

About us

- Founded in 2002 and graduated 1,516 general dentists since 2006.
- Receives approximately 1,800 applications each year for 82 positions in the pre-doctoral program.
- Offers 10 academic and advanced education programs.
- Employs more than 250 faculty and staff.
- Educates more than 320 pre-doctoral students and 52 dental residents each year.
- Faculty, resident, and student dentists complete approximately 70,000 patient visits each year.
- Faculty, residents, and students lead multiple research projects on a variety of topics within more than 4,000 square feet of laboratory space.
- Provides comprehensive person-centered patient care in outpatient clinics for all stages of life.
- Hosts no-cost community treatment clinics for veterans, women, and homeless persons that have delivered care to more than 4,000 people in need since 2011.
- Leads community initiatives focused on oral health education and disease prevention among children throughout the state, reaching more than 200,000 since 2011.

unlv.edu/dental

