor.
8. Completing the HIPPA quiz that Supervision Assist provides is mandatory.
9. The Practicum/Internship Handbook may provide additional details to ensure recordings are properly used and secured.

Clinical Mental Health Counseling Internship Requirements

The UNLV master's clinical mental health counseling internship experience (CED 751) is designed to continue fostering quality counseling skills, as well as offer interns the opportunity to apply their knowledge of clinical mental health counseling in a field-based experience. In accordance with standards developed by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP), Internship consists of a minimum of 600 hours of field-based clinical mental health counseling activities. Of these, a minimum of 240 hours must be in direct counseling services, with the remaining hours to be in appropriate indirect counseling. CED 751 is variable credit; please consult with your Faculty Advisor and the Practicum/Internship Handbook for caveats regarding the relationship between course credit hours and contact hours. Please note that for Nevada licensure as a Clinical Professional Counselor, three courses (Practicum + two internships) spanning at least 40 weeks, are required. The standard plan of study anticipates this.

Direct (MINIMUM 120) hours may include:

- ★ Intake and treatment/goal setting planning meetings/interviews with clients
- ★ Assessments and follow up meetings
- ★ Individual counseling
- ★ Family member and support person counseling as they relate to the primary clients and subsequent consultation
- ★ Relational counseling
- ★ Group counseling

Indirect Hours may include:

- ✓ Case and treatment management
- ✓ Counselor observation
- ✓ Individual case conceptualization planning for client needs
- ✓ Researching strategies based on counseling theories, practices and intervention related to current research and treatment practices
- ✓ Documentation of case progress and case analysis
- ✓ Group supervision, UNLV faculty supervision, and on-site supervision
- ✓ Professional development activities including: Conferences, trainings and workshops

Documented hours may not include:

- ✗ Non-counseling related clerical work
- ✗ Commuting time to and from the internship site

Recording Client Sessions: The provisions and caveats are identical to this section in the Practicum Requirements, above

School Counseling Internship Requirements

The UNLV master's school counseling internship experience is designed to continue fostering quality counseling skills, as well as offer interns with the opportunity to apply their knowledge of comprehensive school counseling programs in a field-based experience. The Internship course (CED 751) is variable credit; please consult with your Faculty Advisor and the Practicum/Internship Handbook for caveats regarding the relationship between course credit hours and contact hours. Because the Nevada endorsement for school counseling is an all-level credential, students are required to gain experience at both elementary (PK-5) and secondary (6-12) levels at some point during their internship. In accordance with standards developed by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP), the internship (CED 751) consists of a minimum of 600 hours of field-based school counseling activities. Of these, a minimum of 240 hours must be in direct counseling services, with the remaining hours to be in appropriate indirect counseling related activities as outlined below:

Direct (MINIMUM 240) hours may include:

- ★ Individual counseling
- ★ Group counseling
- ★ Classroom guidance
- ★ Consultation with parents, teachers, administrators, counselors and students
- ★ Staff development and parent group presentations
- ★ Leadership activities

Indirect Hours may include:

- ✓ Student classroom observation
- ✓ Counselor observation
- ✓ Guidance curriculum development/classroom instruction prep
- ✓ Individual planning for academic or career needs (including registration activities)
- ✓ Group supervision, UNLV faculty supervision, and on-site supervision

Documented hours may not include:

- ✗ Making disciplinary decisions or imposing disciplinary actions
- ✗ Student supervision duty including: bus duty, taking tickets at school events,
- ✗ Recess duty, lunch duty, bus duty, retention duty, hall duty and so forth.
- ✗ Substitute teaching of a class
- ✗ Non-counseling related clerical work
- ✗ Other duties that do not enhance or not foster the development of a Professional School Counselor
- ✗ Commuting time to and from the internship site

Recording Client Sessions: Please see this section in Practicum Requirements, above.

Comprehensive Examination

A comprehensive examination is required of all students enrolled in the Counselor Education program. The comprehensive exam is generally taken near the end of the graduate program. Students must be approved by their advisor in order to register for the comprehensive exam. Students are allowed to select one of the two following comprehensive exams: (a) The National Counseling Exam, or (b) Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Exam (CPCE).

The National Counseling Exam (NCE) is administered as a comprehensive exam. There is no official study guide for this examination. However, the NCE website does provide additional information that could prove helpful when preparing for the examination. The Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Exam (CPCE) is administered as another comprehensive exam. There is no official study guide for this examination. However, the CPCE website does provide additional information that could prove helpful when preparing for the examination.

Students must follow the CED comps registration process to take the comprehensive examination. The comprehensive exam coordinator will review the student's application and notify students of the following steps with the National Board of Certified Counselors (NBCC) office. If students have not received official confirmation from the comprehensive exam coordinator, they will not be permitted to participate in the examination process.

The NCE and CPCE are only administered in electronic format. The Counselor Education program will send students information on how to register for the exam, more details on the Candidate Handbook for National Certified Counselor Certification and through the comprehensive exam register instructions.

Two test delivery options are available for the NCE and CPCE:

- In-person administration, at a Pearson VUE testing center.
- Internet-based (online) administration through Pearson VUE's OnVUE platform. The examination may be taken on a computer at home or in a private setting with a strong internet connection and webcam. Strict security protocols are in place to ensure the integrity and security of the testing process and examination content. For more information about the OnVUE process and system requirements, visit nbcc.org/exams/administration.

Each student is responsible for paying the exam registration fee. Students pay the fee subsequent to electronic registration for the specific NCE or CPCE administration date. The fee is due for each administration of the exam.

When taking the NCE, students will receive their pass/fail determination scores and results along with the national norming data within eight weeks of their evaluation with a score of "pass" or "fail." Scores must be shared with the Comprehensive Exam Coordinator and their program advisor. Students must receive a score of "pass." When taking the CPCE, Students receive their CPCE scores immediately after the exam. Scores must be shared with the Comprehensive Exam Coordinator and their program advisor. The Counselor Education Program receives student scores along with the national norming data monthly. In order to qualify for a 'pass' on the comprehensive exam students must:

(a) have an overall score no lower than .5 standard deviation below the national mean

AND (b) have a minimum score of 50% correct on each subscale of the exam (≥ 9 out of 17).

When students pass, students must submit their Culminating Experience Paperwork through Grad Rebel Gateway. The form will be automatically routed to your advisor, graduate coordinator, and department chair.

If a student fails the NCE exam:

1. Following the first failure of the NCE, the student must meet with their program advisor to discuss the examination, their preparation, and plans going forward. Students will bring a copy of their NCE scores. Students will be put on a remediation plan for developmental support at the discretion of their advisor and/or program faculty. Students will also be placed on academic probation via the Graduate College. Students can re-register for the NCE following the successful completion of the remediation plan and with permission of their advisor.
 - a. In this meeting, student and advisor will review sections of the exam of lower scoring sections to ensure successful passage the second time. This will include a detailed plan for studying for those sections.
 - b. Student cannot re-register for the exam within 1 month of the first testing.
2. If a student fails the exam two times, students will be required to take an independent study reviewing content related to the NCE for a grade (course cannot be audited) and be placed on a remediation plan with their advisor as well as being placed on probation via the Graduate College. If students elect to not take independent study, they will not be allowed to progress in the program or graduate. Student must get a B or better in remedial coursework.
 1. Option A: Student may elect (with the support of their advisor) to retake the NCE as outlined above, OR
 2. Option B: Student may elect (with the support of their advisor) to complete a written and oral comprehensive examination. Student should take the written exam after advisor approval and no earlier than approximately 8 weeks into the academic semester in which they are enrolled in remedial courses.
 1. The written and oral comprehensive examination will include:
 1. A written question selected by three CED faculty evaluators that includes theoretical and practical components regarding a specific core area (e.g., assessment) and should include professional literature and references. It will be evaluated by three faculty members using the rubric below. See rubric for passage requirements. The document should be free of grammatical and mechanical errors, in APA format, and approximately 20-pages except reference pages. It is expected that this document is publication quality.
 2. This written exam will be made available for selected areas in a specified period with one week to complete. For example, the exam could be sent on a Monday morning by 9:00am and the student will have until the following Monday at 9am to return the written examination to the committee. In instances where multiple sections must be written, student will take one exam at a time, with faculty grading written examinations for one week between written attempts.

3. If the student passes the written examination(s), they then will complete an oral examination with three CED faculty evaluators. Even if multiple written examinations are completed, students will only have one oral examination. The oral examination will take place face to face and will last about one hour.
3. If the student does not pass the independent study and (a) the written and oral examination, or (b) NCE for their third attempt, the student will be removed from the counselor education program after being placed on probation via the Graduate College.

If a student fails the CPCE exam:

1. After the first failure of the CPCE, students are only required to pass the section/criteria that they have yet to pass. In other words, if a student met the minimum overall score but failed to meet the minimum score for a particular subscale, then the student will only need to receive a passing score on that specific subscale the second or third time around. A student cannot "fail" a section they have previously passed. For example, if a student failed subscale 1, 2, 3, the first time around, they will only need to pass those same subscales regardless if they fail another subscale in their subsequent attempt.
2. Following the first failure of the CPC, the student must meet with their program advisor to discuss the examination, their preparation, and plans going forward. Students will bring a copy of their CPCE scores. Students will be put on a remediation plan for developmental support at the discretion of their advisor and/or program faculty. Students will also be placed on academic probation via the Graduate College. Students can re-register for the CPCE following the successful completion of the remediation plan and with permission of their advisor.
 - c. In this meeting, student and advisor will review sections of the exam of lower scoring sections to ensure successful passage the second time. This will include a detailed plan for studying for those sections.
 - d. Student cannot re-register for the exam within 1 month of the first testing.
3. If a student fails the exam two times, students will be required to take an independent study reviewing content related to the NCE for a grade (course cannot be audited) and be placed on a remediation plan with their advisor as well as being placed on probation via the Graduate College. If students elect to not take independent study, they will not be allowed to progress in the program or graduate. Student must get a B or better in remedial coursework.

Student Participation in Professional Counseling Organizations

AMERICAN COUNSELING ASSOCIATION

The American Counseling Association (ACA) is a professional association composed of over 55,000 counselors and human development specialists. ACA provides leadership training, continuing education and professional development opportunities and advocacy services for its members. Student memberships are available and a subscription to the Journal of Counseling and Development is included with membership. Professional liability insurance is available to members. ACA has several divisions and special interest groups that members may join. Each division publishes a newsletter and many publish journals. Some of these divisions that may be of interest to students are: Association for Child & Adolescent Counseling, Association for Counselor Education and Supervision, Association for Multicultural Counseling and Development, Association for Specialists in Group Work, International Association of Marriage and Family Counselors, and National Career Development Association. For further information see the ACA's website.

AMERICAN MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELORS ASSOCIATION

The mission of the American Mental Health Counselors Association (AMHCA) is to advance the profession of clinical mental health counseling by setting the standard for: Collaboration Advocacy Research Ethical Practice Education, Training, and Professional Development.

AMHCA is the only association dedicated specifically to the interests of Clinical Mental Health Counselors.

AMERICAN SCHOOL COUNSELING ASSOCIATION

The American School Counseling Association (ASCA) is a professional association composed of over 30,000 school counselors at all levels from Elementary Schools to College/University. ASCA supports school counselors' efforts in fostering the academic, personal/social, and career development of students so they can be successful in school and lead fulfilling lives as responsible members of society. ASCA provides professional development, publications, and other resources to professional school counselors and school counselors in training. ASCA.

CHI SIGMA IOTA

Chi Sigma Iota is an international honor society for counselors-in-training, counselor educators and professional counselors. Its mission is to promote scholarship, research, professionalism, leadership and excellence in counseling, and to recognize high attainment in the pursuit of academic and clinical excellence in the field of counseling. Omega Alpha is UNLV's chapter of Chi Sigma Iota, consisting of student, alumni, and professional members. Members are encouraged to strive for excellence in the field of counseling and are honored both at the chapter and international levels. Annual awards and fellowships are given to compel members to work for outstanding scholarship and professionalism. CSI.

Faculty Initiated

This document is signed by all counseling students during an orientation signifying that they understand that the competencies and dispositions in this document will be evaluated by faculty at candidacy and prior to internship; and that, at any time, a faculty member may initiate an evaluation of a student on any item(s) that may be unsatisfactory. These competencies and their respective dispositions complement specific knowledge and skills measure in specific courses and in the evaluation of clinical competencies.

Students must be satisfactory in all competencies to be granted permission to begin internship, and/or to continue in the program. Denial of continue in the program or permission to start internship may result if any item is rated as unsatisfactory. Deferral of practicum/internship permission if any item is unsatisfactory may include, if appropriate, a remedial plan for unsatisfactory items. If an item(s) has not been observed or is not known by at least one faculty member, a plan must be made to observe and evaluate the behavior relative to the specific disposition before permission to continue in the graduate program is granted or approval is given to start/continue in practicum/internship. Should the faculty initiate an evaluation, the student will meet with the advisor to discuss the item(s) in question and to determine a strategy for satisfactory evaluation of the item(s). Each knowledge and skill competency is connected to a respective disposition(s): ethical, professional, reflective, service, diversity and aligned with the standards of the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP). Descriptions of dispositions are in the student handbook.
